Introduction

The first edition of English Vocabulary in Use: upper-intermediate and advanced was published in 1994. We felt it was time to revise the book for three main reasons. Firstly, technology and other social changes have brought a number of new words and expressions into everyday use. Secondly, we have collected feedback from users of the book all over the world who have made many helpful suggestions that we have been able to incorporate into our new edition. Thirdly, we have access to the Cambridge International Corpus to help inform the choice, presentation and practice of vocabulary items.

What is the same about the new edition?

It retains the features that have made it popular:
- The format of presentation on the left-hand page and practice on the right-hand page.
- It opens with a section on skills for vocabulary recording and memorising.
- It approaches English vocabulary from a range of different angles – looking not just at topics but also at word formation, at words and grammar, at functions like Connecting and linking, at concepts like Time or Distance, at varieties of English.
- It has a complete student-friendly answer key, containing not just the answers but also comments on them where appropriate.
- It contains language and usage notes that are ideal for the self-study learner.
- It contains four symbols to help identify useful common collocations, typical errors, notes about register and when to use a dictionary. (see p.1)
- There is a complete index at the back, listing all the key words and phrases covered.

What is different about the new edition?

In the new edition we have revised each unit to ensure that it is now at upper-intermediate level. We have done this by cutting words that were either too advanced or too easy, replacing them with words more relevant to the level. Frequency data from the Cambridge International Corpus helped inform our decisions here.

We have also clarified our presentation of vocabulary by adding artwork to make the vocabulary easier to understand. There is now more contextualisation of vocabulary and we have also provided more grammar and pronunciation information about the vocabulary we present.

In revising English Vocabulary in Use: Upper-intermediate we have made considerable use of the Cambridge International Corpus of written and spoken English. This enabled us to check that the example contexts for the language presented were the most natural ones. Where necessary, we have suggested different, more frequent, collocations or contexts.

The process of updating the materials has also allowed us to introduce some new units as requested by teachers and students. You will, therefore, find that this edition contains units on: Guessing and explaining meaning (Unit 7), Music (Unit 47) and Computers and the Internet (Unit 58). Unit 17, New words in English has been totally revised to match changes in the language since our first edition.

In this second edition we have reorganised our units in a slightly more logical fashion and have introduced clearer headings for some of the sections. We have also created a new section, Words and pronunciation. In addition, we have made some other changes to the presentation materials and the exercises that we hope will make the book easier for students to use. The addition of colour in this edition will, we are sure, be a popular change.

We very much hope that students and teachers will continue to enjoy working with English Vocabulary in Use: Upper-intermediate and will approve of the changes we have made.

Using this book

Why was this book written?
This book was written to help you to improve your English vocabulary. It will help you to learn not only the meanings of words but also how they are used. You can use this book either with a teacher or for self-study.

How is the book organised?
The book has 100 two-page units. In most units, the left-hand page explains the words and expressions to be studied in that unit. Where appropriate, it gives information about the meanings of words as well as how to use them. The right-hand page checks that you have understood the information on the left-hand page by giving you a series of exercises practising what you have just learnt. Occasionally the right-hand page will also teach you some more new words.

There is a key at the back of the book. It will help you learn more about the words and expressions studied in the unit. Some questions have only one correct answer. Other questions have more than one answer. You will find comments on the answers giving reasons why one answer may be more appropriate than another. You will also find suggested answers for more open-ended questions. These suggested answers are intended to be used as possible examples and are not the only correct answer.

There is an index at the back of the book. This lists all the words and phrases covered in the book and refers you to the units where these words or phrases are discussed. The index also tells you how difficult and unusual words are pronounced. It uses the International Phonetic Alphabet to do this and the symbols you need to know are listed on p.3.

How should I use this book?
The book is divided into a number of sections. Start by working through the first seven units. These units not only teach you some new vocabulary but they also help you with useful techniques for vocabulary learning in general. After completing those units, you might want to work straight through the book or you might prefer to do the units in any order that suits you. You may also like to visit the ‘in Use’ website at

Key to symbols used in the margins

(!) indicates the type of error that students typically make with a word or expression.
(R) indicates a note about the language register, for example, whether a word or expression is formal or informal, slang or colloquial, or whether it is more commonly used in a written or spoken context.

(pages) indicates a common collocation, where words frequently occur together.

(books) indicates where students are advised to refer to a dictionary.
What else do I need in order to work with this book?

You need some kind of vocabulary notebook or file where you can write down the new words you are learning. (See Unit 3 for advice on how to do this.)

You also need to have access to a couple of good dictionaries. This book selects the words that are most important for you to learn at your level and it gives you the most important information about those words but you will sometimes need to refer to a dictionary as well for extra information about meaning and usage. Some exercises tell you to use a dictionary; these help to train you in getting the best out of your dictionary. Firstly, you need an English–English dictionary for foreign learners. Good ones are The Cambridge Advanced Learner's Dictionary, the Longman Dictionary of Contemporary English, the Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary and the Collins Cobuild English Language Dictionary, for example. Secondly, you will also find a good bilingual dictionary useful. Ask a teacher to recommend a good bilingual dictionary for you. (See Unit 5 for advice on using your dictionaries.) Don’t forget that many dictionaries are available on CD-ROM. If you want more information about different types of dictionaries, visit Cambridge University Press's website at

Learning vocabulary – general advice

What do you need to learn?

1 How many words are there in English? At least:
   a) 10,000  b) 100,000  c) 250,000  d) 500,000

2 Winston Churchill was famous for his particularly large vocabulary. How many words did he use in his writing?
   a) 10,000  b) 60,000  c) 100,000  d) 120,000

3 How many words does the average native English speaker use in his/her everyday speech?
   a) 2,500  b) 5,000  c) 7,500  d) 10,000

4 How many words make up 45% of everything written in English?
   a) 50  b) 250  c) 1,000  d) 2,500

5 What do you think are the most common 20 words in English?

To summarise some basic facts about English vocabulary:
- The most common words in English are the grammar words which you already know.
- There are many words in English you don’t need at all.
- There are other words that you need simply to understand when you read or hear them.
- There are words which you need to be able to use yourself.

Clearly you need to spend most time learning this last group. In the text below underline the words you’d like to be able to use.

English vocabulary has a remarkable range, flexibility and adaptability. Thanks to the periods of contact with foreign languages and its readiness to coin new words out of old elements English seems to have far more words in its core vocabulary than other languages. For example, alongside kingly (from Anglo-Saxon) we find royal (from French) and regal (from Latin). There are many such sets of words which add greatly to our opportunities to express subtle shades of meaning at various levels of style.
What does knowing a new word mean?
It is not enough just to know the meaning (or meanings) of a word. You also need to know:
- which words it is usually associated with.
- its grammatical characteristics.
- how it is pronounced.
- whether it is formal, informal or neutral (See also Unit 4).
- Try to learn new words in phrases not in isolation.
- Write down words that commonly go together. These are called collocations:
  adjectives + nouns, e.g. rich vocabulary, classical music, common sense.
  verbs + nouns, e.g. to express an opinion, to take sides.
  nouns in phrases, e.g. in touch with, a train set, a sense of humour.
  words + prepositions, e.g. at a loss for words, thanks to you.
- Note special grammatical characteristics of new words. For example, note irregular verbs, e.g. take, took, taken; uncountable nouns, e.g. luggage; or nouns that are only used in the plural, e.g. clothes.
- Note any special pronunciation problems with new words.
- Make a note if the word is particularly formal or informal in character, in other words if it has a particular register.

1 How could you write these words in phrases to help you remember them?
   a) royal  b) dissuade  c) king  d) up to my ears  e) independent ( )
   f) get married

2 What grammatical notes would you make beside the following words?
   a) scissors  b) weather  c) teach  d) advice  e) lose  f) trousers

3 What might you note beside the following words?
   a) subtle  b) catastrophe  c) photograph/photographer  d) answer

4 What might you note beside the following words about their register?
   a) guys  b) persons  c) people

5 What phrases could you pick out of the text about vocabulary in section A that could be useful to learn?

Can you learn just by reading or listening to English?
You can help yourself to learn English vocabulary not only by studying with this book but also by reading and listening to English as much as you can. Rank each item below from 0 to 4 to describe how important this way of learning vocabulary is for you personally. (4 is the most important.) You can add other items to the list if you wish.

- newspapers
- TV (cable/subtitled)
- magazines
- radio e.g. BBC World Service
- video
- academic or professional literature
- cinema
- fiction
- comics
- the Internet
- cassettes or CDs (music or spoken word)
- talking to native speakers

How are you going to plan your vocabulary learning?
1 How many words and expressions do you intend to learn each week?
   a) 5  b) 10  c) 15  d) more than 15

2 Where and when are you going to learn them?
   a) on the way to school or work  b) before dinner  c) in bed  d) other

3 How often are you going to revise your work?
   a) once a week  b) once a month  c) before a test  d) once a year
Learning vocabulary – aids to learning

Learning associated words together
• Learn words with associated meanings together.
Learning words together that are associated in meaning is a popular and useful way of organising your vocabulary study.
1 Complete the bubble network for the word CAT. Add as many other bubbles as you like.

If possible, compare your network with those done by your classmates. Add any of their ideas that you like to your own network.
• Learn words with a grammatical association together.
2 Here are some groups of words, each of which has a grammatical connection. Can you see what the connection is? What other words could you add to these groups?
   a) child tooth mouse       b) information furniture luggage
• Learn together words based on the same root.
3 Can you add any words or expressions to these two groups?
   a) price priceless overpriced
   b) handy single-handed give me a hand to help

Using pictures and diagrams
• Pictures might help you to remember vocabulary.

1 Can you draw any pictures that would help you remember the following vocabulary?
   a circle  to look a gift-horse in the mouth  screwdriver
• Word trees can be useful.

2 Look at the word tree for holiday. Now complete a tree for school.

• Word forks are good ways of learning adjectives and verbs.

3 Look at complete word forks below. Finish the others.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>original</th>
<th>shoot</th>
<th>magnificent</th>
<th>kick</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>brilliant</td>
<td>edit</td>
<td>breath-taking</td>
<td>hit</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>unusual</td>
<td>direct</td>
<td>superb</td>
<td>bounce</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>great</td>
<td>star in</td>
<td>view</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>excellent</td>
<td>review</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

• Bubble networks can be a useful way of writing down phrasal verbs.

4 Look at the example. The base verb goes at the centre of the network and is surrounded by the different prepositions which can be added to the base verb to make a phrasal verb. The final bubble contains an appropriate object or phrase to complete the relevant phrasal verb.

Write your own bubble network for make. Use a dictionary and look at Unit 89.

• Tables can also help clarify collocations (words that are often associated).

5 Look at the following example of a table:

<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>a car</th>
<th>a motorbike</th>
<th>a train</th>
<th>a horse</th>
<th>a plane</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>to fly</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>+</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to drive</td>
<td>+</td>
<td></td>
<td>+</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to ride</td>
<td></td>
<td>+</td>
<td></td>
<td>+</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now complete the following sentences.
a) She has always wanted to have the chance to ...................... a train.
b) Trainee pilots spend a long time learning how to ...................... different kinds of planes.
c) .......................... a motorbike can be very dangerous.

You will do more practice with these and other ways of writing down vocabulary in Unit 3.
Organising a vocabulary notebook

TIP  All the time that you use this book, we advise you to keep a personal vocabulary notebook. There is no one correct way to organise a vocabulary notebook, but it is a good idea to think about possible ways of doing so. This unit gives some possibilities and examples.

Organising words by meaning
Try dividing your notebook into different broad sections, with sections for words for feelings, words to describe places, words for movement, words for thinking, etc. In each section you can build families of words related in meaning, using some of the ways suggested in this unit.

Using various types of diagrams
Words that can be grouped under a heading or a more general word can be drawn as a tree-diagram. (See also Unit 2.)

The dotted lines mean that you can add more words to the tree as you meet them.
A bubble network is also useful, since you can make it grow in whatever direction you want it to. (See Unit 2.)

Organising by word-class
A Spanish learner of English, Angeles, gave us an interview on how she marks word-class in her personal notebook. This is what she said:

'What I have just started doing is to write them depending on if they are verbs or nouns or adjectives or phrases. If they are phrases I write them in red and also the definition. If they are verbs, in black, and blue if they are nouns ... And if I write the Spanish translation I write it in another colour, so it's easy to see ... I draw some pictures too.'

When you find a synonym or an antonym of a word you already have in your book, enter it next to that word.

stop = cease ('cease' is more formal than 'stop')    urban ≠ rural
Exercises

3.1 Here is a list of words a Spanish learner of English has made in her vocabulary notebook. How could she improve them and organise them better?

- clock - reloj
- tell the time - decir la hora
- rush - por prisa
- office - despacho
- beneath
- under
- I must rush - tengo prisa/tengo que correr

- drowsy - the room was hot and I got drowsy
- wristwatch - reloj de pulsera
- What time do you make it?
- next to - junto a al lado de
- hands - the minute-hand (minutero)
- wide-awake (fully awake)

3.2 Here is a word-map, a variation on the bubble network. What word do you think should go in the middle?

- play
- performance
- comedy
- tragedy
- stalls
- circle
- box
- book
- cancel
- producer
- director
- actor
- company
- ticket
- programme

3.3 One learner tested himself regularly with his notebook, covering up the word and trying to guess it from the translation he had written or from any other notes he had made. Here is his system.

1 If the notes and/or translation were clear but he could not get the word, he made a small red mark in the margin. Three red marks meant that word needed extra attention and a special effort to learn it.

2 If the notes and/or translation could not help him guess the word, then the word got a blue mark. A blue mark meant ‘Write more information about this word!’

What is your testing system? Try to invent one if you have not got one, or ask other people what they do. Try your system out and decide if it works.

3.4 Making tables for word-classes is a good idea, since you can fill in the gaps over time. What would you put in the remaining gaps in the table?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>noun</th>
<th>verb</th>
<th>adjective</th>
<th>person</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>production</td>
<td>produce</td>
<td>industrial</td>
<td>producer</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>industry</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>export</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
```

Follow-up: Exchange tips on recording vocabulary in a notebook with at least two other people who are learning English or another language.
The names of English language words

The names of basic parts of speech in English article   noun   adverb   conjunction   gerund

adjective   verb   preposition   pronoun

Words relating to nouns
Look at the sentence An artist loves beauty. The word artist is countable, i.e. it has a plural form (artists), but beauty is uncountable. Artist is the subject of the verb as it describes who does the verb; beauty is the object, i.e. what is affected by the verb.

Words relating to verbs infinitive (go)   -ing form (going)   past participle (gone)   past tense (went)
Go (go, gone, went) is an irregular verb whereas live (live, lived, lived) is regular. Go is also intransitive because it does not need an object, e.g. Has Luis gone? Make is transitive because it is followed by an object – you make something.

Words relating to the construction of words
In the word, irregularity, ir- is a prefix, regular is a root and -ity is a suffix. Thin is the opposite or antonym of fat and slim is a synonym of thin. A word family is a set of words based on one root, e.g. word, worldly, to reword. A phrase does not include a main verb – ‘in a word’ is an example of a phrase. A sentence has a main verb; it begins with a capital letter and ends with a full stop (or a question mark or an exclamation mark).

Words relating to pronunciation
A syllable /ˈsɪləbl/ is the minimum sound unit of a word consisting of one vowel and any consonants on either side. There are five syllables in the word ‘monosyllabic’ and the stress is on the fourth syllable.

Words and their associations
There are different styles of speaking and writing appropriate to different situations. Slang is an extremely informal style; a colloquial style is suitable mainly for conversations, e.g. He’s a nice guy. Pejorative words have a negative association. Pig-headed is pejorative whereas determined, which is very close in meaning, is not. Collocation refers to words which frequently occur together, e.g. heavy rain, ginger hair.

Words describing punctuation
. full stop   , comma   ; semi-colon   ’ apostrophe
- hyphen   — dash   ! exclamation mark   ? question mark ( ) brackets   “ ” inverted commas   ANNE block capitals
Exercises

4.1 Look at the paragraph about words and their associations in F opposite. Find at least three examples of each of the following:
1 nouns .........................................................................................................................
2 verbs ..............................................................................................................................
3 adjectives .........................................................................................................................
4 adverbs ............................................................................................................................
5 prepositions ......................................................................................................................

Now mark the nouns you’ve written with a C (countable) or UC (uncountable). Mark the verbs R (regular) or IR (irregular) and T (transitive) or IT intransitive.

4.2 Complete the following table.

4.3 Think about the word informal.
1 What is its root, its prefix and its suffix?
2 What is its opposite or antonym?
3 Has it got any synonyms?
4 Name some words that are included in its word family.

4.4 Look at all the words in bold (with more than one syllable) in sections E, F and G opposite. In each case mark which syllable is stressed.

4.5 Match the following colloquial words with their more formal equivalents in the box.
1 chat (verb) 2 loo 3 chap 4 put up with 5 fiddle (noun) man violin lavatory converse tolerate

4.6 The following pairs of words are close in meaning but one word in each case is pejorative. Which?
1 terrorist / freedom fighter 3 fluent / wordy 5 cunning / shrewd
2 slim / skinny 4 mean / thrifty 6 generous / extravagant

4.7 The words in the box each collocate with one of the following words: noun, verb and colloquial. What are the collocations?
EXAMPLE abstract noun

( ) .......................... ? .......................... ' .......................... , ..........................
; .......................... - .......................... = .......................... “ ” ..........................
Using your dictionary

Good dictionaries, especially learners’ dictionaries, can tell you a lot more about a word than just its meaning, including (among other things):

- Word-class (usually abbreviations n: noun, adj: adjective, etc.), whether a noun is countable or uncountable, and whether a verb is normally transitive (needs an object) or intransitive (doesn’t need an object).
- Synonyms and their differences, e.g. mislay and misplace
- Antonyms (opposites), e.g. friend ≠ enemy/foe
- Collocations (how words go together), e.g. living is often used in these collocations:
  - cost of living, make a living, standard of living, do something for a living
- Pronunciation: this will mean learning some symbols which are different from the letters of the English alphabet.

Most other symbols look just like ordinary letters of the English alphabet and their pronunciation is not too hard to guess. Check the table on p.3 if you’re not sure.

- Word stress: often shown by a mark before the syllable to be stressed or by bold type, e.g. advent(she). Make sure you know how your dictionary marks stress.
- Usage: how a word is used and any special grammatical pattern that goes with it, e.g. suggest + clause (not an infinitive) – I suggest you ring her right away.
- Whether a word is used for people and/or things. For example, look at this entry for malignant:

  ma·li·g·nant /mal’·i·g·nant/ adj 1 (of people or their actions) feeling or showing great desire to harm others; malevolent: a malignant slander, attack, thrust. 2 (a) (of a tumour) growing uncontrollably, and likely to prove fatal: The growth is not malignant. (b) (of diseases) harmful to life.
  ↓ ma·li·g·n·cy /ˌmæl′·i·g·n-s/ n 1 [U] state of being malignant. 2 [C] malignant tumour.
  ma·li·g·nant·ly adv

Don’t forget that most words have more than one meaning. In this example, only the second meaning corresponds to the way hairy is used in this sentence:

It was a really hairy journey on the mountain road.

hairy /ˈheəri/ hairier, hairiest 1 Someone or something that is hairy is covered with hair: a...-

The function of a mammal’s hairy coat is to insulate the body.

2 If you describe a situation as hairy, you mean that it is exciting, worrying, and rather frightening: a...-

If you describe a situation as hairy, you mean that it is exciting, worrying, and rather frightening: a very informal use, so it got a little hairy when we...
Exercises

5.1 With a bilingual dictionary, try a double search: look up a word in your language; the dictionary may give several possibilities in English. Look up each of those possibilities in the English section of the dictionary to see how they translate back into your language. This may help you to distinguish synonyms.

If you own a dictionary, make a little mark in the margin each time you look a word up. If a word gets three or more marks, it is worth an extra effort to learn it. What other learning techniques are there for dictionaries?

5.2 Small bilingual dictionaries often just give three or four translations for a word you look up, without any explanation. Here are some pictures with translations you might find in such a dictionary. Which ones fit in the sentences? You may need to use a monolingual dictionary.

1. Come and sit on the ......................... and relax a while.
2. She bought a huge, luxury ..................... and went off round the world.
3. If you’re going to stand in the water you should take your ...................
4. It’s not a proper yacht; it’s just a tiny little ......................

5.3 Which [WORD] for casual describes its use in these sentences?

CASUAL [NOT INTERESTED] /'kasjuəli/ adj not taking or not seeming to take much interest; not caring • The psychologist’s attitude seemed far too casual, even brutal. • Security around the conference hotel seemed almost casual. • Although close to tears, she tried to make her voice sound casual.

CASUAL-ly /'kasjuəl-li/ adv • “How would you kill someone, doctor?” the woman asked casually (= as if it was not a serious matter).

1. It was quite a casual outfit, just right for such an informal occasion.
2. I only said it casually, but it shocked her.
3. She has a very casual attitude to her work. She should take it more seriously.
4. I don’t get a salary; I’m just a casual.

5.4 Pronunciation. What English words are these?

1 /kəsjuəli/ 3 /leŋə/ 5 /ra'vɪʒən/ 2 /pæsəpot/ 4 /ˈlɪbəti/ 6 /'brɪdə/

5.5 In the dictionary entry for hairy opposite how many synonyms can you find?

Follow-up: If you can access the Internet go to the web address for Cambridge University Press dictionaries at http://www.dictionary.cambridge.org/ and find out what different types of dictionaries are available for learners of English.
Revising vocabulary

Here is an extract from a book about language learning strategies on the importance of revising in an active way.

Revising ... is especially useful for remembering new material in the target language. It involves looking back at what has been studied at different intervals, at first close together and then increasingly far apart. For example, Misha is learning a set of vocabulary words in English. He practises them immediately, waits 15 minutes before practising them again, and practises them an hour later, three hours later, the next day, two days later, four days later, the following week, two weeks later, and so on until the material becomes more or less automatic. In this way he keeps returning to these particular vocabulary words, even though he might be meeting more material in class. Each time he practises these vocabulary words, Misha does it in a meaningful way, like putting them into a context or recombining them to make new sentences. Naturally, the amount of time needed to make new material automatic depends on the kind of material involved.

Revising with this book

When you revise a unit, first read it through. Then look at anything you wrote in your vocabulary notebook, connected with the unit. Then, and most importantly, try to do something different with the new words and expressions in that unit in order to help fix them in your memory. Here are some suggestions:

• Highlight any words and expressions that you had forgotten or were not sure about.
• Look at the unit and choose six words and expressions that you particularly want or need to learn. Write them down.
• Look up any words that you selected in an English–English dictionary. Do these words have any other uses or associations that might help you learn them? Looking up the word, heart, for example, might lead you to heart-broken or to have your heart in your mouth. Write anything that appeals to you in an appropriate phrase or sentence.
• The dictionary can also help you find some other words based on the same root. Looking up the noun, employment, leads you to the verb, employ, to the nouns, employer and employee, and to the adjectives employable, unemployed and self-employed.
• Note the pronunciation of the words and expressions you wish to learn. Try to write them down in phonetic script. Use a dictionary to help you.
• In your notebook, write down the words and phrases from a unit in a different way – put them into a network or a table, perhaps.
• The next day, ask yourself: How much can I remember?
• Test yourself, cover part of a word or phrase. Can you complete the word or phrase?

When you have done all the steps above that you feel will be useful to you, close your book and notebook and remind yourself of what you have been studying. How much can you remember?
Making the new words active
One of the great advantages of revising vocabulary is that it should help you to make the step from having something in your receptive vocabulary to having it in your active vocabulary. Encourage this process by:

• writing the words and expressions you are trying to learn in a sentence relating to your life and interests at the moment.
• making a point of using the new words and expressions in your next class or homework or in some other way.
• keeping a learning diary in which you note down things that particularly interest you about the words you have learnt.
• watching out for the words and expressions you are trying to learn in your general reading of English. If you come across any of them in use, write them down in their context in your diary or notebook.
• writing a paragraph or story linking the words and expressions you want to learn.

What can you remember?
1 What do you remember now from the first five units in this book? Answer without looking back at the units.
2 Now read through the units again.
3 How much do you remember about the units now?
4 Choose at least one word and expression from each unit and work through all the suggestions made in B and C above. It may not always be appropriate in your future study to do all the steps in B but try them now for practice.

Some plans for your work with this book
1 How often are you going to revise what you have done? (Every week? Every five units?)
2 Which techniques are you going to use for revising?
3 Now write yourself some notes to remind yourself of when you are going to revise. You might like, for instance, to write revise vocabulary in your diary for the next eight Fridays, if you decided to revise every week. Alternatively you could write REVISE in capital letters, after, say, every five units in the book.
Inferring meaning from context

There are a number of clues which you may be able to use to help you work out the meaning of an unfamiliar word:

The context in which it is used

- Visual clues: a picture in a book or film footage in a TV news broadcast may help you.
- Your own background knowledge about a situation: for example, if you already know that there has just been an earthquake in Los Angeles, then you will find it easy to understand the word ‘earthquake’ when you hear a news broadcast about it.
- The immediate context (other words around the unfamiliar word): these may make the meaning absolutely clear: ‘Suzanna picked one tall yellow gladiolus to put in her new crystal vase.’ Even if you have never seen or heard the word ‘gladiolus’, it will probably be obvious to you from the context that it is a type of flower.
- Grammatical clues in the context: it is not difficult to understand that ‘superstitious’ must be an adjective in the sentence ‘Marsha is very superstitious,’ or that ‘gingerly’ is an adverb in ‘Jackie tiptoed gingerly down the stairs.’

Similarity to other words you already know in English

A large number of words in English are made up of combinations of other words. You may never have seen the word ‘headscarf’, for example, but the meaning is easy to work out from its two components. Units 12–14 will help you improve your skills in understanding how English uses everyday words to build up new concepts.

Structure

A prefix or suffix may give you a clue, for example. Units 8–11 focus on different aspects of word formation in English and should help you exploit those clues in making sense of unfamiliar words.

Similarity to a word you know in your own (or some other) language

If your first language is of Latin or of Germanic origin, you will come across many words in English that resemble words in your own language. However, English has taken many words from many other languages too (see Unit 15). So make use of any other languages you know. But remember that some words are false friends – they sound as if they mean the same but in fact they have a different meaning. (A good dictionary will give lists of false friends for a lot of European languages.)

Explaining unknown words

The following expressions can be useful when you are trying to explain what a word or expression means:

It’s (a bit) like (a chair) ...

It’s something you use for (painting pictures / cleaning the kitchen floor ...)

It’s a kind of (bird / musical instrument / building ...)

It must / could be ...

Tip

It will not be possible to work out the meanings of all the unfamiliar words that you come across but remember that you do not need to understand every word in a text in order to understand the whole text. When it is crucial to know a meaning, use the clues suggested in this unit and make a guess before checking the dictionary.
Exercises

7.1 Look at the following text. Before you read it, see if you know what the underlined words mean.

A tortoise is a shelled reptile famed for its slowness and longevity. The Giant Tortoise of the Galapagos may attain over 1.5 metres in length and have a lifespan of more than 150 years. Smaller tortoises from Southern Europe and North Africa make popular pets. They need to be tended carefully in cool climates and must have a warm place in which they can hibernate.

Which of the underlined words can you guess from the context or using any other clues? First make a guess and then check your guesses in the key.

7.2 Use the context to work out what the underlined words mean. Explain them using one or other of the expressions in B on the opposite page.

1. Above the trees at the edge of the meadow, a buzzard hangs for a moment on the wind before soaring towards the hills.
2. According to some sources, the water vole is one of the most rapidly declining creatures in Britain and a new survey is now being carried out to determine how serious the threat of extinction really is.
3. Using a large chisel the police broke through the front door and surprised the robbers.
4. We ate a delicious chicken and noodle soup from a big tureen and enjoyed several bowls each.
5. When the soup is ready, ladle it into six warmed bowls.
6. We often used to walk up to the cliff top where we would clamber over the farmer’s gate and go right to the edge where the view was better.
7. Some people get really ratty when they haven’t had enough sleep.

7.3 Use your knowledge of other basic English words to help you work out the meanings of the underlined words and expressions. Rewrite them using simpler words or explanations for the underlined words and phrases.

1. It says on the can that this drink is sugar-free.
2. More and more shops now have their own special store cards and offer you a discount if you use one of them.
3. I find Mo a very warm-hearted person.
4. I’ve been up to my eyes in work ever since I got back from holiday.
5. We walked down a tree-lined street towards the station.
6. The little boys were fascinated by the cement-mixer.

7.4 Use your knowledge of prefixes and suffixes to suggest what these phrases mean.

1. to re-direct an envelope
2. uncontrollable anger
3. pre-dinner drinks
4. bi-monthly report
5. my ex-boss
6. anti-tourist feelings
7. to disconnect the telephone
8. undelivered letters
Suffixes

Common noun suffixes

-er /ˈer/ is used for the person who does an activity, e.g. writer, painter, worker, shopper, teacher.

You can use -er with a wide range of verbs to make them into nouns. Sometimes the -er suffix is written as -or (it is still pronounced /ɔːr/). It is worth making a special list of these as you meet them, e.g. actor, operator, sailor, supervisor.

-er/-or are also used for things which do a particular job, e.g. pencil-sharpener, bottle-opener, grater, projector.

-er and -ee (pronounced /iə/) can contrast with each other meaning ‘person who does something’ (-er) and ‘person who receives or experiences the action’ (-ee) employer/employee /ɪmˈɒlpəɪər/, sender/addressee, payee (e.g. of a cheque).

-(t)ion/-sion/-ion are used to form nouns from verbs, e.g.

complication, pollution, reduction, alteration, donation, promotion, admission

-ist [a person] and -ism [an activity or ideology]: used for people’s politics, beliefs and ideologies, and sometimes their profession (compare with -er/-or professions above), e.g. Buddhism, journalism, Marxist, typist, physicist, terrorist.

-ist is also often used for people who play musical instruments, e.g. pianist, violinist, cellist

-ness is used to make nouns from adjectives: goodness, readiness, forgetfulness, happiness, sadness, weakness. Note what happens to adjectives that end in -y.

Adjective suffixes

-able/-ible /ˈabl/ with verbs, means ‘can be done’:

drinkable, washable, readable, forgivable, edible [can be eaten], flexible [can be bent]

Verbs

-ise (or -ize) forms verbs from adjectives, e.g. modernise [make modern], commercialise, industrialise.

Other suffixes that can help you recognise the word-class

-ment: (nouns) excitement, enjoyment, replacement

-ity: (nouns) flexibility, productivity, scarcity

-hood: (abstract nouns especially family terms) childhood, motherhood

-ship: (abstract nouns especially status) friendship, partnership, membership

-ive: (adjectives) passive, productive, active

-al: (adjectives) brutal, legal, (nouns) refusal, arrival

-ous: (adjectives) delicious, outrageous, furious

-ful: (adjectives) forgetful, hopeful, useful

-less: (adjectives) useless, harmless, homeless

-ify: (verbs) beautify, purify, terrify

NOTE

The informal suffix -ish can be added to most common adjectives, ages and times to make them less precise, e.g.

She’s thirtyish.
He has reddish hair. Come about eightish.

TIP

When you are recording a new word in your vocabulary notebook, write any suffixes that go with it (e.g. refuse – refusal).
Exercises

8.1 Use the -er/-or, -ee and -ist suffixes to make the names of the following. If you need to use a dictionary, try looking up the words in bold.

Example: A person who plays jazz on the piano. a jazz pianist

1. The thing that wipes rain off your car windscreen.
2. A person who plays classical violin.
3. A person who takes professional photographs. (N.B. pronunciation)
5. The person to whom a cheque is paid.
6. A machine for washing dishes.
7. A person who donates their organs upon their death.
8. The person to whom a letter is addressed.

8.2 Each picture is of an object ending in -er. Can you name them?

1. stapler
2. coffee grinder
3. tin-opener
4. nail-clippers
5. coat-hanger

8.3 List six jobs you would like to have in order of preference. How many different suffixes are there in your list? Do any of the job names not have a suffix? (e.g. pilot, film star)

8.4 Do these words mean a thing, a person, or both?

1. a cooker 3 a ticket-holder 5 a cleaner 7 a drinker
2. a typewriter 4 a CD player 6 a smoker 8 a dresser

8.5 Compete each of the second sentences by changing the words underlined in the first sentences. Use a suffix from the left-hand page and make any spelling changes needed.

1. Most of his crimes can be forgiven. Most of his crimes are ..................
2. The Club refuses to admit anyone not wearing shoes. The Club refuses ................ to anyone not wearing shoes.
3. Her only fault is that she is lazy. Her only fault is ..................
4. This firm has produced a lot in recent years. This firm has been very ................ in recent years.
5. I found the book very easy and pleasant to read. I found the book very ................

8.6 Can you think of anything in your country which should be nationalised (e.g. airlines), privatised, standardised, modernised, computerised or centralised?

8.7 Which word is the odd one out in each group and why?

1. brotherhood, neighbourhood, manhood, priesthood
2. tearful, spiteful, dreadful, handful
3. appointment, involvement, compliment, arrangement
4. worship, kinship, friendship, partnership

English Vocabulary in Use (Upper-intermediate)  19
Prefixes

Prefixes are often used to give adjectives a negative or an opposite meaning. For example, comfortable/uncomfortable, convenient/inconvenient and similar/dissimilar are opposites. Other examples are ‘unjust’, ‘impossible’, ‘disloyal’. Unfortunately, there is no easy way of knowing which prefix any adjective will use to form its opposite.

When you learn a new adjective note down whether it has an opposite formed with a prefix and, if so, what it is.

- in- becomes im- before a root beginning with ‘m’ or ‘p’, e.g. immature, impatient, impartial, improbable. Similarly in- becomes ir- before a word beginning with ‘r’, and ill- before a word beginning with ‘l’, e.g. irreplaceable, irreversible, illegal, illegible, illiterate.

- The prefix in- (and its variations) does not always have a negative meaning – often it gives the idea of inside or into, e.g. internal, import, insert, income.

The prefixes un- and dis- can also form the opposites of verbs, e.g. tie/untie, appear/disappear. These prefixes are used to reverse the action of the verb. Here are some more examples: disagree, disapprove, disbelieve, disconnect, discredit, dislike, dismount, disprove, disqualify, unbend, undo, undress, unfold, unload, unlock, unveil, unwrap, unzip.

Here are examples of other prefixes in English. Some of these words are used with a hyphen. Check in a dictionary if you’re not sure.

Knowing about English prefixes can help you to understand the meaning of unfamiliar words.
Exercises

9.1 Write the opposites of the words underlined. Not all the words you need are on the left-hand page.

Example: He’s a very honest man. ...dishonest...

1 I’m sure she’s discreet. 6 He’s very efficient.
2 I always find him very sensitive. 7 I always find her responsible.
3 It’s a convincing argument. 8 He seems grateful for our help.
4 That’s a very relevant point. 9 I’m sure she’s loyal to the firm.
5 She’s always obedient. 10 He’s a tolerant person.

9.2 Which negative adjective fits each of the following definitions?

1 ......................... means not having a husband or wife.
2 ......................... means impossible to eat.
3 ......................... means unable to read or write.
4 ......................... means not having a job.
5 ......................... means fair in giving judgement, not favouring one side.
6 ......................... means unable to be replaced.

9.3 Use the word in brackets to complete the sentences. Add the necessary prefix and put the word in the correct form.

Example: The runner was ...disqualified... after a blood test. (QUALIFY)

1 Children (and adults) love ............... parcels at Christmas time. (WRAP)
2 I almost always find that I ............... with his opinion. (AGREE)
3 I’m sure he’s lying but it’s going to be hard to ............... his story. (PROVE)
4 After a brief speech the Queen ............... the new statue. (VEIL)
5 It took the removal men an hour ............... our things from the van. (LOAD)
6 His phone was ............... because he didn’t pay his last bill. (CONNECT)

9.4 Answer the following questions. The answers are all in the table opposite.

1 What kind of oven cooks things particularly fast?
2 What kind of drug can help somebody with an infection?
3 What kind of company has branches in many countries?
4 How does a passenger aeroplane normally fly?
5 What is a student who is studying for a second degree?
6 What word means ‘underground railway’ in the US and ‘underground passage’ in the UK?

9.5 Using the table opposite construct words or phrases to replace the underlined words.

Example: He’s in favour of the American approach. ...opposes American...

1 The BBC tries to avoid pronouncing foreign words incorrectly.
2 Most people say they have to work too hard but are paid too little.
3 He dated his cheque with a date that was later than the real date.
4 She’s still on good terms with the man who used to be her husband.
5 He made so many mistakes in the letter that he had to write it again.

Follow-up: Find two more examples for each prefix in the opposite. Use a dictionary if necessary.
Roots

Many words in English are formed from Latin roots. These words are often considered fairly formal in English. Here are some examples of the more common Latin roots, with some of the English words derived from them.

SPECT see, look

You should respect your parents / the laws of a country. [look up to]
The police suspected he was guilty but they had no proof. [had a feeling]
Many pioneers travelled west in America to prospect for gold. [search]

PORT carry, take

How are you going to transport your things to the States? [send across] Britain imports cotton and exports wool. [buys in, sells out]
Our opinions are supported by a considerable amount of research. [held up]

DUC, DUCT lead

She was educated at a very small private school. [went to school]
He conducted the orchestra with great vigour. [led] Japan produces a lot of electronic equipment. [makes]

PRESS press, push

She was impressed by his presentation. [full of admiration and respect]
This weather depresses me. [makes me feel miserable]
She always expresses herself very articulately. [puts her thoughts into words]

POSE, PONE place, put

The meeting has been postponed until next week. [changed to a later date]
The king was deposed by his own son. [put off the throne]
The government have imposed a sizeable tax increase. [put into force]

The examples above are of verbs only. Note that for all the verbs listed, there is usually at least one noun and at least one adjective as well. Here are some examples.

8. Tchaikovsky ........................................ some wonderful ballet music. (POSE)

10.3 Can you work out the meanings of the underlined words in the sentences below? To help you, here are the meanings of the main Latin prefixes:

intro: within, inward o, ob: against in, im: in, into re: again, back de: down, from ex: out sub: under trans: across

1. She’s a very introspective person and her husband’s also very introverted.
2. He always seems to oppose everything I suggest.
3. I don’t think it is healthy to repress one’s emotions too much.
4. Perhaps you can deduce what the word means from the way it is formed.
5. The documentary exposed corruption in high places.
6. She tried hard to suppress a laugh.
7. She transposed the music for the flute.

10.4 Below are some words based on Latin roots and their two part verb equivalents. Match each word with its synonym. Which in each pair is more formal?

- support, put off
- oppose, look at
- cut down, deposit
- hold up, postpone
- turn away, inspect
- go against, divert
- reduce, put down

Follow-up: Find three other words based on each of the roots listed in A opposite. Write an example phrase or sentence for each one.
Abstract nouns

An abstract noun represents an idea, experience or quality rather than an object that you can touch. For example, happiness, intention and shock are abstract nouns but pen, bed and trousers are not.

Suffixes are letters added to the end of words to make new words. Certain suffixes are used frequently in abstract nouns. The most common are `-ment`, `-ion`, `-ness` and `-ity`. The suffix `-ion` sometimes becomes `-tion`, `-sion`, `-ation` or `-ition`. `-ment`, and `-ion`, are usually used to make verbs into abstract nouns.

The suffixes `-ness` and `-ity` are added to adjectives.

Here are some examples of abstract nouns using those suffixes.

Less common suffixes that form abstract nouns are `-ship`, `-dom`, `-th` and `-hood`.

The suffixes `-ship` and `-hood` are usually added to other nouns to form abstract nouns. The suffix `-th` is added to an adjective to form an abstract noun and `-dom` can combine with either a noun or an adjective.

Here are some examples of abstract nouns using those suffixes.

TIP

When you learn a new adjective, find out if it has an abstract noun based on the same root and note it down in your vocabulary book with the adjective, for example, warm, warmth (abstract noun).

You will find more examples of the use of suffixes in Units 8 and 10 and of abstract nouns in Units 64 and 65.
Exercises

11.1 What is the abstract noun related to each of the following adjectives? All the nouns are formed in ways described on the opposite page although not all are listed opposite.

EXaMPLE tender tenderness
1 affectionate 5 amused 9 attentive 13 equal
2 excited 6 graceful 10 happy 14 hopeful
3 kind 7 original 11 popular 15 resentful
4 secure 8 stupid 12 weak 16 wise

11.2 Which verbs are related to these abstract nouns?

EXaMPLE argument argue
1 collection 4 intensity 7 action 10 ownership
2 emptiness 5 strength 8 excitement 11 imagination
3 satisfaction 6 boredom 9 production 12 adjustment

11.3 On the opposite page, find a synonym with the suffix in brackets, for each of the following nouns.

EXaMPLE animosity (-ity) hostility
1 astonishment (-ment) 5 substitution (-ment) 9 vision (no suffix)
2 inquisitiveness (-ity) 6 fame (-dom) 10 liberty (-dom)
3 fraternity (-hood) 7 decrease (-tion) 11 fury (no suffix)
4 possibility (no suffix) 8 community (-hood) 12 wealth (-ity)

11.4 Complete each of the quotations with one of the words in the box.

2 ‘Do not ask ................. of the ignorant.’
3 ‘Better to suffer ................ than to commit it.’
4 ‘ .................... is the sincerest form of flattery.’
5 ‘It’s easy to govern a .................... but difficult to rule one’s family.’

11.5 Write your own quotations to describe the following abstract nouns. Perhaps you know a saying in your own language that you could translate into English?

1 freedom 2 love 3 life 4 curiosity 5 imagination

Follow-up: Find at least one more noun using each of the suffixes in B and C.
Compound adjectives

A compound adjective is made up of two parts. It is usually written with a hyphen, e.g. well-dressed, never-ending and shocking-pink. Its meaning is usually clear from the words it combines. The second part of the adjective is frequently a present or past participle.

A large number of compound adjectives describe personal appearance.

Here is a rather far-fetched description of a person starting from the head down.

Tom was a curly-haired, sun-tanned, blue-eyed, rosy-cheeked, thin-lipped, broad-shouldered, left-handed, slim-hipped, long-legged, flat-footed young man, wearing an open-necked shirt, brand-new, tight-fitting jeans and open-toed sandals.

Other compound adjectives describe a person's character.

Melissa was absent-minded [forgetful], easy-going [relaxed], good-tempered [cheerful], warm-hearted [kind] and quick-witted [intelligent] if perhaps a little big-headed [proud of herself], two-faced [hypocritical], self-centred [egotistical] and stuck-up [snobbish (colloquial)] at times.

Another special group of compound adjectives has a preposition in its second part.

The workers' declaration of an all-out strike forced management to improve conditions. Once there were fields here but now it's a totally built-up area.

That student's parents are very well-off but they don't give him much money and he is always complaining of being hard-up.

I love these shoes and, although they're worn-out, I can't throw them away.

This area was once prosperous but it now looks very run-down.

Here are some other compound adjectives with typical nouns.

air-conditioned rooms bullet-proof windows on the president's car cut-price goods in the sales duty-free cigarettes hand-made clothes interest-free credit last-minute revision for an exam long-distance lorry driver long-standing relationship off-peak train travel part-time job remote-controlled toy car second-class ticket so-called expert sugar-free diet time-consuming writing of reports top-secret information world-famous film star

You can vary the compound adjectives listed by changing one part of the adjective. For example, curly-haired, long-haired, red-haired and straight-haired; first-hand (knowledge), first-class (ticket) and first-born (child).

When you come across a compound adjective that you want to learn, write it down in a phrase or sentence describing someone or something you know, for example, Maria is curly-haired, our second-hand car. Personalising the words in this way will help you to learn them.

12.2 Put the words in E opposite into any categories which will help you learn them.

12.3 List as many compound adjectives beginning with self, as you can. Mark them P or N for positive or negative characteristics, or write neutral.

12.4 Answer the questions by using a compound adjective which is opposite in meaning to the adjective in the question. Note that the answer may or may not have the same second element as the adjective in the question.

EXAMPLE Is he working full-time? No, part-time.

1  Isn’t she rather short-sighted?
   4  Are her shoes high-heeled?

2  Is your brother well-off?
   5  Is this vase mass-produced?

3  Would you say the boy is well-behaved?
   6  Do they live in south-east England?

12.5 Think of two more nouns that would frequently be associated with any ten of the compound adjectives listed in E opposite.

12.6 Add a preposition from the list below to complete appropriate compound adjectives.

| back | up | out | off | on | of |

1  She’s done the same low-paid job for so long that she’s really fed-__________ with it now.
2  The two cars were involved in a head-__________ collision.
3  He has a very casual, laid-__________ approach to life in general.
4  It’ll never happen again. It’s definitely a one-__________ situation.
5  He’s a smash hit here but he’s unheard-__________ in my country.
6  She bought a cut-__________ paper pattern and made her own dress.

12.7 Which of the adjectives from this unit could you use to describe yourself or your friends or members of your family?
Compound nouns (1) noun + noun

A compound noun is a fixed expression which is made up of more than one word and functions as a noun. Such expressions are frequently combinations of two nouns, e.g. address book, human being [person], science fiction [fiction based on some kind of scientific fantasy]. A number of compound nouns are related to phrasal verbs and these are dealt with in Unit 14.

If you understand both parts of the compound noun, the meaning will usually be clear. Compound nouns are usually written as two words, e.g. tin opener [an opener for tins], bank account [an account in a bank], pedestrian crossing [a place for people to cross a road], but sometimes they are written with a hyphen instead of a space between the words, e.g. pen-name [a false name used by a writer, a pseudonym], baby-sitter [someone who sits with a baby/child while parents are out]. Sometimes they may be written as one word, e.g. earring, trademark [the symbol of a product].

Usually the main stress is on the first part of the compound but sometimes it is on the second part. In the common compound nouns below, the word which contains the main stress is underlined.

- alarm clock
- burglar alarm
- heart attack
- tea-bag
- answering machine
- package holiday
- windscreen

Compounds nouns may be countable, uncountable or only used in either the singular or plural. The examples given in C are all countable compound nouns. Here are some examples of common uncountable compound nouns.

- air-traffic control
- cotton wool
- income tax
- birth control data-processing junk food

Here are some examples of common compound nouns used only in the singular.

- arms race [countries wanting most powerful weapons]
- brain drain [highly educated people leaving country to work abroad]
- death penalty
- generation gap
- labour force
- sound barrier
- global warming mother-tongue welfare state
- greenhouse effect

Here are some examples of common compound nouns used only in the plural.

- grass roots
- race relations
- human rights
roadworks
- kitchen scissors
- sunglasses

TIP

Compound nouns are particularly common when talking about new inventions or aspects of society in the modern world. Keep an eye open for more examples when you are reading a newspaper or magazine and note them down in a special section of your vocabulary notebook.
Exercises

13.1 Complete these bubble networks with any appropriate expressions from the opposite page.
Add extra bubbles if you need them.

\[ \text{money} \quad \text{health} \quad \text{social\ problems} \]

13.2 In some cases more than one compound noun can be formed from one particular element.
For example blood pressure and blood donor; air-traffic control, birth control and self-control.
Complete the following compound nouns with a noun other than the one suggested opposite. Use your dictionary.

13.3 What are they talking about? In each case the answer is a compound noun opposite.

EXAMPLE I had it taken at the doctor's this morning and he said it was a little high for my age. blood pressure.
1 You really shouldn’t cross the road at any other place.
2 It's partly caused by such things as hair sprays and old fridges.
3 She always has terrible sneezing fits in the early summer.
4 I can’t understand why they spend so much on devising ways of killing people.
5 They say that working there is much more stressful than being a pilot.
6 The worst time was when I dropped one at the theatre and spent the interval searching around on the floor. I couldn't see a thing without them.
7 I don't think it should ever be used whatever the crime.
8 It's much easier not to have to make your own travel arrangements.
9 It took my mother ages to get used to leaving a message on mine!

13.4 Now make up some sentences like those in exercise 13.3 relating to some of the new expressions you made in exercise 13.2.

13.5 Here are some compound expressions you have worked with in this unit. Explain what the significance of the nouns used in the compound are.

EXAMPLE windscreen a screen that protects a driver from the wind.

Follow-up: Find an article from a newspaper or magazine. (You can probably find one in an English-language textbook if you don’t have easy access to English language newspapers or magazines.) Note down any examples of compound nouns that you find. Explain what the significance is of each of the parts of the compounds.
Compound nouns (2) verb + preposition

Some compound nouns are based on phrasal verbs, e.g. takeover / to take over. In sections B to E you will see these types of nouns in context. The meaning of the compound noun is given in brackets. To form the plural, 's' is added to the end, e.g. pin-ups.

Nouns based on phrasal verbs often have an informal feel to them and they are particularly common in newspaper reporting. Here are examples of such nouns in use.

- In response to the pay offer, there was a walk-out at the factory.
  [strike]
- There is going to be a crack-down on public spending.
  [action to prevent]
- An inquiry into the recent break-out from the local prison has recommended measures to tighten security there.
  [escape]
- Last month saw a tremendous shake-up in personnel.
  [change]
- Last week we reported on the break-up of the mayor's marriage.
  [collapse]

A number of these nouns have economic associations.

- The takeover of one of our leading hotel chains has just been announced.
  [purchase by another company]
- We're trying to find some new outlets for our products.
  [places to sell]
- Take your things to the check-out to pay for them.
  [cash-desk]
- Cuts will be essential until the recession is over.
  [reductions]
- Our profit was £1000 on a turnover of £10,000.
  [money passing through a company]

Some of these nouns are associated with technology and other aspects of modern life.

- What the computer produces depends on the input.
  [information that is put in]
- Output has increased thanks to new technology.
  [production]
- We have a rather rapid staff turnover.
  [change]
- Just after leaving school he went through the stage of being a dropout.
  [person who rejects society]
- The consequences of fallout from Chernobyl are still being felt.
  [radio-active dust in the atmosphere]
- I can easily get you a printout of the latest figures.
  [paper on which computer information has been printed]
- A breakthrough has been made in AIDS research.
  [important discovery]

Some of the words can be used in more general circumstances.

- Many of the problems were caused by a breakdown in communications.
  [failure]
- The outlook for tomorrow is good – sunny in most places.
  [prospect]
- There are drawbacks as well as advantages to every situation.
  [negative aspects]
- The outcome of the situation was not very satisfactory.
  [conclusion]
- TV companies always welcome feedback from viewers.
  [comments]
- It was clear from the outset that the set-up would cause problems.
  [start; situation]
- We parked in a lay-by on the by-pass.
  [parking space at the side of a road; road avoiding the centre of a town]
- The outbreak of war took many people by surprise.
  [start of something unpleasant]

TIP

Many, though not all, of these nouns are associated with phrasal verbs (the outbreak of war / war broke out). When you come across such a compound, check to see whether it is associated with a parallel phrasal verb and, if so, learn them together.
Exercises

14.1 Here are some compound nouns based on phrasal verbs. Guess the meaning of the underlined word from its context.

14.5 These words are made up of the same parts but they have very different meanings. Explain the meaning of each of the words. Use your dictionary if necessary.
1 outlook/look-out
2 set-up/upset
3 outlet/let-out
4 outlay/layout

14.6 Choose eight of the words in this unit which you particularly want to learn and write your own sentences using them.
Words from other languages

English has borrowed words from most of the other languages with which it has had contact. It has taken many expressions from the ancient languages, Latin and Greek, and these borrowings often have academic or literary associations. From French, English has taken lots of words to do with cooking, the arts, and a more sophisticated lifestyle in general. From Italian come words connected with music and the plastic arts. German expressions in English have been coined either by tourists bringing back words for new things they saw or by philosophers or historians describing German concepts or experiences. Words borrowed from other languages often relate to things which English speakers experienced from the first time abroad.

There are borrowings from a wide range of languages. For example, from Japanese, tycoon, karate, origami, judo, futon and bonsai. From Arabic, mattress, cipher, alcove, carafe, algebra, harem and yashmak. From Turkish, yoghurt, jackal, kiosk, tulip and caftan; from Farsi, caravan, shawl, bazaar and sherbet, and from Eskimo, kayak, igloo and anorak.

The map of Europe below shows the places of origin of some English words and expressions borrowed from some other European languages. Use a dictionary to check the meanings of any words you are not sure about.

English has borrowed very freely from other languages and you may well come across English words that you are familiar with from your own language. Note, however, that the pronunciation is often anglicised, so check in a dictionary.
Exercises

15.1 Which of the words listed opposite are also used in your language?

15.2 Is your own language represented on the opposite page? If so, can you add any words to the lists opposite? If not, do you know of any words English has borrowed from your language? (There are almost sure to be some.) Do the words mean exactly the same in English as in your language? Are they pronounced in the same way?

15.3 Look at all the words opposite and complete the following networks.

15.4 Make two or three other networks to help you to learn the words on the opposite page.

15.5 Match the adjectives on the left with the noun they are most likely to be associated with, on the right.

1 military a kindergarten
2 strawberry b casino
3 pop c vendetta
4 Chinese d embargo
5 ankle e cuisine
6 total f psychology
7 long-standing g yoghurt
8 noisy h coup
9 double i tattoo
10 all-night j duvet

15.6 What verbs collocate, in other words, are frequently used with the following nouns?

EXAMPLE study algebra
1 karate 3 futon 5 guerrilla 7 coup 9 siesta 11 sauna
2 kayak 4 embargo 6 cul de sac 8 confetti 10 cruise 12 seminar

15.7 Give three nouns likely to follow macho and avant-garde.

15.8 Have some words or expressions been borrowed from English into your own language? Give some examples. Have they kept exactly the same meaning as they have in English?
Some abbreviations are read as individual letters.
ID Identity [an identity card or passport]
BBC British Broadcasting Corporation
GM(O) genetically modified (organism)
IRA Irish Republican Army
UN United Nations
PM Prime Minister
MP Member of Parliament

In the following three cases, the name of each country and the name of its secret police are pronounced as individual letters/numbers.
CIA (USA) MI5 (UK) KGB (of the former USSR)

Some abbreviations are read as words; we call them acronyms.
NATO /neitəʊ/ North Atlantic Treaty Organisation
OPEC /oʊˈpɛk/ Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries
AIDS /eɪdz/ Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome
PIN /piːn/ Personal Identity Number (e.g. for a bank or credit card)

Some acronyms have become so normal as words that people do not think of them as abbreviations any longer, and so they are not written all in capital letters.
laser radar yuppy Esso

Some abbreviations are only written forms; they are always pronounced as the full word.
Mr (Mister) Dr (Doctor) St (Saint or Street) Rd (Road)

Within a written text some abbreviations are used as notes to organise the language and give extra information to the reader.

- etc. /ɛtˈsiːtrə/ and so on [Latin et cetera]
- PTO (P-T-O) please turn over
- i.e. (I-E): that is to say [Latin id est]
- NB (N-B) please note [Latin: nota bene]
- e.g. (E-G) for example [Latin: exempli gratia]

Clippings: Some words are normally used in an abbreviated form in informal situations.

- ad/advert (advertisement) bike (bicycle) board (blackboard) case (suitcase)
- exam (examination) fridge (refrigerator) lab (laboratory) phone (telephone)
- plane (aeroplane) rep (business representative) TV or telly (television)

Some abbreviations you might see on a letter/fax/envelope.
c/o care of [e.g. T. Smith, c/o J. Brown; the letter goes to J. Brown’s address]
enc. enclosed [documents enclosed with a letter, e.g. enc. application form]
PS postscript [extra message after the letter has been ended] asap as soon as possible [e.g. ring me asap]
RSVP (R-S-V-P) please reply [French; répondez s’il vous plaît]
New words in English

No language stands still. New words and expressions are always being created, sometimes just for fun or usually because something new is invented. Below are some relatively new words and expressions and new uses of old words. Note that all these new words had been in use for at least a few years before the publication of this book.

Science, technology and medicine
- cyberspace: the realm where electronic data are sorted or transmitted by computers
- junk e-mail: unsolicited material, such as adverts, sent by e-mail
- keypal: a kind of penfriend that you exchange e-mails with rather than letters
- surfing the net: exploring the world-wide web
- e-commerce: business based on the Internet
- mouse potato: someone who spends a lot of time in front of a computer, especially on-line
- information fatigue syndrome: a condition of psychological stress induced by trying to cope with too much information
- eating disorder: a serious disturbance in eating habits often caused by emotional problems
- GM foods: genetically-modified food, i.e. food adapted by use of biotechnology

Entertainment
- snowboarding: gliding on snow, upright on a large single ski
- in-line skating: roller-skating or roller-blading with rubber wheels in a straight line
- video jockey (VJ): a TV presenter of music videos
- drop-dead gorgeous: inspiring admiration for someone’s attractiveness
- bad hair day: a day when everything goes wrong and you feel unattractive

Social trends
- docusoap: a television genre showing people going about their ordinary lives
- cybercafé: café where customers can eat and drink and also use the Internet
- road rage: extreme anger experienced by drivers in stressful conditions, resulting in dangerous driving or attacks on other drivers
- singleton: an unmarried man or woman
- spin doctor: someone whose job it is to manipulate popular opinion in favour of politicians or other public figures
- decluttering: the art of discarding unnecessary items
- off-message: departing from the official party line
- grey vote, grey pound: the voting or purchasing power of older people

Employment
- down-sizing: reducing the size of a company or organisation, usually by sacking people
- outsourcing: employing outside workers to do work away from the company site
- hot-desking: the practice of sharing desks or workstations between workers (rather than individuals having their own desks)
- waitperson: waiter or waitress
Exercises

Words commonly mispronounced

This page looks at some of the words which cause pronunciation difficulties for learners of English. The phonetic transcription is provided for some of the words below. If you are not sure of the pronunciation of any of the other words, check in the index at the back of the book or in a good learners' dictionary. Check that you understand the symbols and that you know how your dictionary indicates where the stress is.

To master English pronunciation it is helpful to learn the 20 phonetic symbols for English vowel sounds. It is not really necessary to learn the consonant symbols as it is usually not difficult to know how consonants should be pronounced. Vowels are important because the vowel letters can be pronounced in many different ways:

- about /ə/ wander /ə/ last /æ:/ late /ei/
- alive /ai/ give /i/ to /u:/
- put /u/ cut /ʌ/ cupid /ju:/
- friend /fiːnd/ friend /fiːnd/ science /aɪs/
- rein /riːn/ receive /riːv/ reinforce /rɪnʃ/
- met /eɪt/ meter /ˈmiːtər/ a/
- sorry /ˈsɒrɪ/ go /ɡəʊ/ love /lʌv/ to /tʊ/ head /ˈheʊd/ team /tiːm/ react /rɪˈtekt/ oo
- our /aʊr/ route /rʊt/ would /wʊd/ cool /kuːl/ cook /kʊk/ coopt /kəʊpt/ aʊp/

The letters below in bold are silent in the examples:

- p psychic /ˈsɑːtɪk/ psychiatry pneumatic receipt pseudonym psychology
- b comb /kɒm/ dumb numb tomb climb womb lamb
- b doubt /daʊt/ subtle debt debtor
- h could /kʊd/ should calm half talk palm walk salmon chalk
- h honour /ˈaʊnər/ honourable hourly heir heireness
- h whistle /ˈwɪsəl/ castle listen fasten soften Christmas
- k knee /niː/ knife know knob knowledge knot knit
- r card /kɑːd/ park farm burn work storm tart
- r (unless followed by a vowel) mother /ˈmʌðər/ sister teacher water

Some two-syllable words in English have the same form for the noun and the verb. The stress is on the first syllable of the word when it is a noun and the second syllable when it is a verb, e.g. Wool is a major Scottish export. Scotland exports a lot of wool. Here are some other words like this.

- conduct conflict contest decrease suspect
- desert import increase insult transfer
- permit present progress protest transport
- record reject reprint subject upset

Here are a number of other words which are often mispronounced.

- apostrophe /ˈæpəstrəfi/ catastrophe /kəˈtæstrəfi/ cupboard /ˈkʌbəd/
- recipe /ˈrɪskəpi/ hiccough /ˈhɪkəp/ sword /ˈsɔːrd/
- plough /plɔː/ muscle /ˈmʌspəl/ interesting /ˈɪntərstɪŋ/

TIP

Multi-syllabic words in English tend to put their main stress on the third syllable from the end. Compare photograph, photography, photographically. Note that this rule does have exceptions!

Follow-up: Are there other words which you know you personally have particular problems pronouncing? You might like to ask a teacher to help you answer this question. Note any such words down with their phonetic transcription beside them.
Onomatopoeic words

Onomatopoeic words are those which seem to sound like their meaning. The most obvious examples are verbs relating to the noises which animals make, e.g. cows moo and horses neigh.

If the vowel sound in an onomatopoeic word is short, it usually signifies a short, sharp sound. If it is long (indicated in the International Phonetic Alphabet by :) then the word usually signifies a longer, slower sound. Compare pip /pi:p/ which is a short sound with peep /pi:p/ which is a long sound.

Certain combinations of letters have particular sound associations in English.

gr- at the beginning of a word can suggest something unpleasant or miserable, e.g. groan [make a deep sound forced out by pain or despair], grumble [complain in a bad-tempered way], grumpy [bad-tempered], grunt [make a low, rough sound like pigs do, or people expressing disagreement or boredom], growl [make a deep, threatening sound].

cr- at the beginning of a word can suggest something sharp and/or metallic, e.g. click [make a short sharp sound], clang [make a loud ringing noise], clank [make a dull metallic noise, not as loud as a clang], clash [make a loud, broken, confused noise as when metal objects strike together], clink [make the sound of small bits of metal or glass knocking together]. Horses go clip-clop on the road.

sp- at the beginning of a word can have an association with water or other liquids or powders, e.g. splash [cause a liquid to fly about in drops], spit [send liquid out from the mouth], splutter [make a series of spitting sounds], spay [send liquid through the air in tiny drops either by the wind or some instrument], sprinkle [scatter small drops], spurt [come out in a sudden burst].

wh- at the beginning of a word often suggests the movement of air, e.g. whistle [a high-pitched noise made by forcing air or steam through a small opening], whirr [sound like a bird's wings moving rapidly], whizz [make the sound of something rushing through air], wheeze [breathe noisily especially with a whistling sound in the chest], whip [long piece of rope or leather or to hit with one of these].

-ash at the end of a word can suggest something fast and violent, e.g. smash [break violently into small pieces], dash [move or be moved violently], crush [suddenly strike violently and noisily], bash [strike heavily so as to break or injure], mash [make soft or pulpy by beating or crushing], gash [a long deep cut or wound].

-cke, -gle, or -zzle at the end of a word can suggest something light and repeated, e.g. trickle [to flow in a thin stream or drops], crackle [make a series of short cracking sounds], tinkle [make a succession of light ringing sounds], giggle [laugh lightly], wriggle [move with quick short twistings], sizzle [make a hissing sound like something cooking in fat], drizzle [small, fine rain].

a bicycle chain wriggles someone with asthma

Follow-up: Look in your dictionary. Can you find any other examples of words beginning with gr-, ch-, sp- or wh- with the association described opposite!
Homonyms

Homonyms can be subdivided into homographs and homophones. Homographs are word which are written in the same way but have different meanings and may be pronounced differently. Compare bow in ‘he took a bow /bəʊ/ at the end of the concert’ and ‘he was wearing a bow /bəʊ/ tie’. Homophones are words with different meanings which are pronounced in the same way but are spelt differently, e.g. bow as in ‘he took a bow’ and bough, ‘the bough of a tree’.

Here are some more examples of homographs with differing pronunciations.

I live in the north of England. /lɪv/
Your favourite rock group is singing live on TV tonight. /laɪv/

Time

One thing before another

Before I went to work I fed the cat. [+ clause: most typical] Before going to work I wrote some letters. [+ -ing form: formal/written style]
I had written to her prior to meeting the committee. [formal/written style]
It was nice to be in Venice. Previously I’d only been to Rome. [fairly formal, more informal would be Before that, I …]
I was in the office from 2.30. I was out earlier on. [before then, fairly informal]
The city is now called Thatcherville. Formerly it was Grabtown. [fairly formal, typically written; used when something has changed its name, state, etc.]

Things happening at the same time

While I waited, I read the newspaper. [or, more formal: While waiting, I read …; the waiting and reading happen together.]
As I was driving to work, I saw an accident. [As describes the background when something happens in the foreground. As cannot be immediately followed by -ing.]
I saw her just as she was turning the corner. [precise moment]
She was entering at the very time / the very moment I was leaving. [these two are stronger and more precise than as or just as]
Whenever I watch a sad film, I cry. [every time]
During and throughout are different:
During the war, I lived in Dublin. Throughout the war, food was rationed.
During does not specify how long within a period of time. Throughout means from the beginning to the end of a period of time.

One thing after another

After I’d locked up, I went to bed. [or, more formal: After locking up; we do not usually say ‘After having locked up …’], which is very formal style.]
First we went to theatre. Then / After that, we had a meal.
He fell ill and was admitted to hospital. He died soon afterwards. [In these two examples, after that and afterwards are interchangeable.]
Following my visit to Beijing, I bought several books about China. [fairly formal]

Time when

When I’m rich and famous. I’ll buy a yacht. [Don’t say: ‘When I will be rich …’]
As soon as we’ve packed we can leave. [immediately after] Once we’ve finished we can go and have a coffee. [less specific]
The moment/the minute I saw his face I knew I’d met him before.
I stayed in that hospital the time (that) I broke my leg.
I met Polly at Ken’s wedding. On that occasion she was with a different man. [more formal]

Connecting two periods or events

Dinner will be ready in about an hour. In the meantime, relax and have a drink. [between now and the meal]
The new computers are arriving soon. Till then, we’ll have to use the old ones.
I last met him in 1985. Since then I haven’t seen him.
By the time I retire, I will have worked here 26 years. [Don’t say: ‘By the time I will retire …’]

Fill in the blanks with connectors. An example is given.

1. Prior... to going to Manchester, Laura was in Paris.
2. Her next trip after Glasgow is on 24th. She can have a quiet time at home.
3. She was in Paris for over a week. She got home there was a big pile of mail waiting for her.
4. She was at Nick's place on the 16th, she met Maura.
5. She went to the theatre in Paris on Monday. She had been to the Pompidou Centre.
6. She had said goodbye to Nick, she left.
7. She answered all her letters, she felt she could watch TV for a while.
8. She put the phone down it rang again. This time it was Dougy.

21.2 Make more sentences with connectors you haven't used, based on the diary information.

21.3 Think of things that are true for you in these situations and complete the sentences. Add more sentences if you can. An example is given.

1. While I'm asleep, usually dream a lot.
2. After I've eaten too much, ...
3. The moment I wake up, I ...
4. Throughout my childhood I ...
5. I'm doing vocabulary right now. Earlier on, I was ...
6. Once I've finished my language course, I'll ...
7. Before I go on holiday, I always ...
8. Following an argument with someone, I always feel ...

Follow-up: Try and get hold of a news report in English. Underline all the time connectors and see if there are any which you can add to those on the left-hand page.
If you find any, write a whole sentence in your notebook showing how the connector is used.
Condition

In addition to if, there are several other words and phrases for expressing condition.

1. You can't come in unless you have a ticket. [...] if you do not have a ticket.
2. You can borrow the bike on condition that you return it by five o'clock.
3. In case of fire, dial 112. [When there is ...; usually seen on notices; you can also say in the event of.]
4. You can stay, as long as you don’t mind sleeping on the sofa. [less formal than so long as and less formal and not so strong as on condition that]

Providing (that) or provided (that) can also be used in examples 2 and 4. They are less formal and not so strong as on condition that but stronger and more restricting than as long as, e.g. Provided/Providing you don’t mind cats, you can stay with us.

Note the use of supposing and what if (usually in spoken language) for possible situations in the future. What if is more direct.

MICK: Paul’s coming tomorrow. He’ll help us.
ALICE: Supposing / What if he doesn’t turn up; what shall we do then?

Conditions with -ever

The -ever suffix means ‘it does not matter which ...’. The stress is normally on ever.

However you do it, it will cost a lot of money.
You’ll get to the railway station, whichever bus you take.
Whoever wins the General Election, nothing will really change.
That box is so big it will be in the way wherever you leave it.

These four sentences can also be expressed using no matter. Note the stress.
No matter how you do it, it will cost a lot of money.
You’ll get to the railway station, no matter which bus you take.

Some nouns which express condition

Certain conditions must be met before the Peace Talks can begin. [rather formal]
A good standard of English is a prerequisite for studying at a British university. [absolutely necessary; very formal word]
What are the entry requirements for doing a diploma in Management at your college? [official conditions, rather formal]
I would not move to London under any circumstances. [fairly formal]
Exercises

22.1 Fill the gaps with a suitable word from A and B opposite.
1 You can come to the party .................. you don’t bring that ghastly friend of yours.
2 .................. emergency in the machine-room, sound the alarm and notify the supervisor at once.
3 .................. I hear from you, I’ll assume you are coming.
4 A person may take the driving test again .................. they have not already taken a test within the previous fourteen days.
5 .................. I lent you my car, would that help?

22.2 The pictures show conditions that must be met to do certain things. Make different sentences using words and phrases from the opposite page.
EXAMPLE You can have a passenger on a motorbike provided they wear a helmet or Unless you wear a helmet, you can’t ride on a motorbike.

22.3 Change the sentences with -ever to no matter, and vice versa.
1 Wherever she goes, she always takes that dog of hers.
2 If anyone rings, I don’t want to speak to them, no matter who it is.
3 No matter what I do, I always seem to do the wrong thing.
4 It’ll probably have meat in it, whichever dish you choose. They don’t cater for vegetarians here.
5 No matter how I do it, that recipe never seems to work.

22.4 What would your answers be to these questions?
1 Are there any prerequisites for the job you do or would like to do in the future?
2 Under what circumstances would you move from where you’re living at the moment?
3 What are the normal entry requirements for university in your country?
4 On what condition would you lend a friend your house/flat?
Cause, reason, purpose and result

Cause and reason

You probably know how to use words like because, since and as to refer to the cause of or reason for something. Here are some other ways to express cause and reason.

Owing to the icy conditions, the two lorries collided. [rather informal]
Owing to the fact that the conditions were icy ...
The collision was due to the icy conditions.
The collision was caused by ice on the road.
The cause of the collision was ice on the road.

Here are some other ‘cause’ words and typical contexts. They are all rather formal, and more suitable for written use.

The rise in prices sparked (off) a lot of political protest. [often used for very strong, perhaps violent, reactions to events]
The President’s statement gave rise to / provoked / generated a lot of criticism. [slightly less strong than spark (off)]
The new law has brought about / led to great changes in education. [often used for political/social change]
This problem stems from the inflation of recent years. [explaining the direct origins of events and states]
The court-case arose from / out of allegations made in a newspaper. [the allegations started the process that led to the court-case]

Reasons for and purposes of doing things

Her reason for not going with us was that she had no money. or The reason (why) she didn’t go with us was that ... [less formal]

The following sentences are all fairly formal, and more frequent in written English:

I wonder what his motives were in sending that letter? [purpose]
I wonder what prompted him to send that letter? [reason/cause]
She wrote to the press with the aim of exposing the scandal. [purpose]
I’ve invited you here with a view to resolving our differences. [sounds a bit more indirect than with the aim of]
He refused to answer on the grounds that his lawyer wasn’t there. [reason]
The purpose of her visit was to inspect the equipment.

Results

Most of these expressions are fairly formal, and more frequent in written English:

He did no work. As a result / As a consequence / Consequently, he failed his exams.
The result/consequence of all these changes is that no-one is happy any more.

[The examples with consequence/consequently sound more formal than result]
His remarks resulted in everyone getting angry. [verb + in]
The events had an outcome that no-one could have predicted. [result of a process or event or of meetings, discussions, etc.]
The upshot of all these problems was that we had to start again. [less formal than outcome]
When the election results were announced, chaos ensued. [very formal]

TIP

When recording these expressions in your notebook, don’t forget to write the prepositions that go with them (e.g. result in, consequence of).
Exercises

23.1 Make full sentences using 'cause and reason' words from A opposite.

EXAMPLE: closure of 20 mines → strikes in coal industry
The closure of 20 mines sparked (off) a lot of strikes in the coal industry.

1 announcement → strong attack from opposition
2 new Act of Parliament → great changes in industry
3 signal failure ← train crash
4 violent storm → wall collapsed
5 food shortages → serious riots in several cities
6 food shortages ← bad economic policies

23.2 Make two sentences into one, using the 'reason and purpose' words in brackets. Look at B opposite if you aren't sure.

EXAMPLE: There was a controversial decision. She wrote to the local newspaper to protest.
(prompt) The controversial decision prompted her to write to the local newspaper to protest.

1 I didn't contact you. I'd lost your phone number. (reason)
2 I will not sign. This contract is illegal. (grounds)
3 The government passed a new law. It was in order to control prices. (aim)
4 She sent everyone flowers. I wonder why? (motives)

23.3 Use the pictures to describe the causes and results of events in different ways.

1 The road was blocked.
2 Everyone got a refund.
3 The customers got angry.
4 We had to walk home.

23.4 Fill in the missing words.

1 My reasons .......... not joining the club are personal.
2 The purpose .......... this pedal is to control the speed.
3 I came here .............. the aim .......... resolving our dispute.
4 His stupidity has resulted .......... us having to do more work.
5 All this arose .......... one small mistake we made.
6 It was done .......... a view .......... lowering inflation.
7 That press article has given rise .......... a lot of criticism.
Concession and contrast

Concession means accepting one part of an idea or fact, but putting another, more important argument or fact against it.

Although they were poor, they were independent.
He is a bit stupid. He’s very kind, nevertheless.

Verbs of concession

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>example</th>
<th>paraphrase and comments</th>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I acknowledge/accept that he has worked hard but it isn’t enough.</td>
<td>→ I agree but … [accept is less formal than acknowledge]</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I admit I was wrong, but I still think we were right to doubt her.</td>
<td>→ I accept I’m guilty of what I’m accused of.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I concede that you are right about the goal, but not the method.</td>
<td>→ You have won this point in our argument. [rather formal, used in debates/arguments]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Adverbs and other phrases showing contrast

The first four are fairly informal:
OK, you’re sorry. That’s all well and good, but how are you going to pay us back?
You shouldn’t seem so surprised. After all, I did warn you.
It’s all very well saying you love dogs, but who’ll take it for walks if we do get one?
He is boring, and he is rather cold and unfriendly, but, for all that, he is your uncle and we should invite him.

These are more formal:
Admittedly, she put a lot of effort in, but it was all wasted.

I expected Mr Widebody to be fat.
The reverse was true.

In Europe they use metric measurements. In contrast, the USA still uses many non-metric measurements.
It’s not actually raining now. On the other hand, it may rain later, so take the umbrella.

Collocating phrases for contrast

When it comes to politics, Jim and Ann are poles apart.
There’s a world of difference between being a friend and a lover.
A yawning gap divides the rich and poor in many countries.
There’s a huge discrepancy between his ideals and his actions.
Exercises

24.1 Rewrite these sentences using the most likely verb from A opposite (there is usually more than one possibility).
1 I know that you weren’t solely to blame, but you must take some responsibility.
2 OK, OK, I was wrong, you were right; he is a nice guy.
3 The company is prepared to accept that you have suffered some delay, but we do not accept responsibility.
4 She didn’t deny that we had done all we could, but she was still not content.

24.2 Write a beginning for these sentences, as in the example.
1 expected... Many to be tall and dark. The reverse was true; she was short, with fair hair.
2 ..................... On the other hand, it does have a big garden, so I think we should rent it.
3 ..................... On the contrary, the number of cars on the road is increasing yearly.
4 ..................... In contrast, the traffic in Britain drives on the left.
5 ..................... Quite the opposite; I feel quite full. I had a huge breakfast.

24.3 Try to do this word puzzle from memory.
If you can’t, look at C opposite.

Across
1 a .......... gap
3 a .......... of difference
5 a .......... discrepancy
7 .......... apart

Down
2 poles ...........
4 a great ...........
6 a yawning ...........

24.4 Now use the phrases from the word puzzle in 24.3 to make comments on these statements.
1 Some people believe in nuclear weapons, some in world disarmament.
2 She says one thing. She does quite the opposite.
3 Jim believes in God. Sandra’s a total atheist.
4 Being a student’s one thing; being a teacher’s quite another.

24.5 Complete the sentences with phrases from B opposite.
1 OK, you’ve cleaned the kitchen, .................. but what about the dining-room?
2 No need to panic. .................., it doesn’t start till six.
3 She’s bossy and sly, but .................., she is a friend.
4 .................. saying you’ll pay me back soon; when is what I want to know!

24.6 Choose between on the other hand and on the contrary.
1 I’m not worried; ................., I feel quite calm.
2 It’s expensive, but ................., we do need it.

* in addition is more formal than and or also/too.
 furthermore and moreover are normally interchangeable, and are both rather formal; what's more is informal; what is more is rather formal.
 a more emphatic way of adding information; similar in meaning to anyway.
* even more emphatic; used mostly in informal spoken English.

You can also use plus: To keep fit you need a good diet plus regular exercise. [normally used to connect noun phrases, but can connect clauses in informal speech]

Words at the end of clauses/sentences

They sell chairs, tables, beds, and so on / etc. [and so on is more informal than etc.]
It'll go to the committee, then to the board, then to another committee, and so on and so forth. [informal; suggests a long continuation]
He was a good sportsman and an excellent musician into the bargain / to boot. [informal; emphases the combination of items]

Words that begin, or come in the middle of, clauses/sentences

Further to my letter of 18/9/01, I am writing to ... [formal opening for a letter]
In addition to winning the gold medal, she also broke the world record.
In addition to his BA in History, he has a PhD in Sociology. [fairly formal]
He's on the school board, as well as being a local councillor.
Besides / Apart from having a salary, he also has a private income.
Apart from her many other hobbies, she restores old racing cars.
Jo Evans was there, along with a few other people who I didn't know.

TIP

When learning connecting words such as those in this unit, make a note about the formality of the word where appropriate. It is possible to sound too formal in conversation if you use connectors only normally found in writing or formal speech.
Exercises

25.1 Fill in the gaps in this letter with suitable adding words and phrases. Try to do it without looking at the opposite page.

Dear Mr Coldheart,

(1) my letter of 16.3.94, I should like to give you more information concerning my qualifications and experience. (2) holding a Diploma in Catering, I also have an Advanced Certificate in Hotel Management. The course covered the usual areas: finance, front services, publicity, space allocation. (3) I also wish to point out that (4) holding these qualifications, I have now been working in the hotel trade for five years. (5) my experience prior to that was also connected with tourism and hospitality. I hope you will give my application due consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Nora Hope

25.2 Rewrite the sentences using the word or phrase in brackets at the end.

1 Physical labour can exhaust the body very quickly. Excessive study can rapidly reduce mental powers too. (equally)
2 My cousin turned up and some schoolmates of his came with him. (along with) 3 He owns a big chemical factory and he runs a massive oil business in the USA. (as well as)
4 She was my teacher and she was a good friend. (into the bargain)
5 I'm their scientific adviser and act as a consultant to the Managing Director. (in addition to)

25.3 Correct the mistakes in the use of addition words and phrases in these sentences.

1 I work part-time as well as I am a student, so I have a busy life.
2 Besides to have a good job, my ambition is to meet someone nice to share my life with.
3 Alongside I have many other responsibilities, I now have to be in charge of staff training.
4 In addition has a degree, she also has a diploma.
5 Likewise my father won't agree, my mother's sure to find something to object to.
6 To boot she is a good footballer, she's a good athlete.

Text-referring words

Text-referring words take their meaning from the surrounding text. For example, this sentence in isolation does not mean much:
We decided to look at the problem again and try to find a solution.

What problem? The words problem and solution help organise the argument of the text, but they do not tell us the topic of the text. They refer to something somewhere else.

Here are some examples. The word in bold refers to the underlined words.
Pollution is increasing. The problem is getting worse each day.
Should taxes be raised or lowered? This was the biggest issue in the election. [topic causing great argument and controversy]
Whether the war could have been avoided is a question that interests historians.
Let’s discuss crime. That’s always an interesting topic. [subject to argue about or discuss, e.g. in a debate or in an essay]
Punishment is only one aspect of crime. [part of the topic]

Problem-solution words

Text-referring words are often used with ‘problem-solution’ types of text, where a problem is presented and ways of solving it are discussed. In the following example, the words in bold concern a problem or a solution. Try to learn these words as a family.

The situation in our cities with regard to traffic is going from bad to worse. Congestion is a daily feature of urban life. The problem is now beginning to affect our national economies. Unless a new approach is found to control traffic, we will never find a solution to the dilemma.

In the dialogue below, two politicians are arguing. Note how the words in bold refer to parts of the argument.

A: Your claim that we’re doing nothing to invest in industry is false. We invested £10 billion last year. You’ve ignored this fact.
B: But the investment has all gone to service industries. The real point is that we need to invest in our manufacturing industries.
A: That argument is out-of-date in a modern technological society. Our position has always been that we should encourage technology.
B: But that view won’t help to reduce unemployment.

The following problem-solution words are grouped in families associated with the key-words in bold. The prepositions normally used with them are given in brackets.
situation: state of affairs, position (with regard to) problem: difficulty [more formal], crisis, matter response: reaction (to), attitude (to) solution: answer (to), resolution (to), key (to), way out (of) evaluation [of the solution]: assessment, judgement

Discourse markers in speech

Discourse markers are words and phrases which organise, comment on or in some way frame what we are saying or writing. An example from spoken language is well:

Well here shows that the speaker is aware he/she is changing the direction of the conversation in some way (not giving the expected 'yes' answer). In other words, well is a comment on what is being said. Another example is how teachers use words like right and OK to organise what is happening in a classroom:

Right/OK, let's have a look at exercise 3.

Here are some common markers which organise the different stages of a conversation.

Now, what shall we do next? So, would you like to come to the table now, please?
Good, I'll ring you on Thursday, then. Well then, what was it you want to talk about?
Now then, I want you to look at this picture. [said by someone in control of the conversation, e.g. a teacher]
Fine/Great, let's leave it at that, then, shall we?

In these mini-dialogues, the markers in bold modify or comment on what is being said:

A: It's cold isn't it? B: Yeah.
A: Mind you, it is November, so it's not surprising.
   [an afterthought, used like however]
A: It's quite a problem ...
B: Listen/Look, why don't you let me sort it out?
A: Would you? Thanks a lot.
   [introducing a suggestion/point]
A: What's her number? B: Let me see, I have it here somewhere ...
   [a hesitation – gaining time]
A: And he said he was go –
B: Well, that's typical!
A: Hang on / Hold on! Let me tell you what he said!
   [preventing an interruption]

Here are some other similar markers.

I can't do that. You see, I'm not the boss here. [explaining]
He was, you know, sort of ... just standing there. [hesitation]
So that's what we have to do. Anyway, I'll ring you tomorrow. [signalling that the speaker thinks the topic or the conversation can now close]
It rained all day yesterday. Still, we can't complain, it was fine all last week. [contrasts two ideas with one another]

We shouldn't be too hard on him. At the end of the day, he's only a child. [the most important point or argument is ...]

In informal spoken language, people often use the letters of the alphabet (usually no more than a, b and c, to list points they want to make.

FRED: Why aren't you going this evening?
BOB: Well, a I haven't got any money, and b it's too far anyway.

TIP

It's sometimes difficult to catch markers when they are used in rapid speech, but when you are in a position to listen in a relaxed way to someone speaking English (for example, if you are not the person being spoken to, or you are listening to informal speech on radio or TV), concentrate on listening for markers.
Exercises

27.1 Underline all the discourse markers in this monologue. Not all of them are on the left-hand page.

'Well, where shall I start? It was last summer and we were just sitting in the garden, sort of doing nothing much. Anyway, I looked up and ... see, we have this kind of long wall at the end of the garden, and it's ... like ... a motorway for cats, for instance, that big fat black one you saw, well, that one considers it has a right of way over our vegetable patch, so ... where was I? Yes, I was looking at that wall, you know, daydreaming as usual, and all of a sudden there was this new cat I'd never seen before, or rather, it wasn't an ordinary cat at all ... I mean, you'll never believe what it was ...'

27.2 Here are some small dialogues where there are no markers used at all, which would be unusual in real informal conversation. Add markers from the opposite page and from exercise 1 above, where you think the speakers might use them.

1 A: Are you a football fan?
   B: I like it; I wouldn't say I was a fan.

2 A: I'll take care of these.
   B: That's everything.
   A: See you next week.
   B: That was a very useful meeting.

3 A: It was last Monday. I was coming home from work. I saw this ragged old man approaching me. I stopped him ...
   B: Jim Dibble!
   A: Let me tell you what happened first.

4 A: Which number is yours?
   B: (pause) it's that one there, yes, this one.

5 A: He's looking exhausted.
   B: Yes, he is.
   A: He has an awful lot of responsibility, so it's hardly surprising.

6 A: What do you mean, 'cold'?
   B: She's not friendly, very distant. Last week I gave her a jolly smile and she ... scowled at me.
   A: What do you expect? I've seen the way you smile at people, it puts them off.

27.3 Which marker fits best into the sentences? Rewrite the sentences with the markers included.

at the end of the day still a, b, c, etc. anyway

1 Yes, there is a lot of work to do. I must rush now, I'll call you tomorrow.
2 There's two reasons I think he's wrong. People don't act like that, and Paul would certainly never act like that.
3 Money is not the most important thing in life. I really do believe that.
4 I never got a chance to tell him. I'm seeing him next week. I'll tell him then.

Follow-up: If you can, make a recording of a natural conversation between English speakers (get their permission, but don't say why you need it). What markers do they use?
Discourse markers in writing

In this unit we look at how certain common words and phrases are used to organise written texts.

A Organising a formal text
First / Firstly / First of all, we must consider ...
Next, it is important to remember that ...
Secondly and thirdly are also used with first/firstly for lists.
Finally/Lastly, we should recall that ... [not ‘at last’]
Turning to the question of foreign policy, ... [changing to a new topic] Leaving aside the question of pollution, there are also other reasons ... [the writer will not deal with that question here]
In parenthesis, let us not forget that ... [making a point that is a side issue, not part of the main argument]
In summary, to sum up, we may state that ... [listing / summing up the main points]
In sum, the economic issues are at the centre of this debate. [listing / summing up the main points: much more formal]
In conclusion / to conclude, I should like to point out that ... [finishing the text]

B Markers for explaining, exemplifying, rephrasing, etc.
To learn new words properly a lot of recycling is needed; in other words / that is to say, you have to study the same words over and over again. [That is to say is much more formal]
Some English words are hard to pronounce, for example / for instance, ‘eighth’.
It might be possible, say, to include the parents in the discussion. [similar to for example;
note the commas before and after; say is also common in spoken language]
The Parliament has different committees. Briefly, these consist of two main types. [the explanation will be short and not comprehensive]
She is, so to speak / as it were, living in a world of her own. [makes what you are saying sound less definite/precise; As it were is more formal.]

C Signposts around the text
These are words and phrases that point the reader to different parts of a text.
The following points will be covered in this essay: ... [used to introduce a list]
It was stated above/earlier that the history of the USA is ... [earlier in the text]
See page 238 for more information. [go to page 238]
Many writers have claimed this (see below). [examples will be given later in the text]
A full list is given overleaf. [turn the page and you will find the list]
For further details/discussion, see Chapter 4. [more discussion/details]
May I refer you to page 3 of my last letter to you? [formal; May I ask you to look at / read]

R With reference to your fax of 28th May 2000, ... [formal; often used at the beginning of a letter to link it with an earlier text]

T Make a separate list of markers for spoken and written English. You may end up sounding too formal or too informal if you do not distinguish between those found in writing and those common in speech.
Exercises

28.1 Fill the gaps with typical written-text markers. The first letter of each phrase/word is given.

_Points for discussion – crime and punishment_

F......... (1), it is important to understand why people commit crimes, i.......... (2), what are the motives which make people do things they would never normally do?
F......... (3), a young man steals clothes from a shop; is it because he is unemployed? a drug addict? mentally disturbed? N......... (4), it is essential to consider whether punishment makes any difference, or is it just, a.......... (5), a kind of revenge?
I......... (6), how can we help victims of crime? I......... (7), how can we get to the roots of the problem, rather than just attacking the symptoms?

28.2 Match the markers on the left with the appropriate function on the right.

1 Leaving aside ... change the topic
2 In parenthesis, ... read something earlier in the text
3 Turning to ... this will not be discussed
4 In conclusion ... this document is about another one
5 With reference to ... to finish off
6 See above ... as an aside / secondary issue

28.3 Which marker(s) ...

1 is based on the verb ‘to say’?
2 is based on the verb ‘to follow’?
3 is a form of the word ‘far’?
4 contains something you find on trees?
5 contain the word/syllable ‘sum’? There are three of them.

28.4 Write a short letter to the Editor of a newspaper about a report in that paper the previous week that a local hospital is going to close. You think the hospital should not close because:

The nearest other hospital is 50 kilometres away.
It is being closed for political reasons, not genuine economic ones.
200 people work at the hospital; they will lose their jobs.
The hospital makes an important contribution to the local economy.
It is the only hospital in the region with a special cancer unit.

Try to include as many as possible of these markers:
with reference to  firstly, secondly, thirdly, etc.  leaving aside the following  to sum up  briefly  that is to say  finally Uncountable nouns

Countable nouns can be used with a/an and made plural (e.g. a hat, two hats). Uncountable nouns are not normally used with a(n) or the plural, e.g. information, not 'an information', or 'some informations'. You can learn uncountable nouns in groups associated with the same subject or area. Here are some possible headings.

Travel

- luggage
- accommodation
- money
- equipment (e.g. for skiing)
- information

Day-to-day household items

- soap
- toothpaste
- paper
- washing-up liquid
- shoe polish
- washing powder

Food

The word food is uncountable, and so are many food names. Try adding more uncountable words to this list.

sugar  rice  spaghetti  butter  flour  soup

Abstract uncountable nouns

She gave me some advice on how to study for the exam.
I picked up some interesting knowledge on that course.
She's made a lot of progress in a very short time.
She has done some research on marine life.
They've done a lot of work on the project.

Material and resources

For making clothes, furniture, etc.: cloth (e.g. cotton, silk)  leather  wool
For buildings: stone  brick  plastic  wood/timber  concrete  glass
For energy: coal  oil  petrol  gas  electricity

Typical mistakes

Don't say: What a terrible weather! She has long hairs. I have a news for you. We bought some new furnitures. Say: What terrible weather! She has long hair. I have some news for you. We bought some new furniture.

Always mark an uncountable noun with (U) in your vocabulary notebook, or write 'some …' or 'a lot of …' before it.

(See Unit 33 for ways of making uncountable nouns countable.)
Exercises

29.1 Decide whether these sentences need the indefinite article a(n). Not all of the nouns are on the left-hand page. Use a dictionary that tells you whether the nouns are countable.

1. He gave us all .......... advice on what to take with us.
2. I’m sorry. I can’t come. I have .......... homework to do.
3. She’s doing .......... investigation of teenage slang in English for her university project.
4. You’ll need .......... rice if you want to make a Chinese meal.
5. Paul’s getting divorced? That’s .......... interesting news!
6. I have to buy .......... film for the holiday. I think I’ll get about five rolls.
7. We saw .......... beautiful silk and .......... cotton in Thailand.

29.2 List these words in two columns side by side, one for uncountables and one for countables. Then join the words which have similar meaning.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>tip</th>
<th>clothing</th>
<th>case</th>
<th>information</th>
<th>job</th>
<th>advice</th>
<th>travel</th>
<th>garment</th>
<th>trip</th>
<th>work</th>
<th>baggage</th>
<th>fact</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

29.3 Imagine you are going away for a week’s holiday and you pack a suitcase with a number of things. Make a list of what you would pack and tick (✓) all the items on your list that are uncountable nouns in English.

29.4 Correct the mistakes in these sentences.

1. We had such a terrible weather that we left the camp-site and got an accommodation in town instead.
2. In the North of England, most houses are made of stones, but in the South, bricks are more common.
3. I love antique furnitures, but I would need an advice from a specialist before I bought any. My knowledges in that area are very poor.
4. Her researches are definitely making great progresses these days. She has done a lot of original works recently.

29.5 Personal qualities and skills use a lot of uncountable nouns. For example, we might say that a secretary should have intelligence, reliability, charm and enthusiasm. These are all uncountable nouns. Choose from the list and say what qualities these people should have. Say whether they need some, a lot or a bit of the quality. Use a dictionary for any difficult words.

jobs: soldier nurse teacher explorer actor athlete writer surgeon receptionist qualities: patience courage determination goodwill charm stamina reliability loyalty energy experience commitment talent creativity intelligence training imagination 29.6 Could I have …? Practise asking for these everyday items and decide whether you must say a or some.

vinegar duster needle thread sellotape tea-bag shoe polish Words that only occur in the plural

Tools, instruments, pieces of equipment scissors  pliers  pincers  tweezers  tongs  headphones binoculars  scales  handcuffs  shears  glasses/spectacles  goggles

Things we wear clothes  pyjamas  knickers/pants  underpants/pants  jeans  tights  jodhpurs leggings  dungarees  shorts  trousers  braces  (swimming) trunks

More useful words

When I move to London, I'll have to find lodgings. [e.g. a room in a flat]
When will the goods be delivered? [articles/items]
The architect inspected the foundations before declaring that the premises were safe. [under the building / the building itself]
The military authorities have established their headquarters in the old Town Hall.
The acoustics in the new opera-house are near-perfect. [quality of the sound]
The contents /'kɒntents/ of the house were sold after her death.
Looks are less important than personality in a partner.
As you come to the outskirts of the village, there are traffic-lights. Turn left there. [the beginning or end of the village]
The stairs are a bit dangerous; be careful.
The proceeds of the concert are going to the children's fund. [money from selling tickets]
A terrorist has escaped from prison. Her whereabouts are unknown. [where she is]

Words with plural form but used mostly with singular verbs

Names of some games: billiards dominoes draughts darts bowls cards
Names of subjects/activities: physics economics classics gymnastics aerobics athletics maths

Some words look plural, or may be thought of as plural, but are not, e.g. means, news, spaghetti (an Italian plural form), series.
There was a series of programmes on TV about Japan.
Is there a cheap means of transport I could use to get there?
30.1 Make a list of (a) subjects you studied at school or elsewhere, and (b) your leisure interests. How many of the words are plural? Use a dictionary if necessary.

30.2 Which things listed on the left-hand page can be used to:

1. cut a hedge? shears
2. help you to read small print?
3. cut paper?
4. hold your trousers up?
5. get a splinter out of your skin?
6. look at distant objects?
7. get a nail out of a piece of wood?
8. keep a prisoner’s hands together?

30.3 How many articles on the clothes line are plural nouns?

30.4 Fill the gaps with an appropriate plural-form noun.

1. (To a child) Come on! Get your .................. on! It’s time to go to bed.
2. The .................. of the rock concert are going to the international ‘Save the Children fund’.
3. The .................. in the new concert hall are superb. I’ve never heard such clear sound.
4. The escaped prisoner is tall, dark and has a beard. His .................. are unknown.
5. You don’t have to wear .................. to ride a horse, but it’s much more comfortable.
6. The .................. have forbidden the import of all foreign ..................

30.5 Odd one out. In each group, one of the nouns is always used in the plural. Which one?

1. sock trouser slipper
2. billiard squash tennis
3. knife scissor razor
4. tracksuit costume dungaree

30.6 In this silly story, change the singular nouns to plural where appropriate. Change the verbs where necessary.

I decided that if I wanted to be a pop star I’d have to leave home and get lodging in London. I finally got a room, but it was on the outskirt of the city. The owner didn’t live on the premise, so I could make as much noise as I liked. The acoustic in the bathroom was fantastic, so I practised there. I made so much noise I almost shook the foundation! I went to the headquarter of the Musicians’ Union, but a guy there said I just didn’t have a good enough look to be famous. Oh well, never mind!
Countable and uncountable nouns with different meanings

When we use a countable noun we are thinking of specific things that can be counted (e.g. two glasses). When we use it as an uncountable noun we are thinking of stuff or material or the idea of a thing in general (e.g. this door is made of glass).

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>stuff/materials</th>
<th>things</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>glass</td>
<td>a glass / glasses</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>cloth</td>
<td>a cloth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>fish</td>
<td>a fish</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>work</td>
<td>a work</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Be careful! there’s broken glass on the road. I need a cloth to wipe the table. We had fish for dinner. Hamlet is one of Shakespeare’s most famous works.

Here are some more nouns used in both ways. Make sure you know the difference between the uncountable and the countable meanings.

- drink / a drink
- hair / a hair
- paper / a paper
- land / a land
- people / a people
- home / a home
- policy / a policy
- trade / a trade

Drink was the cause of all his problems. [alcohol]
There’s a hair in my sandwich, a dark one; it must be yours.
Did you buy a paper this morning? [a newspaper]
I love meeting people from different countries. [individuals]
The different peoples of Asia. [races / national groups]
Her grandmother lives in a home. [an institution]
I’ve lost an important insurance policy. [a document]
Trade with China has increased. [imports and exports]

The names of food items often have a different meaning depending on whether they are used as countable or uncountable nouns (see fish above).

- coffee/tea → a coffee and two teas
- potato → just two potatoes, please!
- would you like some chocolate? → would you like a chocolate?
- salt and pepper → a pepper
- a hot dog with onion → an onion
Exercises

31.1 Would you normally expect to find these things in most people's houses/flats/garages/gardens? In which room or place? Answer for both meanings (countable and uncountable).

EXAMPLE an iron Yes, most people have an iron to iron their clothes; they might keep it in the kitchen somewhere. Most people don't normally keep iron (the metal) at home, but they might have things made of iron (e.g. a frying pan) in the kitchen.

1 a cloth 3 a fish 5 glass 7 drink 9 a rubber
2 a wood 4 pepper 6 paper 8 a tape

31.2 Which question would you ask? Could I have/borrow a ...? or Could I have/borrow some ...?

EXAMPLE cake Could I have some cake?

1 iron 4 paper
2 pepper 5 rubber
3 chocolate 6 glass

31.3 Answer these remarks using the word in brackets, as in the example. Use a(n) or the if the meaning is countable.

EXAMPLE Oh dear! I've spilt water on the floor! (cloth) Never mind. Here's a cloth; just wipe it up.

1 How did you get that puncture in your car tyre? (glass)
2 I was surprised to hear that old Mrs Jones doesn't live with her family any more. (home)
3 What do you think my son should do? He's just left school and he's not really academic. He needs a job. (trade)
4 Why did you choose this house in the end? (land)
5 Mum, what's the Mona Lisa? (work)
6 How can I find out what the restrictions are on this car insurance? (policy)

31.4 What is the difference between (a) and (b) in each pair?

1 a) Have some sauce with your hot dog.
   b) Shall I make a sauce with the fish?
2 a) PLANT AND HEAVY MACHINERY CROSSING (road sign)
   b) I've bought you a house plant.
3 a) Can I have some light?
   b) Can I have a light?
Collective nouns

Collective nouns are used to describe a group of the same things.

People

- a group of people (smaller number)
- a crowd of people (large number)
- a gang of thieves (rather negative)

Words associated with certain animals

A flock of sheep or birds, e.g. geese/pigeons; a herd of cows, deer, goats; a shoal /ʃoʊl/ of fish (or any particular fish, e.g. a shoal of herring/mackerel – note the use of singular here); a swarm /swɔːm/ of insects (typically flying ones, e.g. a swarm of bees/gnats). A pack of ... can be used for dogs, hyenas, wolves, etc. as well as for (playing) cards.

People involved in the same job/activity

A team of surgeons/doctors/experts/reporters/scientists/rescue-workers/detectives arrived at the scene of the disaster.

These nouns are used with singular or plural verbs, depending on your point of view.

The crew was/were saved when the ship sank. [workers on a ship/ambulance/plane]

The company is/are rehearsing a new production. [group of actors]

The cast is/are all amateurs. [actors in a film or theatre production]

The public has/have a right to know the truth. [the people as a whole]

The staff are on strike. [normally used with a plural verb; general word for groups who share a place of work, e.g. teachers in a school, people in an office]

Physical features of landscapes

In the picture we can see a row of cottages near a clump of trees with a range of hills in the background. Out on the lake there is a small group of islands.

Things in general

- a pair of birds sitting on a branch [two of anything that are the same]
- a couple of strawberries [vague way of saying two, not necessarily exactly the same]
- a pile/heap of papers [or clothes, dishes, toys, etc.]
- a bunch of flowers [or grapes, bananas etc.]
- a stack of chairs [or tables, boxes, logs, etc.]
- a set of tools [or pots and pans, dishes, etc]
Exercises

32.1 Fill each gap with a suitable collective noun.
1 There are ...................... of mosquitoes in the forests in Scandinavia in the summer.
2 As we looked over the side of the boat, we saw a ...................... of brightly coloured fish.
3 There was a ...................... of youths standing on the corner; they didn’t look very friendly.
4 You’ll see a ...................... of cards on the bookshelf. Will you fetch them for me, please?
5 A ...................... of biologists is studying marine life in this area.
6 Look at that ...................... of birds on that tree. Both of them have beautiful markings. I wonder what they are?
7 Could you put a ...................... of spoons of sugar in this coffee for me, please? It’s very bitter. Yes, just two, that’s fine. Thanks.

32.2 In each case, one of the examples is wrong. Which one?
1 Company is often used for actors / opera singers / swimmers
2 Cast is often used for people in a play / a book / a film
3 Crew is often used for the staff of an ambulance / a plane / a hospital
4 Pack is often used for cats / dogs / wolves
5 Flock is often used for sheep / pigeons / pigs

32.3 Draw a line from the left-hand column to the right-hand column.
1 a clump of          houses
2 a range of          flies
3 a gang of           fir-trees
4 a swarm of          elephants
5 a row of            bed-linen
6 a heap of           mountains
7 a herd of           schoolkids

32.4 Rewrite these sentences using collective words. Don’t forget to change the verb to singular or plural where necessary.
1 There are some tables on top of one another in the next room.
2 There are a large number of people waiting outside.
3 The people who work there are very well-paid.
4 A large number of sheep had escaped from a field.
5 She gave me six identical sherry glasses.
6 She gave me five or six beautiful roses.

32.5 Some collective nouns are associated with words about using language. Underline any you can see in this next text and make a note of them in your vocabulary notebook.

The journalists raised a whole host of questions about the actions of the police during the demonstration. There had been a barrage of complaints about police violence. The Chief of Police replied that he was not prepared to listen to a string of wild allegations without any evidence. In the end, he just gave a series of short answers that left everyone dissatisfied.

Follow-up: How would you translate the expressions you underlined in Exercise 32.5 into your own language?
Making uncountable nouns countable

You can make many uncountable nouns singular and countable by adding a piece of or a (little) bit of. Similarly you can make such nouns plural with pieces of or bits of. (Bit is less formal than piece and they are not always interchangeable. Bit can be used with all types of nouns. Piece tends to be used more with uncountable nouns. Bit suggests a smaller amount than piece.

She bought an attractive old piece of furniture at the auction sale. How many pieces of luggage have you got with you? The police collected bits of information from different sources. Chopin wrote some wonderful pieces of music. Before you go to England I should give you two bits of advice ... He spends all his money buying new bits of computer equipment.

A number of other words go with specific uncountable nouns.

Weather

Today’s weather has been variable. In the north there were heavy showers (of rain). The sunny spell (of weather) that we have had this last week has continued in much of the south although there were occasional rumbles of thunder and flashes of lightning in some areas with some quite loud claps of thunder in one or two areas. These were followed by a few spots of rain but gusts of wind soon blew them away and the sunshine returned. (See also Unit 36 for more weather words.)

Groceries

‘I need a loaf of bread, a couple of slices of ham, two bars of chocolate, a tube of toothpaste, two cartons of milk and three bars of soap.’ [slice can also be used with toast, bread, meat and cheese.]

Nature

Look at the ladybird on that blade of grass! What's happened? Look at that cloud of smoke hanging over the town! She blew little puffs of smoke out of her cigarette straight into my face. Let’s go out and get a breath of fresh air. Put another lump of coal on the fire, please. [lump can also be used with ‘sugar’]

Other

I had an amazing stroke of luck this morning. I’ve never seen him do a stroke of work. [only in negative sentences] I’ve never seen him in such a fit of temper before. The donkey is the basic means of transport on the island. Tights must be the most useful article/item of clothing ever invented. There was an interesting item of news about France on TV last night.

The phrase a state of can serve to make an uncountable noun singular. The nouns used with state are usually abstract and include chaos, emergency, tension, confusion, health, disorder, uncertainty, poverty, agitation, disrepair and flux [continuous change], e.g. a state of emergency.
Exercises

33.1 Match the words in the list on the left with the words they collocate with on the right.
1 a stroke lightning
2 a shower coal
3 an article grass
4 a lump of news
5 a flash rain
6 a blade clothing
7 an item thunder
8 a rumble luck

33.2 Change the uncountable nouns to countable nouns in the following sentences by using either a piece of or a bit of or one of the more specific words listed in B opposite.
EXAMPLE Could you buy me some bread, please? Could you buy me a loaf of bread, please?
1 My mother gave me some advice that I have always remembered.
2 Suddenly the wind almost blew him off his feet.
3 We had some terribly windy weather last winter.
4 Would you like some more toast?
5 He never does any work at all in the house.
6 Let's go to the park - I need some fresh air.
7 I can give you some important information about that.
8 We could see smoke hovering over the city from a long way away.
9 There is some interesting new equipment in that catalogue.
10 I need to get some furniture for my flat.

33.3 Use words from C opposite to fit the clues for the puzzle below.
1 My granny wouldn't be in such a bad state of .......... now if she hadn't smoked all her life.
2 The government announced a state of .......... after the earthquake.
3 We fell in love with the house although it was in a dreadful state of ...........
4 We are still in a state of .......... as to who has won the election.
5 Although this is supposed to be an affluent society, many people are still living in a state of ...........

33.4 Make up a puzzle of your own like the one above using the language practised in this unit. If possible, test a friend.

33.5 Now decide who or what might be in the following states and write your own sentences using these expressions.
1 chaos 2 flux 3 confusion 4 tension
Containers and contents

There are a number of special words in English which are used to describe different kinds of containers. Look at the following pictures.

Here is some additional information about each of these types of containers.

¹A case of wine is usually a cardboard box of wine, containing 12 bottles. Half a case is six bottles.
34.1 Complete the blanks in the shopping list without looking at the opposite page.

2 ................. of milk
4 ................. of cola a ................. of condensed milk a ................. of chocolate biscuits a ................. of cigarettes a large ............... of matches a ................. of honey
6 ................. of crisps

34.2 Try the following quiz about the words on the opposite page.
1 Which two of the containers listed would you be most likely to find holding flowers in a garden?
2 Which three are you most likely to find in a cellar?
3 Which six would you be likely to find in an off-licence (a shop which sells alcoholic drink)?
4 Which five would you be most likely to see on the breakfast table?
5 Which ones does a postman carry with him?
6 Which two are often used for carrying shopping?
7 How many cigarettes would you expect to find in (a) a carton (b) a packet?

34.3 Name the containers and their contents.

![Images of containers]

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

34.4 Think of other words which are often used with the following containers.

EXAMPLE shopping, wastepaper, linen, basket

1 .................. box 4 .................. jug
2 .................. bottle 5 .................. glass
3 .................. bag 6 .................. pot

Follow-up: Look in a kitchen cupboard or a supermarket. How many of the things that you see can you name? You will find more useful vocabulary for this exercise in Units 33 and 48.
Countries, nationalities and languages

Using ‘the’
Most names of countries are used without ‘the’, but some countries and other names have ‘the’ before them, e.g. The United States / US(A), The United Kingdom / UK, The Netherlands, The Philippines, The Commonwealth.
Some countries may be referred to with or without ‘the’, (the) Lebanon, (the) Gambia, (the) Ukraine, (the) Sudan. The forms without ‘the’ are more common.

Adjectives referring to countries and languages
With -ish: British Danish Flemish Irish Polish Spanish Turkish
With -(i)an: American Australian Brazilian Canadian Korean Russian With -ese: Chinese Japanese Maltese Portuguese Taiwanese Vietnamese
With -i: Bangladeshi Iraqi Israeli Kuwaiti Pakistani Yemeni
With -ic: Arabic Icelandic Slavonic
Some adjectives are worth learning separately, e.g. Cypriot, Dutch, Greek, Swiss, Thai.

Nationalities
Some nationalities and cultural identities have nouns for referring to people, e.g. a Finn, a Swede, a Turk, a Spaniard, a Dane, a Briton, an Arab. In most cases we can use the adjective as a noun, e.g. a German, an Italian, a Belgian, a Catalan, a Greek, an African, a European. Some need woman/man/person added to them (you can’t say ‘a Dutch’), so if in doubt, use them, e.g. a Dutch man, a French woman, an Irish person, an Icelandic man.

World regions

People and races
People belong to ethnic groups and regional groups such as Afro-Caribbeans, Asians and Latin Americans. What are you? (e.g. North African, Southern African, European, Melanesian)
They speak dialects as well as languages. Everyone has a native language or first language; many have second and third languages. Some people are expert in more than one language and are bilingual or multilingual.
Exercises

35.1 Ways of learning nationality and language adjectives: some adjectives can form regional groups, e.g. Latin American countries are always described by -(i)an adjectives.

1 Complete the list of Latin American adjectives. Look at a world map if you have to.
   Brazilian, Chilean, ...
2 Adjectives of former European socialist bloc countries and parts of the former Soviet Union also end in -ian. Complete the list. Hungarian, Armenian ...
3 What other regional groupings can you see on the left-hand page? (e.g. many -ish adjectives are European)

35.2 Famous names. Can you name a famous ...
EXAMPLE Argentinian sportsman or woman? Diego Maradona
1 Chinese politician?
2 South African political leader?
3 Pole who became a world religious leader?
4 Italian opera singer?
5 Irish rock-music group?

35.3 All these nationality adjectives have a change in stress and/or pronunciation from the name of the country. How do we pronounce the adjectives? Use a dictionary for any you don't know. Use phonetic script if possible (see Unit 5).
EXAMPLE Canada → Canadian → kə'neidan
1 Panama → Panamanian
2 Cyprus → Cypriot
3 Ghana → Ghanaian
4 Jordan → Jordanian
5 Egypt → Egyptian

35.4 Correct the mistakes in these newspaper headlines.

1 Princess to marry a French? Royal sensation!
2 Britain's have highest tax rate in EU
3 Rwandese refugees leave UN camps
4 POLICE ARREST DANISH ON SMUGGLING CHARGE
5 Iraqi delegation meets Pakistani President

35.5 World quiz
1 What are the main ethnic groups in Malaysia?
2 Which countries, strictly speaking, are in Scandinavia?
3 What are the five countries with the highest population?
4 How many languages are there in the world?
5 Where is Kiribati?
6 Where do people speak Inuit?
7 What are the five most widely spoken languages?

Follow-up: Make sure you can name your own nationality, country, region, ethnic group, language(s), etc. in English.
The weather

Cold weather

In Scandinavia, the chilly(1) days of autumn soon change to the cold days of winter. The first frosst(2) arrive and the roads become icy. Rain becomes sleet(3) and then snow, at first turning to slush(4) in the streets, but soon settling(5) with severe blizzards(6) and snowdrifts(7) in the far north. Freezing(8) weather often continues in the far north until May or even June, when the ground starts to thaw(9) and the ice melts(10) again.

(1) cold, but not very white coat of ice on everything (2) rain and snow mixed (3) dirty, brownish, half-snow, half-water (4) staying as a white covering (5) snow blown by high winds (6) deep banks of snow against walls, etc. (7) when temperatures are below 0° centigrade (8) change from hard, frozen state to softer state (9) change from solid to liquid under heat

Warm/hot weather

close(1) /klaʊs/ [warm and uncomfortable] stifling(2) /ˈstɪflɪŋ/ [hot, uncomfortable, you can hardly breathe] muggy(3) /ˈmʌgɪ/ [very warm and a little damp] humid(4) /ˈhjuːmɪd/ [hot and damp, makes you sweat a lot] scorching(5) /ˈskɔːrɪŋ/ [very hot, often used in positive contexts] boiling(6) [very hot, often used in negative contexts] mild(7) [warm at a time when it is normally cold]

Note also: We had a heatwave last month. [very hot, dry period]

Wet weather

This wet weather scale gets stronger from left to right.
damp(1) → drizzle (verb) / downpour (noun) → torrential rain → flood(2)

Autumn in London is usually chilly and damp with rain and drizzle.
It was absolutely pouring down. or There was a real downpour.
In the Tropics there is usually torrential rain most days, and the roads often get flooded.
or There are floods on the roads.
This rain won’t last long; it’s only a shower. [short duration]
The storm damaged several houses. [high winds and rain together]
We got very wet in the thunderstorm. [thunder and heavy rain]
Hailstones(1) were battering the roof of our car. [small balls of ice falling from the sky].

Note also: hail(2) [uncountable]: There was hail yesterday.
The sky’s a bit overcast; I think it’s going to rain. [very cloudy]
We had a drought(1) last summer. It didn’t rain for six weeks.

Mist and fog

Nouns and adjectives: haze(hazy) [light mist, usually caused by heat] mist/misty [light fog, often on the sea, or caused by drizzle] fog/foggy [quite thick, associated with cold weather] smog [mixture of fog and pollution (smoke + fog)]

Wind

There was a gentle breeze on the beach, just enough to cool us.
There’s a good wind today; fancy going sailing?
It’s a very blustery(1) /ˈblʌstəri/ day; the umbrella will just blow away.
There’s been a gale warning; it would be crazy to go sailing.
People boarded up their windows when they heard there was a hurricane(2) on the way.
Exercises

36.1 Match each word with a word from the box.
1 thunder 2 torrential 3 down stones drift storm warning
4 heat 5 hail 6 snow 7 gale rain wave pour

36.2 Fill the gaps with words from the left-hand page.
My first experience of real winter weather was when I went to Northern Canada. I was used to the sort of snow that falls in London, which quickly turns into brown ..........(1) with all the people walking on it. In fact, most of the time I was in London, it didn’t really snow properly, it was mostly ..........(2). Apart from that, British winters meant a bit of white ..........(3) on my garden and occasionally having to drive very carefully on icy roads early in the morning. I had never experienced the ..........(4) and ..........(5) that can paralyse a whole city in less than an hour and close roads completely. However, when the earth finally ..........(6) and all the snow ..........(7) away in spring, everything comes to life again and looks more beautiful than ever.

36.3 What kinds of weather do you think caused the following to happen? Write a sentence which could go before each of these.
1 We had to sit in the shade every afternoon.
2 The sweat was pouring out of us.
3 I could hardly breathe; I wished it would rain to cool us down.
4 Cars were skidding out of control.
5 The postman had to use a boat to get around.
6 They had to close the airport; the snow was a metre deep.
7 We were able to sit in the garden in the middle of winter.
8 The earth became rock-hard and a lot of plants died.
9 It blew the newspaper right out of my hands.
10 A row of very big trees had been blown over.
11 I could hardly see my hand in front of my face.

36.4 What types of weather are bad and good for doing these things?
EXAMPLE skiing bad: mild weather which makes the snow melt; good: cold, clear days
1 Planting flowers in a garden 4 A day of sightseeing in a big city
2 Having an evening barbecue 5 Camping out in a tent
3 Going out in a small sailing boat 6 Looking at ships through binoculars

36.5 This chart shows anyone who wants to visit the West of Ireland what weather to expect at different times of the year. Make a similar chart for your country or home region.

Follow-up: watch the weather forecast on an English-language TV channel (e.g. The BBC World Service or CNN), or listen to one on the radio, or look at one on the Internet, e.g. at http://www.cnn.com Note how many words from this unit are used.
Describing people: appearance

Hair, face, skin and complexion

- She's got straight hair and she's thin-faced (or she's got a thin face).
- She's got long, wavy hair and she's round-faced (or she's got a round face).
- She's got curly hair and is dark-skinned (or she's got dark skin).
- He's got a crew-cut.

- He's bald and has freckles.
- He's got a beard and moustache and has a chubby face.
- He's got receding hair and a few wrinkles.
- He used to have black hair but now it's gone grey, almost white.

What sort of person would you find attractive? Blonde, fair, dark or ginger-haired / red-haired.

She has such beautiful auburn hair. auburn [red-brown]

Fair and dark can be used for hair, complexion or skin.

Height and build

- a rather plump or stout man
- a slim woman [positive]
- a skinny person [rather negative]
- an obese couple [negative, very fat]

Fat may sound impolite. Instead we often say a bit overweight. If someone is broad and solid, we can say they are stocky. A person with good muscles can be well-built or muscular. If someone is terribly thin and refuses to eat, they may be anorexic.

General appearance

She's a very smart and elegant woman, always well-dressed; her husband is quite the opposite, very scruffy and untidy-looking / messy-looking.

He's very good-looking, but his friend's rather unattractive.

Do you think beautiful women are always attracted to handsome men? I don't. I think personality matters most.

First impressions are always important. [your first reaction to someone]

TIP

The suffix -ish is useful for describing people (see Unit 8). She's tallish. He has brownish hair.

He must be thirtyish.
Exercises

37.1 Answer these remarks with the opposite description.
EXAMPLE A: I thought you said he was the short, chubby one.
B: No, no, no, not at all, he’s the tall, thin-faced one.
1 A: Was that his brother, the dark-skinned, wavy-haired one?
B: No, completely the opposite, his brother’s ...
2 A: She’s always quite well-dressed, so I’ve heard.
B: What! Who told you that? Every time I see her, she’s ...
3 A: So Charlene’s that rather plump, fair-haired woman, is she?
B: No, you’re looking at the wrong one. Charlene’s ...
4 A: So, tell us about the new boss; good looking?
B: No, I’m afraid not; rather ...
5 A: I don’t know why, but I expected the tour-guide to be middle-aged or elderly.
B: No, apparently she’s only ...

37.2 Write one sentence to describe each of these people, giving information about their hair and face, their height and build and general appearance.
1 you yourself 3 a neighbour
2 your best friend 4 your ideal of a handsome man / a beautiful woman
Now, in the same way, describe somebody very famous, give some extra clues about them, e.g. He’s/She’s a pop star/politician. Can someone else guess who you are describing?

37.3 From these jumbled words, find combinations for describing people, as in the example.
Not all of the words are on the left-hand page. Some of the combinations are hyphenated. Use a dictionary if necessary. You can use the words more than once.
EXAMPLE good-looking looking round mixed over well dressed legged haired complexion good long race weight middle stocky faced red aged build tanned

37.4 WANTED! MISSING! Complete the gaps in these police posters.

Follow-up: Make a collection of descriptions of people from newspapers and magazines. Court/crime reports, celebrity and gossip pages of magazines, and the personal columns where people are seeking partners are good places to start.
Describing people: character

Intellectual ability
Ability: intelligent  bright  clever  sharp  shrewd  able  gifted  talented  brainy (colloquial)
Lacking ability: stupid  foolish  half-witted  simple  silly  brainless  daft  dumb  dim (the last four are predominantly colloquial words)
Clever, in a negative way, using brains to trick or deceive: cunning  crafty  sly

Attitudes towards life
Amal is pessimistic while Nita is optimistic – he always expects the worst to happen while she looks on the bright side.
It is strange that one of the twins is so extroverted while the other is so introverted – Ben loves being the focus of attention while Bill would far rather be alone with his thoughts.
I feel very tense (or wound-up / stressed-out) after a very busy day at work but, after a hot bath and a nice cup of tea, I'll soon feel relaxed.
Jane is very sensible – she'd never do anything stupid. In other words, she's very practical and down-to-earth.
Rupert is very sensitive – he gets very upset (or worked-up, more colloquial), if he feels people are criticising him.

Attitude towards other people
Enjoying others' company; sociable  gregarious*
Disagreeing with others; quarrelsome  argumentative
Taking pleasure in others' pain: cruel  sadistic Relaxed in attitude to self and others: easy-going  even-tempered  laid-back
Not polite to others: impolite  rude  ill-mannered  discourteous*
Telling the truth to others: honest  trustworthy  reliable  sincere Unhappy if others have what one does not have oneself: jealous  envious

One person's meat is another person's poison
Some characteristics can be either positive or negative depending on your point of view.
The words in the right-hand column mean roughly the same as the words in the left-hand column except that they have negative rather than positive connotations.
determined  →  obstinate  stubborn  pig-headed thrifty/economical  →  stingy  mean  tight-fisted  miserly self-assured/confident  →  self-important  arrogant  full of oneself unconventional/original  →  eccentric  odd  peculiar  weird frank/direct/open  →  blunt  abrupt  brusque  curt broad-minded  →  unprincipled  permissive inquiring*  →  inquisitive  nosy generous  →  extravagant innocent  →  naive ambitious  →  pushy
assertive  →  aggressive  bossy
* These words are much more common in written than in spoken English.
 These words are much more common in spoken than in written English.
(See also Units 11, 12, and 82).
Exercises

38.1 Match these words with their opposites.

1 clever introverted
2 extroverted tight-fisted
3 rude courteous
4 cruel gregarious
5 generous kind-hearted
6 unsociable half-witted

38.2 Do you think that the speaker likes or dislikes the people in these sentences?

1 Di’s very thrifty. 5 Dick’s quite bossy.
2 Molly’s usually frank. 6 I find Dave self-important.
3 Liz is quite broad-minded. 7 Don’t you think Jim’s nosy?
4 Sam can be aggressive. 8 Jill is very original.

38.3 Reword the sentences in 38.2 to give the opposite impression (negative rather than positive or vice versa).

EXAMPLE Di’s very stingy.

38.4 Magazines often publish questionnaires which are supposed to analyse aspects of your character. Look at the words below and then match them to the corresponding question.

EXAMPLE If you arrange to meet at 7 p.m., do you arrive at 7 p.m.?

reliable pessimistic argumentative sensitive sociable extravagant assertive inquisitive

1 Do you prefer to be in the company of other people?
2 Look at the picture. Do you think ‘my glass is half empty’?
3 Do you find it easy to tell your boss if you feel he or she has treated you badly?
4 Do you always look out of the window if you hear a car draw up?
5 Do you often buy your friends presents for no particular reason?
6 Do you frequently disagree with what other people say?
7 Do you lie awake at night if someone has said something unkind to you?

38.5 What questions like those in 38.4 could you ask to find out if a person is the following:

1 thrifty 3 sensible 5 even-tempered 7 obstinate
2 blunt 4 intelligent 6 original 8 stressed-out

38.6 Can you complete each of these word forks?

1 self-tempered 2 temper 3 minded

Write a sentence to illustrate the meanings of each of your words.

38.7 Choose five or six adjectives from the opposite page which you think best describe either your own or a friend’s character. How do you or your friend demonstrate these character?

EXAMPLE Sociable - I am sociable because I love being with other people.
Relationships

Types of relationships

Here is a scale showing closeness and distance in relationships in different contexts.

- CLOSER ——— MORE DISTANT friendship: best friend good friend friend (casual) acquaintance work: close colleague /ˈkɒli:ɡ/ colleague/workmate love/romance: lover steady boy/girlfriend exmarrige: wife/husband/partner ex-*ex- can be used with or without (informally) another word: She’s my ex. (girlfriend, etc.)

Mate is a colloquial word for a good friend. It can also be used in compound nouns to describe a person you share something with, e.g. classmate, shipmate, workmate, flatmate. The stress is on the first word in each case: /ˈklaɪsmət/.

Workmate is usual in non-professional contexts or in informal contexts; colleague is more common among professional people, and sounds more formal.

Fiancé(e) /fɪˈneɪs/ can still be used for someone you are engaged to, but a lot of people feel it is dated nowadays. You will sometimes see husband/wife-to-be in journalistic style.

English has no universally accepted words for ‘person I live with but am not married to’, but partner is probably the commonest.

Liking and not liking someone

</tbody>
</table>

She doesn’t just like Bob, she idolises him. I can’t stand him.
I really fancy Lisa, but her friend just leaves me cold / doesn’t do anything for me. [more colloquial]

Fancy is informal. Repel is very strong and rather formal.

Phrases and idioms for relationships

Jo and I get on well (with each other). [have a good relationship]
Adrian and Liz don’t see eye to eye. [often argue/disagree]
I’ve fallen out with my parents again. [had arguments]
Tony and Jane have broken up / split up. [ended their relationship]
George is having an affair with his boss. [a sexual relationship, usually secret]
Children should respect their elders. [adults/parents, etc.]
Let’s try and make it up. [be friends again after a row]
She’s my junior / I’m her senior / I’m senior to her, so she does what she’s told. [refers to position / length of service at work]

(See Unit 65 for more words relating to likes and dislikes.)
Exercises

39.1 Use words with the suffix -mate to rewrite these sentences.
1 This is Jack. He and I share a flat.
2 My grandad still writes to his old friends he was at sea with.
3 We were in the same class together in 1988, weren’t we?
4 She’s not really a friend, she’s just someone I work with.

39.2 How many relationships can you find between the people in column A and column B, using words from the left-hand page?

EXAMPLE John Silver and Lorna Fitt were once colleagues.

A
Josh Yates: politician, was married to Eve Cobb 1983–1990. Met Bill Nash a couple of times.
Ana Wood: has lived as a couple (unmarried) with Bill Nash for the last five years.

B:
Nora Costa: was in GB Olympic swimming team in 1992. Was in same class at school as Ada Brigg.
Bill Nash: works every day with John Silver. Shared a flat years ago with Eve Cobb.
Fred Parks: politician. Knew Ada Brigg years ago, but not very well.

39.3 What do you think the relationships between the people below would be like? Use the verbs, phrases and idioms opposite.

1 teenage music fan
   (a) parents   (b) pop star   (c) strict teacher   (d) mate
2 secretary
   (a) another secretary   (b) boss   (c) very attractive workmate
3 45-year-old
   (a) teenagers   (b) ex-husband/wife

39.4 The person who typed this book has got some of the phrases and idioms opposite mixed up with one another. Correct them.

1 Jo and Phil don’t get on eye to eye.
2 I fell up with my parents last night. It wasn’t my fault.
3 We had a quarrel but now we’ve made it well.
4 Do you think Jim and Nora are making an affair? I do.
5 I see very well with all my colleagues at work.
6 She should learn to respect her elders.
7 Jo’s attractive, but her mate just makes me cold completely.
At home

Places in the home

You probably already know the names of most rooms and locations in a typical home. Here are some less common ones and what they are for.

master/main bedroom: the largest, most important bedroom spare bedroom/guest (bed)room: not used every day; visitors can stay there utility room: usually just for washing machine, freezer, etc.
shed: small building separated from the house usually for storing garden tools attic/loft: space in the roof of a house used for storing things; it can also be converted into an extra living space with stairs leading up to it (loft/attic conversion) cellar: room below ground level, no windows, used for storing things basement: room below ground level, windows, for living/working study: a room for reading/writing/studying in landing: flat area at the top of a staircase hall/hallway: open area as you come into a house porch: covered area before an entrance-door pantry or larder: large cupboard (usually big enough to walk into) for storing food terrace or patio: paved area between house and garden for sitting and eating, etc.
drive: short road leading from the street to the house or garage; you can drive/park on it

Small objects in the home

Some everyday objects are often difficult to name and are often not listed in dictionaries.

- remote control
- power point and plug
- table-mat
- coaster
- corkscrew
- tea-towel
- washing-up liquid
- grater
- ironing-board
- dust-pan and brush
- bin-liners
- chopping board

Types of houses/places people live

detached house: not joined to any other house semi-detached house (informal: semi-): joined to one other house self-contained flat: does not share facilities with any other terraced house: joined to several houses to form a row cottage: small house in the country or in a village bungalow: house with only one storey (no upstairs) bedsit: bedroom and living room all in one villa: large house with big gardens or a rented house in a holiday resort/tourist area time-share: holiday flat or house where you have the right to live one or two weeks a year 40.1 Where in a typical house would you look for the following things?

1 a rake
2 cutlery
3 dental floss
4 a coat-hanger
5 suitcases
6 a tumble-dryer
7 a power point
8 a porch
9 a grater
10 old empty boxes

40.2 Fill in the room and place labels on the plan of the house.

1 in the roof:

2 top of the stairs:

3 as you come in:

4 where the washing machine is:

5 a big cupboard for food:

40.3 Fill the gaps with a suitable word.

1 I've got a darkroom in the ................. where I develop films. It's perfect because there are no windows down there.
2 Is there a ................. where I can plug in this radio?
3 Put a ................. under your drink in case you mark that side-table. It's an antique.
4 I've emptied the waste-bin. Are there any more .................? Where are they?
5 We keep our skis up in the ................. They're out of the way up there.
6 You'll find the garden-chairs in the ................. at the bottom of the garden. Bring them up and we'll have a drink on the ................. and watch the sunset.
7 The light-switch for the stairs is on the ................. just by your bedroom door.
8 I've moved to a ................. now I can't manage the stairs any more at my age.
9 This is the ................. bedroom; we sleep in here. You'll be in the ................. bedroom; that's this one here.
10 Leave your car in the ................., just in front of the garage. It'll be safe there.

40.4 Answer these questions about yourself and if possible, ask someone else too.

1 Is your house detached? What sort is it if not?
2 Are time-shares common in any part of your country?
3 Do houses still have pantries in your country?
4 Is it common to rent bedsits in your country? If so, what sorts of people do so?

40.5 Everyday objects. Answer these questions.

1 How can you make very small pieces of cheese to sprinkle on a dish?
2 What might you fetch if someone dropped a saucer and it broke into small pieces on the floor?
3 What could you put under a dinner plate to prevent it marking the table?
4 How can you switch off the TV without leaving your chair?
5 How can you cut vegetables without marking the kitchen work-surface?
Everyday problems

Things that go wrong in houses and flats

The lights are not working; there must be a power cut.

Oh no! The bathroom’s flooded! Get a mop, quick!

The door-handle’s come off.

The batteries have run out / are dead. I’ll have to get some more.

The washing machine broke down the other day. I’ll have to do the laundry by hand.

Oh dear! This chair’s broken. I wonder how that happened.

This pipe’s leaking.

I’m sorry, your cup’s chipped.

Everyday minor injuries

She twisted her ankle coming down the stairs.

I cut my finger while I was slicing potatoes. [broken skin with blood coming out]

I bumped/banged my head on the cupboard door and got a bruise. [bru:z]

Sharon fell down and grazed her knee this morning. [red with broken skin, but no blood]

Graze, cut and bruise can be used as verbs or as countable nouns.

Other everyday problems

I’ve mislaid Bob’s letter. Have you seen it anywhere? [put it somewhere and can’t find it]

She spilt some coffee on the carpet. I hope it doesn’t stain. [leave a permanent mark]

The sink is blocked. Have you been throwing the tea-leaves in there again? [the water will not drain away]

I’m afraid I’ve dented your car. I’m really sorry. I’ll pay for the repairs. [bent the metal a little bit by hitting something]

I’ve locked myself out. Can I use your phone to ring my wife?

The car won’t start. I hope it’s nothing serious. Perhaps the battery’s flat.

The kitchen clock’s slow/fast/stopped. What time d’you make it?
Exercises

41.1 What do you think happened to make these people do/say what they did?

EXAMPLE We had to send for a plumber. Maybe a pipe was leaking/the bathroom was flooded.
1 I had to call out our local mechanic.
2 Our neighbours let us use their washing machine.
3 Don’t worry, it often does that; I’ll screw it back on.
4 Come here and I’ll put a plaster on it.
5 Luckily, that was all it was; the skin was broken a bit, but there was no blood.
6 How many batteries does it take? I’ll get some for you.
7 I don’t know where you’ve put them. Try the bedside table.

41.2 Odd one out. Which of the three words is the odd one out in each case?

EXAMPLE spill flood chip chip the other two involve liquids
1 break down smash break 3 leak come off chip
2 run out stain stop 4 cut bruise flood

41.3 What would you do if ...

1 you mislaid your credit card? 4 your dishwasher broke down?
2 you noticed your guest’s glass was chipped? 5 you bruised your forehead?
3 one of your coat-buttons came off? 6 your watch was slow?

41.4 Here is a matrix. There are the names of things and things that can go wrong with them. Not all of the words are on the left-hand page. Use a dictionary for any you are not sure of. Put a tick (√) for things that most typically go together, as in the example.

2. One that leaves the skin badly deformed.
3. One you can get by drinking infected water.
4. One you can get from an animal bite.
5. One that makes the skin go yellow.

Do people get any of these diseases in your country?

Follow-up: Look at an English-language newspaper and see how many of the global problems mentioned in this unit are reported. Cut out any articles you find, and make a list of the vocabulary for each topic in your notebook.
Education

Stages in a person’s education

Here are some names that are used to describe the different types of education in Britain.

| play school/group nursery school /ˈnɜːstrɪ/ | pre-school (2–5 years old) | mostly play with some early learning |
| infant school junior school | primary (5/6–12/13) | basic reading, writing, arithmetic, art, etc. |
| comprehensive school or grammar school sixth form college (16–18) | secondary (12/13–16/18) | wide range of subjects in arts and sciences and technical areas |
| college or university | further/higher (18+) | degrees/diplomas in specialised academic areas |

Comprehensive schools in the UK are open to all and are for all abilities. You can only get into a grammar school by competitive entry (an exam). Public schools in the UK are very famous private schools. Colleges include teacher-training colleges, technical colleges and general colleges of further education.

Exams and qualifications

- take/do/sit an exam to pass (get the minimum grade or more) / do well in (get a high grade) an exam / fail (you do not get the minimum grade) / do badly in (you fail, or don’t do as well as expected / as well as you wanted) an exam

Before an exam it’s a good idea to revise for it. If you skip classes/lectures, you’ll probably do badly in the exam. [informal; miss deliberately]

Some schools give pupils tests regularly to check their progress. The school-leaving exams are held in May/June. In England, these are called GCSEs (age 16) and A-levels (age 18).

In some schools, colleges and universities, instead of tests and exams there is continuous assessment with marks, e.g. 65%, or grades, e.g. A, B+, for essays and projects during the term. If you pass your university exams, you graduate /ɡreɪd/ (get a degree), then you’re a graduate /ɡreɪd/ and you may want to go on to a post-graduate course.

Talking about education

In colleges and universities, there are usually lectures (large classes listening to the teacher and taking notes), seminars (10–20 students actively taking part in discussion etc.) and tutorials (one student or a small group, working closely with a teacher).

A professor is a senior university academic who is a well-known specialist in his/her subject. University and college teachers are usually called lecturers or tutors.

Asking somebody about their country’s education system.

- What age do children start school at?
- What’s the school-leaving age?
- Are there evening classes for adults?
- Do you have state and private universities?
- Do students get grants for further education?
Exercises

43.1 Fill the gaps in this life story of a British woman.

At 5, Nelly Dawes went straight to ..........(1) school because there were very few ..........(2) schools for younger children in those days. When she was ready to go on to secondary school, she passed an exam and so got into her local ..........(3) school. Nowadays her own children don't do that exam, since most children go to a ..........(4) school. She left school at 16 and did not go on to ..........(5) education, but she works during the day, then goes to .......... ..........(6) at the local school once a week to learn French. She would like to take up her education again more seriously, if she could get a ..........(7) or scholarship from the government. Her ambition is to go to a .......... .......... ..........(8) and become a school-teacher.

43.2 Correct the mis-collocations in these sentences.

1 I can't come out. I'm studying. I'm passing an examination tomorrow.
2 Congratulations! I hear you succeeded your examination!
3 You can study a lot of different careers at this university.
4 I got some good notes in my continuous assessment this term.
5 She's a professor in a primary school.
6 He gave an interesting 45-minute conference on Goethe.
7 She got a degree in personnel management from a private college.
8 When I was 12, we started having French seminars at school, and I fell in love with the language.

43.3 What questions could you ask to get these answers?

1 No, they have to finance their own studies.
2 There isn't much difference; it's just that one gets money from the government and the courses are free, the other depends on fee-paying students.
3 Well, they learn one or two things, like recognising a few numbers, but most of the time they just play.
4 Because I wanted to be a teacher, no other reason.
5 It's sixteen, but a lot of kids stay on until eighteen.
6 I've been revising/studying for an exam.
7 No, ours are given in grades, you know, B+, C, A, that sort of thing.
8 No, I was ill. I didn't miss it deliberately.
9 They are exams taken in England at 18 years old, which you need in order to get into university.

43.4 Make a table for the various stages and types of education in your country, like the table in A opposite. How does it compare with the UK system and with the system in other countries represented in your class or that you know of? Is it possible to find satisfactory English translations for all the different aspects of education in your country?

Follow-up: The education system in the USA is a bit different from in the UK. Find out what the following terms mean in the US education system.

    high-school  college  sophomore  graduate school Work

director (member of the board of a company) executive /ɪɡˈzɛkwɪtɪv/ (important person who makes big decisions) administrator (person who runs the office day-to-day) clerk /klə:k/ (ordinary office worker) skilled worker (trained to do specific tasks, e.g. building a computer) unskilled worker (doing a job that needs no training) labourer (does hard, physical work) receptionist (visitors must check in with them) public relations officer (gives information to the press, TV, etc. about the company) safety officer (makes sure machines, etc. are not dangerous to use) security officer (makes sure thieves/criminals cannot enter) union representative (looks after the staff’s interests) economist (expert in financial matters) personnel officer (takes care of administration for new and existing employees) sales assistant (sells goods to the public) education officer (organises training, classes, etc. for employees) researcher worker (investigates and develops new products) supervisor (makes sure workers are doing their job properly)

Here are some professions (jobs that require considerable training and/or qualifications) and trades (skilled manual jobs requiring on-the-job and other training).

lawyer dentist hairdresser mechanic architect /ˈærɪktɪk/ priest farmer vet librarian physiotherapist /fɪziˈɔːθərəpi/ child-minder police officer accountant engineer scientist chef /ʃɛt/ firefighter civil servant tailor/dressmaker designer builder carpenter plumber

Collocations of words connected with work

It’s not easy to get/find work round these parts. I’ve been offered work / a job in Paris. What d’you do for a living? I’m in publishing/banking, etc.

Look at this encyclopedia entry about Iceland. Note the words in bold.

Iceland An island republic in the North Atlantic. The landscape consists largely of barren plains [flat land where little grows] and mountains, with large ice fields particularly in the south west. The island has active volcanoes [they still erupt] and is known for its thermal [hot] springs and geysers [warm water that fountains out of the ground]. With less than 1% of the land suitable for growing crops [food that is grown], the nation's economy is based on fishing, and fish products account for 80% of the exports. Area: 103,000 km². Population: 227,000. Capital: Reykjavik.

Here are some other nouns which are useful when talking about the environment. Check their meanings in a dictionary if necessary.

Where land meets sea: coast, shore, beach, cliff, cape, peninsula, cove, bay, gulf

Words connected with rivers: source, tributary, waterfall, mouth, valley, gorge, delta, brook, stream, estuary

Words connected with mountains: foot, ridge, peak, summit, glacier

There are many environmental problems in the world today.

The air, rivers and seas are all polluted, especially in over-populated and heavily industrialised regions. Poor waste disposal is the cause of much of this pollution.

Overfishing has depleted the numbers of fish in the oceans.

The destruction of the ozone layer is leading to climatic changes and what is known as the greenhouse effect.

The destruction of the rainforests is causing widespread ecological problems.

Battery farming provides large amounts of food but it involves keeping animals in crowded and unnatural conditions.

TIP Write down the English names for the main geographical features in your country. Check if names are pronounced as English may have taken the names of the features from your language, or may have anglicised their pronunciation.

Towns

The words, city and town, are sometimes used interchangeably but a city is generally large with a wider range of facilities. This is a description of Cork, one of Ireland’s main cities. Which words or phrases might be useful for describing your own or another town?

Cork city is the major metropolis of the south; indeed with a population of about 135,000 it is the second largest city in the Republic. The main business and shopping centre of the town lies on the island created by two channels of the River Lee, with most places within walking distance of the centre. (The buses tend to be overcrowded and the one-way traffic system is fiendishly complicated.) In the hilly area of the city is the famous Shandon Steeple, the bell-tower of St Anne’s Church, built on the site of a church destroyed when the city was besieged by the Duke of Marlborough. Back across the River Lee lies the city’s cathedral, an imposing 19th century building in the French Gothic style. Cork has two markets. Neither caters specifically for tourists but those who enjoy the atmosphere of a real working market will appreciate their charm. The Crawford Art Gallery is well worth a visit. It regularly mounts adventurous exhibitions by contemporary artists. The fashionable residential districts of Cork city overlook the harbour. There are other residential areas on the outskirts.

Here are some of the facilities that you might find in a town.

Sports: swimming pool  sports centre  golf course  tennis courts  football pitch  skating rink

Cultural: theatre  opera house  concert hall  radio station  art gallery

Educational: school  college  university library  adult education centre  museum

Catering, accommodation and night-life: restaurant  nightclub  take-away hotel  B & B (bed and breakfast)  youth hostel  disco  estate agency  housing estate

Transport: bus service  taxi rank  car hire  car park  parking meters

Other: health centre  law courts  registry office  citizens’ advice bureau  job centre  bottle bank  department store  chemist’s  garden centre  police station  Town or City Hall  suburbs  industrial estate

Here is a grid showing the typical problems of large cities now.

50.3 Look at the list of facilities listed in B opposite. Think of a town and tick all those facilities which the town has.

50.4 Suggest three words which would collocate well with each other of the nouns below, as in the examples. The words do not have to be on the left-hand page.
1 ........................................ 3 ........................................ 5 ........................................
   ........................................ museum  ........................................ college  ........................................ club
   ........................................ ........................................ ........................................
2 ......................... leisure  4 ........................................ 6 .........................
   ........................................ centre  ........................................ court  ........................................ agency
   ........................................ ........................................ ........................................

50.5 What facilities would your ideal town have? Name the three most important facilities for you in each of the categories listed in B opposite. You may choose facilities other than those listed opposite if you wish.

50.6 Are any of the problems mentioned in C opposite to be found in your town or a town you know well? Could you suggest a solution for these problems?

50.7 Write sentences about any towns you know, using each of the adjectives in D.
EXAMPLE The most picturesque part of my town is the old market-place.

Follow-up: Design a brochure about your own town or another town you know well.

Names of trees
Here are the names of some of the commonest British trees. You are likely to meet these words if you read fiction or poetry in English.
- oak
- willow
- chestnut
- fir
- pine

Some verbs for talking about the natural world
Our apple tree flowers/blossoms in April. / Let's pick some flowers (not pick up). / Farmers plant, fertilise and harvest their crops.

TIP
A good bilingual dictionary will help you to find the words for the most frequent flowers, animals and trees in your area, if they are not included on this page.
Exercises

51.1 Can you answer the following general knowledge questions about the natural world?

1. Is the shark a fish or a mammal?
2. Are the following trees deciduous [lose their leaves in winter] or evergreen [green all year round] – oak, willow, pine, chestnut?
3. What does the bee take from flowers to make honey?
4. Name three animals that hibernate [go to sleep] in winter.
5. What might a British boy or girl say while pulling the petals off a daisy?
6. Name three flowers and three birds in English.
7. Which is the fastest of all land animals?
8. What plants or animals are the symbols of (a) England and (b) New Zealand?
9. What plant or animal is the symbol of your country?
10. What do fish use their gills for?
11. Which of these creatures is extinct [not alive any more] – emu, dinosaur, phoenix?
12. Can you name an endangered species [species at risk of becoming extinct]?

51.2 Divide these words into two or three groups in any way that seems appropriate to you:

hedgehog mane petals eagle oak willow worm bark

51.3 Fill in the blanks in the sentences below using words from the opposite page.

1. A tree’s ......................... go a long way under ground.
2. A cat sharpens its ......................... against the ......................... of a tree.
3. Most fruit trees ......................... in spring.
4. Flowers will not ......................... unless they get enough water and light.

10. ......................... use a kind of radar to find their way around.
11. ......................... move very, very slowly.
12. Most crops in the UK are ......................... in the autumn.

51.4 Look at this description of a chimpanzee from a children’s book. Underline four or five collocations used in the text.

Chimpanzees are many people’s favourite great apes, but they are not the cuddly creatures often portrayed by the media. Wild chimps are intelligent, powerful animals that live in complex communities. They often work together to hunt other animals and they have even been known to wage war on their own kind. They have developed a marvellous range of tool-using skills, and have been able to adapt to both forest and savannah regions in central and western Africa. But what makes chimpanzees so fascinating is their close relationship to humans. Not only do they look like us, but they often seem to behave like us as well.

51.5 Use the collocations you underlined in exercise 51.4 to write sentences of your own about any of the animals you have worked on in this unit.

Words at sea

At sea – a bedroom is a cabin, a bed is a bunk, the kitchen on a ship is a galley, right is starboard and left is port and the group of people who work on the ship is called the crew. These terms are also used for an aircraft. Sailors also refer to their vessels as ‘she’ rather than ‘it’.

Journey, trip, travel, voyage

A trip is shorter than a journey: What was the journey like? We had a long journey by coach from the north to the south of the country. We took a trip / went on a trip to the beach last weekend. [go on a trip suggests an organised short excursion, whereas take a trip or have a trip could be something you do yourselves in your own car.

Travel is a general word. It is a noun and a verb: Travel broadens the mind. How did you travel round Australia? We hitch-hiked. Note: We never say ‘a travel’. It is an uncountable noun.

Voyage means a long journey usually by sea, though this use is quite formal. It is often used in other contexts with discovery. Learning English is a voyage of discovery!

Some words connected with travel

Last week he flew to New York. It was an early-morning flight. The plane was to take off at 6 a.m. and land at 7 a.m. He was stranded at the airport. The plane was delayed by fog. Air passengers often suffer such delays.

Trains always run on time here. You have to change trains at Crewe.

We are sailing on the QE2. It sets sail at noon. It will dock in New York at 6 p.m. I hope the sea won’t be rough – I might be seasick.

The ship was wrecked. The passengers were marooned on a desert island.

Our car does 10 km per litre. It goes quite fast. We can usually overtake other cars.

The car swerved into the middle of the road to avoid the cyclist.

He backed/reversed the car into the drive and parked in front of the house.
Exercises

54.1 Label the diagram below. Use a dictionary to help you if necessary.

54.2 Here are some more words which could have been included in the table in A opposite. Where would they fit into the table?
bonnet balloon deck-chair guard's van mast petrol pump bus driver anchor oar rudder left luggage lockers check-in desk control tower canoe dual carriageway

54.3 Choose the best word flight, journey, trip, travel or voyage to fit these gaps.
1 I would love to ................... round the world in a balloon.
2 The Titanic sank on its maiden ..................
3 How long does the ................... from New York to Rio take?

54.5 Write two advantages and two disadvantages for each of the four forms of travel opposite.
Holidays

Places to stay and types of holiday

- camp-site: a place where you can pitch a tent or park a caravan
- self-catering flat: a flat which you rent; you cook for yourself
- guesthouse: accommodation like a hotel but cheaper and with fewer services
- youth hostel: cheap accommodation, mainly for young people, with, perhaps, ten or more people sleeping in bunk beds in one room
- holiday camp: a place providing holiday accommodation in little chalets or flats, with restaurants, bars, swimming pools and lots of other facilities and entertainment for when visitors want a break from sun-bathing
- time-share apartment: accommodation of which you share ownership with a number of people, for example you own a twelfth of the apartment so you have the right to stay there for one month every year.
- package holiday: a holiday in which you pay for travel, accommodation and food (even occasionally excursions) in advance
- cruise: a holiday spent touring on a boat, stopping off to go sight-seeing at different ports

The language of holiday brochures is often quite exaggerated. Here are some typical adjectives with nouns that they collocate with.

- breath-taking views/scenery/pistes (ski slopes) [breath-taking (like stunning) suggests that something is so magnificent that it takes your breath away]
- exclusive access/club/shops [only the most special people can use the facilities]
- exhilarating feeling/ride/moment [makes you feel excited and full of energy]
- exotic beauty/charm/location [unusual and much more exciting than one's everyday reality]
- glamorous surroundings/film star/hotel [especially exciting and attractive]
- intoxicating views/air/fragnance [makes you feel excited and emotional]
- legendary hospitality/figure/status [so special that it has been famous for some time]
- luxurious cruise ship/accommodation/lifestyle [provides great comfort]
- mighty river/cathedral/oak [large and powerful]
- picturesque streets/villages/cottage [as pretty as a picture]
- sublime pleasure/simplicity/skill [heavenly or divine]
- unsurpassed opportunity/beauty/quality [nothing better exists]
- unspoilt charm/village/woodland [still in a beautiful and natural state]

TIP

To find more useful language relating to holidays, get some holiday brochures or other tourist information written in English. You could either try the embassies of those countries or a travel agency. Ask for the information in English. Note down any useful new words and expressions that you learn from it. Think about what the writer was trying to suggest through his or her choice of words.
Exercises

55.1 Which of the holiday places and types of holiday in A have you or any of your friends had experience of? What are the advantages and disadvantages of each? Try and find at least one advantage and one disadvantage for each, even if you have no experience of them.

7 Experienced skiers can try the most breath-taking of ....................
8 Be thrilled by visiting the castle of the ................... Count Dracula!

55.5 There are six typical language mistakes in the paragraph below. Underline and correct them.

The Smiths stayed at a camping last summer because all other kinds of holiday accommodations are too expensive for them. Every day Mrs Smith had a sunbath, Mr Smith made a sightseeing and the children made a travel around the island.

One day they made an excursion to a local castle.

55.6 Write a holiday advertisement for a place you know well. Use as many of the words from Section B opposite as possible.
Numbers and shapes

Notice how the following are said in English.
28% twenty-eight per cent 10 m x 12 m ten metres by twelve metres
10.3 ten point three

Note that decimal fractions are separated by a dot and not a comma in English and this is pronounced point.
1 2/3 one and two thirds
4/5 four fifths 9/13 nine thirteenths or nine over thirteen 4² four squared 7³ seven cubed 8⁴ eight to the power of four 32°C or F thirty-two degrees centigrade/Celsius or Fahrenheit
1,623,457 one million, six hundred and twenty-three thousand, four hundred and fifty-seven

Note how commas separate each set of three numbers in long numbers.

When saying a long number, you pronounce each set of up to three digits separately with rising intonation, until the last set – where the intonation falls at the end to make it clear that the number is complete.

Two-dimensional shapes

A rectangle has four right angles.
A circle is cut in half by its diameter. Its two halves can be called semi-circles.
The radius of a circle is the distance from its centre to the circumference.

Three-dimensional shapes

The two halves of a sphere can be called hemispheres.

Here are the four basic processes of arithmetic.
+ addition - subtraction × multiplication ÷ division
2x + 3y - z = 3z/4x Two x plus three y minus z equals three z divided by four x. or Three z over four x.
6 × 7 = 42 Six times multiplied by seven is forty-two. or Six sevens are forty-two.
Exercises

56.1 How numerate are you? Try this numbers quiz.
1 Name the first four odd numbers.

3 Name the first four prime numbers.
4 Give an example of a decimal fraction.
5 Give an example of a vulgar fraction.
6 How do you read this formula and what does it represent: $e = mc^2$?
7 How do you read this and what does it represent: $2 \pi$

56.2 Write the following in words rather than in figures or symbols.
1 2% of the British population owned 90% of the country’s wealth in 1992.
2 $0^\circ C = 32^\circ F$
3 62.3% of adults have false teeth.
4 $\frac{3}{4} + \frac{1}{4} \times 4^2 = 14\frac{1}{2}$.
5 2,769,425 people live here.

56.3 Look at the shapes in B and C opposite. What is the adjective relating to each of the shapes illustrated? Use a dictionary if necessary.

56.4 Read the underlined words aloud.
1 Oxygen accounts for 46.6% of the earth’s crust.
2 The highest waterfall in the world is Angel Falls in Venezuela with a drop of 979 m.
3 The top coffee-drinking country in the world is Finland where 1,892 cups per annum are consumed per head of the population.
4 The tallest church is the Chicago Methodist Temple which is 173 m or 568 ft high.
5 The commonest item of lost property on London transport is the umbrella. 23,250 umbrellas were handed in to London transport lost property offices in 1987/8.
6 The country with the most telephones in the world is Monaco. It has 733 telephones per 1,000 population.
7 The smallest country in the world is the Vatican City with an area of 0.4 sq km.
8 The nearest star to earth is Proxima Centauri. It is 33,923,310,000 km from earth.

56.5 Draw the following shapes.
1 A right-angled triangle with two equal sides of about two centimetres in length. Draw a small circle at the centre of the triangle and then draw lines from the centre of the circle to each of the angles of the triangle.
2 A rectangle with diagonal lines joining opposite angles.
3 An octagon with equal sides. Draw an oval in the middle of the octagon.
4 A cube of roughly 3 cm by 3 cm by 3 cm.

Follow-up: Write down some numbers that are important for you – your age, any numbers in your address, your telephone number and similar numbers for any of your friends, any other numbers that are significant for you at work or in your study. Practise saying these numbers in English.
Science and technology

You are probably familiar with the traditional branches of science e.g. chemistry, physics, botany and zoology. But what about these newer fields?

genetic engineering: the manipulation of genetic material (DNA) of living things to alter hereditary traits

ergonomics: the study of the design of physical working spaces and how people interact with them molecular biology: the study of the structure and function of the organic molecules associated with living organisms

cybernetics: the study of the way information is moved and controlled by the brain or by machinery information technology: the study of technology related to the transfer of information (computers, digital electronics, telecommunications) bioclimatology: the study of how climate affects living things geopolitics: the study of the way geographical factors help to explain the basis of the power of nation states nuclear engineering: the study of the way nuclear power can be made useful cryogenics: the study of physical systems at temperatures less than 183°C astrophysics: the application of physical laws and theories to stars and galaxies voice technology: technology which enables machines to interpret speech

Here are some of the modern inventions which we are now becoming quite used to.

The verbs in the sentences below are all useful in scientific contexts.

He experimented with a number of different materials before finding the right one.

The technician pressed a button and lights started flashing.

When she pulled a lever, the wheel began to rotate.

The zoologist dissected the animal.

When they were combined, the two chemicals reacted violently with each other.

After analysing the problem, the physicist concluded that there was a flaw in his initial hypothesis.

James Watt invented the steam engine and Alexander Fleming, another Scot, discovered penicillin.

After switching on the computer, insert a floppy disk into the disk drive.

You must patent your invention as quickly as possible.

See Unit 58 for words relating to Computers and the Internet.

57.2 Below you have some of the amazing achievements of modern technology. Match the names on the left with the definitions on the right.

1. video recorder
2. photocopier
3. fax machine
4. tape recorder
5. modem
6. camcorder
7. word processor
8. food processor

- 1 video recorder: a kind of sophisticated typewriter using a computer
- 2 photocopier: a machine which records and plays back sound
- 3 fax machine: a machine which records and plays back sound and pictures
- 4 tape recorder: a camera which records moving pictures and sound
- 5 modem: a machine for chopping up, slicing, mashing, blending, etc.
- 6 camcorder: a machine which makes copies of documents
- 7 word processor: a machine which makes copies of documents and sends them down telephone lines to another place
- 8 food processor: a piece of equipment allowing you to send information from one computer down telephone lines to another computer

57.3 Write descriptions like those in exercise 57.2, for the following objects.

57.4 What are the nouns connected with the following verbs?

57.5 Give each of the sciences in A opposite a number from 0 to 5 depending on whether it doesn't interest you at all (0) or interests you enormously (5). Similarly mark each of the inventions in B, 0 to 5, depending on how important they are to you in your life.

Follow-up: Increase your knowledge of scientific vocabulary by reading articles of general scientific interest in English language newspapers or magazines. If possible, get a textbook in English for schoolchildren studying a branch of science that you have studied. Choose a book where the science is relatively easy for you so that you can concentrate on the English used.
Computers and the Internet

Nowadays computers are everywhere. Even people who don’t own or operate computers are exposed to computer terminology. This unit explores some of the most common words and expressions associated with computers and the Internet.

Personal computers

Here are some words associated with personal computers.

- personal computer / PC / desktop computer: a computer that fits on a desk, used by individuals at work or at home
- laptop (computer): a lightweight portable computer that usually fits in a briefcase
- palmtop (computer): one small enough to fit in your hand
- hardware: computer equipment or machinery
- software: programs that you put into a computer to make it run
- floppy (disk) / diskette: a small plastic disk that stores (a limited amount of) information. A floppy can be inserted into a computer and taken out.
- hard disk: a device inside a computer that stores large amounts of information
- disk drive: an apparatus that allows information to be read from a disk or stored
- modem: a piece of equipment that sends information from one computer along telephone lines to another computer
- scanner: machine for transferring pictures and texts into a computer
- to download: to transfer data or software from a large computer to a smaller one
- RAM (random access memory) / memory: the memory available on a computer to store and use information temporarily, usually measured in megabytes

The press and the media

The term the mass media in English refers basically to TV, radio and newspapers: means of communication which reach very large numbers of people. This page looks at some useful words for talking about the mass media and about publishing in general.

Radio and television

Types of programmes: documentaries news broadcasts current affairs programmes soap operas [continuing stories about the lives of a set of characters] quizzes sitcoms [comedies centring around a set of characters in a particular situation] drama chat shows detective stories sports programmes weather forecasts music programmes game shows [where contestants compete for prizes] variety shows commercials [adverts]

A serial is a story that continues from one programme or episode to the next. A series is about the same characters or has the same format each week but each programme is complete in itself.

Films originally made in a different language may have sub-titles so you can read a translation of what the characters are saying or be dubbed, so you hear what they are saying in your own language.

Newspapers and publishing

Parts of the newspaper: headlines news reports editorial [an opinion article written by the editor] feature articles, e.g. about fashion or social trends horoscope cartoons crossword small ads business news sports reports scandal the letters page

A popular or tabloid newspaper focuses more on sensation than real news whereas a quality newspaper professes to be more interested in real news than in sensation. A tabloid usually has a smaller format than a quality paper, it has larger headlines and shorter stories and, in Britain, it prefers stories about film stars, violent crimes and the royal family. A journal is the name usually given to an academic magazine. A colour supplement is a magazine which comes out once a week (often on Sundays) as an addition to a newspaper. A comic is a magazine, usually for children or teenagers, with lots of picture stories and/or cartoons.

Make sure you know the verbs in these sentences.
The BBC World Service broadcasts throughout the world.
I can receive / pick up broadcasts from Moscow on my radio.
They’re showing a good film on TV tonight.
This book was published by CUP and it was printed in Cambridge.
The film was shot / made on location in Spain.
They cut/censored the film before showing it on TV.
This article/programme has been badly edited.

See Unit 99 for the language of newspaper headlines.

Politics and public institutions

Types of government republic: a state governed by representatives and, usually a president (e.g. USA, France) monarchy: a state ruled by a king or queen (e.g. UK, Sweden) federation: a union of political units (e.g. provinces) under a central government (e.g. USA) democracy: government of, by and for the people dictatorship: system of government run by a dictator independence: freedom from outside control; self-governing

Presidential and parliamentary government (US and UK)

United States
Presidential government: The powers of the President and the legislature (Congress) are separate. These branches of government are elected separately.
The President is elected for a four-year term and can appoint or nominate high officials in government, including cabinet members (who advise) and federal judges. The President leads a major party, usually, but not always, the majority party in Congress.
Congress consists of two houses, the House of Representatives and the Senate.
Congressmen or women and Senators are elected for fixed terms.
The judiciary is a separate branch. The Supreme Court, the highest court, can overrule the President and Congress.

United Kingdom
Parliamentary government: The government consists of a legislature (Parliament) and a Cabinet of Ministers from the majority party in Parliament.
The Prime Minister is the head of the government and the leader of the majority party in the House of Commons, holding office while the party holds a majority. The Prime Minister selects high officials and heads the Cabinet.
Parliament consists of two chambers, the House of Commons and the House of Lords. MPs are members of parliament elected from each constituency [geographical area] in the House of Commons.
The judiciary is independent but it cannot overrule the Prime Minister or Parliament. The Highest Court consists of a group of Lords.

Parliamentary elections
During a general election each constituency has to choose which politician it wants as its representative. Usually there are several candidates to choose from. These candidates are all standing (or running) for Parliament. They present the policies that they represent. On polling day each citizen goes to the polling station and casts a vote by marking a cross on their ballot paper. The candidate who gets the majority of votes wins the seat. If the vote is very close, the constituency may be referred to as a marginal seat. If an MP dies in office, then there has to be a by(e)-election to replace him or her. The public can also occasionally vote in a referendum – a direct vote by the people on an important public issue.

TIP
Probably the most useful political words for you will be the ones that relate to your own country. Highlight the words on this page that could be used about your country's political system.
Exercises

60.1 Choose the correct word from the choices offered.

7. What are the main political issues in that country and what are the policies of the different parties on those issues?
8. What do these political abbreviations stand for – MP, PM, UN, EU, NATO, OPEC?

60.5 Using the words on the left-hand page, write a paragraph about the political system in your country.

Follow-up: Find a newspaper article in English relating to a political issue that interests you. Note down any further useful vocabulary in it.

You will find words about types of political belief in Unit 63.
Crime

Note the difference between the verbs: steal and rob. The object of the verb 'steal' is the thing which is taken away, e.g. they stole my bike, whereas the object of the verb 'rob' is the person or place from which things are stolen, e.g. I was robbed last night. A masked man robbed the bank. 'Steal' is irregular; steal, stole, stolen.

The table below gives the names of some other types of crimes together with their associated verbs and the name of the person who commits the crimes.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

All the verbs in the table above are regular.

Here are some more useful verbs connected with crime and law. Note that many of them have particular prepositions associated with them.

Bill committed a crime when he robbed a bank. Someone witnessed the crime and told the police. The police charged him with bank robbery. They also accused his twin brother, Ben, of being his accomplice.

The case came to court and they were tried. The trial did not last very long. Bill and Ben both pleaded not guilty in court. Their lawyer did her best to defend them but the prosecuting lawyer produced a very strong case against them.

After brief deliberations, the jury passed verdict on them. They decided that Bill was guilty but Ben was innocent. The judge acquitted Ben of any involvement in the robbery but sentenced Bill to three years in prison. He also had to pay a large fine. Bill served two years in prison [jail] but was released from prison a year early. He got time off for good behaviour.

Here are some useful nouns.

trial: the legal process in court whereby an accused person is investigated, or tried, and then found guilty or not guilty case: a crime that is being investigated evidence: information used in a court of law to decide whether the accused is guilty or not proof: evidence that shows conclusively whether something is a fact or not judge: the person who leads a trial and decides on the sentence i.e. the punishment jury: group of twelve citizens who decide on the verdict i.e. whether the accused is guilty or not 61.5 Look at all the crimes named in this unit. Look both at the left-hand page and at exercises 61.2 and 61.4. Which do you think are the three most serious and the three least serious?

61.6 Write a paragraph to fit this newspaper headline. Give some details about the crime and the court case, using as many words from this unit as is appropriate.

Local girl’s evidence gets mugger two years prison

Follow-up: If possible look at an English language newspaper. List all the words connected with crime and the law which you can find in it.
Money – buying, selling and paying

Personal finance

Sometimes in a shop they ask you: ‘How do you want to pay?’
You can answer: ‘Cash. / By cheque. / By credit card.’

In a bank you usually have a current account, which is one where you pay in your salary and then withdraw money to pay your everyday bills. The bank sends you a regular bank statement telling you how much money has gone in and out of your account. You may also have a savings account where you deposit any extra money that you have and only take money out when you want to spend it on something special. If you spend more than you have in your account you can have an overdraft. The bank allows you to spend more and charges you interest. If your account is overdrawn [you have taken more out of your account than you had in it] you are in the red (as opposed to in the black or in credit).

Sometimes the bank may lend you money – this is called a bank loan. If the bank [or building society] lends you money to buy a house, that money is called a mortgage.

When you buy [or purchase more formally] something in a shop, you usually pay for it outright but sometimes you buy on credit. Sometimes you may be offered a discount or a reduction on something you buy. For example, you might get £10 off perhaps because you are a student. You are often offered a discount if you buy in bulk. It is not usual to haggle about prices in a British shop, as it is in, say, a Turkish market. If you want to return something which you have bought to a shop, you may be given a refund, i.e. your money will be returned, provided you have a receipt.

The money that you pay for services, e.g. to a school or a lawyer, is usually called a fee or fees; the money paid for a journey is a fare. If you buy something that you feel was very good value, it’s a bargain. If you feel that it is definitely not worth what you paid for it, then you can call it a rip-off [very colloquial].

Public finance

The government collects money from citizens through taxes. Income tax is the tax collected on wages and salaries. Inheritance tax is collected on what people inherit from others. Customs or excise duties have to be paid on goods imported from other countries. VAT or value added tax is a tax paid on most goods and services when they are bought and purchased. Companies pay corporation tax on their profits. If you pay too much tax, you should be given some money back, a tax rebate.

The government also sometimes pays out money to people in need, e.g. unemployment benefit [also known as the dole, informal] disability allowances and student loans [money lent to help pay for studying]. Recipients draw a pension / unemployment benefit or are on the dole or on social security.

Every country has its own special currency. Every day the rates of exchange are published and you can discover, for example, how many dollars there are currently to the pound sterling.

A company may sell shares to members of the public who are then said to have invested in that company. They should be paid a regular dividend on their investment, depending on the profit or loss made by the company.
Exercises

62.1 Answer the following money quiz.
1 What currencies are used in Japan, Australia, India and Russia?
2 What does the expression ‘hard currency’ mean?
3 Give two examples of imports that most countries impose customs duties on.

| Rate of inflation .......... | Basic level of income tax .......... |
| Exchange rate (against the US dollar) .......... | Rate of VAT .......... |
| Interest rate .......... | Monthly state pension .......... |

62.6 Draw two bubble networks (see Units 2 and 3 for examples with CAT and TRAVEL).
At the centre of one bubble network put PAYING MONEY and at the centre of the other put GETTING MONEY. Include as many words as possible from this unit.

Follow-up: To improve your financial vocabulary, read articles on business in any English magazine or newspaper. Write down any new words or expressions that you come across.
Belief and opinion

Verbs connected with beliefs and opinions
You probably already know think and believe; here are more:
I'm convinced we've met before. [very strong feeling that you're right]
I've always held that compulsory education is a waste of time. [formal; used for very firm beliefs; maintain could be used here]
She maintains that we're related, but I'm not convinced. [formal; insist on believing, often against the evidence; hold could not be used here]

In my view / In my opinion, we haven't made any progress. [fairly formal]
She's made a big mistake, to my mind. [fairly informal]
If you ask me, he ought to change his job. [informal]

Note how point of view is used in English:
From a teacher's point of view, the new examinations are a disaster. [how teachers see things, or are affected]

Prepositions used with belief and opinion words
Do you believe in life after death? What are your views on divorce?
What do you think of the new boss?
Are you for or against long prison sentences? [neutral/informal]
I'm in favour of (opposite: opposed to) long prison sentences. [formal]
I have my doubts about this plan.

Beliefs, ideologies, philosophies, convictions
If you would rather organise this word tree differently or can add more examples, do so; it will probably help you to remember the words better.

Beliefs
  - ideologies
    - left-/right-wing
      - socialist
      - conservative
    - intellectual
    - personal
      - Darwinist
      - vegetarian
      - Muslim
      - pacifist
  - philosophies
    - religious
    - morals
  - convictions

Some adjectives for describing people's beliefs and views, in pairs of similar, but not exactly the same, meaning:
fanatical/obsessive eccentric/odd conservative/traditional middle-of-the-road/moderate dedicated/committed firm/strong 63.1 Draw lines connecting the left and right, as in the example, adding an appropriate preposition.

1 I have strong views on my opinion.
2 Most people believe in the proposed changes.
3 I was in favour of marriage.
4 What does she think of my mind.
5 This is absurd, or life after death.
6 He's quite wrong, or the new teacher?
7 Well, that's just silly, or our point of view.

63.2 Use adjectives from E opposite which fit the phrases describing the beliefs and views of these people, as in the example.

1 A person who insists that the earth is flat. (an ...belief)
2 A person who believes absolutely in the power of love to solve world problems. (a .................believer in the power of love)
3 A socialist neither on the left or the right of the party. (a .................socialist)
4 A vegetarian who refuses even to be in the same room as people who love meat. (a(1) .................vegetarian)
5 Someone who is always suspicious of change. (a rather .................view of the world)

63.3 Rewrite these sentences using the verbs in brackets.

1 I've always suspected that ghosts don't really exist. (doubt)
2 My view has always been that people should rely on themselves more. (hold)
3 Claudia is convinced that the teacher has been unfair to her. (maintain)
4 I had a very strong feeling that I had been in that room before. (convince)
5 In his view, we should have tried again. (feel)

Pleasant and unpleasant feelings

Happiness and unhappiness

You feel:
ecstatic when you experience an intense and overpowering feeling of delight.
content(ed) when you are satisfied with what you have. Notice that content is not used before a noun. You can say ‘She is content’ or ‘She is contented’ but only ‘a contented person’.
cheerful when life is looking bright and positive.
grateful when someone has done something thoughtful for you.
delighted when something has happened that gives you great pleasure, when you hear news of someone’s good fortune, for instance.
miserable when everything seems wrong in your life.
discontented when your life is not giving you satisfaction.
fed-up / sick and tired when you have had enough of something disagreeable. You could be fed-up with someone’s rudeness, or sick (and tired) of someone’s behaviour.
depressed when you are miserable over a long period of time. Depression is considered a illness in some severe cases.
frustrated when you are unable to do something that you want to do.
confused / mixed up when you cannot make sense of different conflicting feelings or idea mixed up is more colloquial.

Excitement, anger and anxiety

You feel:
excited when you are expecting something special to happen, e.g. before a party.
inspired when you are stimulated to create deeds or words. You might feel inspired by a really talented musician to learn how to play a musical instrument.
enthusiastic when you have very positive feelings about something, enthusiastic about, e.g. a new project.
thrilled (informal) when something extremely exciting and pleasing happens. She was thrilled when the film star kissed her.
cross (informal) when you are angry or bad-tempered. It is often, though not exclusively, used about small children. Stop getting so cross with me.
furious/livid/seething with someone about something when you are extremely angry; livid and seething are more informal; in a rage/fury also mean furious or violently angry.
anxious when you are afraid and uncertain about the future. I am so anxious about the results of my exams that I can’t sleep.
nervous when you are afraid or anxious about something that is about to or may be about to happen. I feel nervous about going to the dentist. Feeling nervous is a little bit like feeling excited but it is a negative feeling whereas excitement is positive.
apprehensive about, e.g. an important meeting; when you are slightly nervous or anxious about something in the future.
worried about, e.g. an operation; when anxious thoughts constantly go through your head upset about, e.g. a quarrel; when something unpleasant has happened to disturb you.
It often combines feelings of both sadness and anger.

TIP: Really can be used with all the adjectives on this page. Absolutely goes only with the words describing extreme states i.e. ecstatic, delighted, fed-up, sick and tired, thrilled, furious, livid and seething. With these words quite means absolutely but with the other less extreme words, quite means rather.

EXAMPLE anxious I felt anxious until we heard the results of my mother’s medical tests.

1. apprehensive  3. in a rage  5. inspired
2. grateful  4. miserable  6. enthusiastic

64.4 The words opposite that end in -ed (apart from (dis)contented, delighted and mixed up) also have -ing forms e.g. depressing and exciting. Add the correct ending -ed or -ing.

EXAMPLE She was thrilled by her present.

1. I found the film very excit.............
2. The poet was inspir............. by the sunset.
3. This weather is terribly depress.............
4. It’s very frustrat............. when the phones don’t work.
5. She was confus............. by his ambiguous remarks.

64.5 You, of course, know the basic expressions: ‘I’m hungry/thirsty/hot/cold/tired/cross’.

Colloquially, we often say the same things using a much stronger expression. What do you think people mean when they say:

1. I’m boiling
2. I’m dying for a drink
3. I’m seething
4. I’m freezing
5. I’m starving
6. I’m worn out
Like, dislike and desire

Words and expressions relating to liking

Dear Anna,

It was great to hear from you after so many years. Fancy you already being married with a baby! I'm not married but I do have a boyfriend called Tom, I must tell you about him. We've known each other for three years. I quite liked Tom when we first met. However, although lots of my friends said they found him attractive, I didn't fancy him at all. He invited me out and I admit that I was more tempted by his sports car than by him at first. However, I really enjoyed spending time with him. He fascinated me with his stories of his travels around the world and something mysterious about this past also attracted me. Moreover, we were both very keen on sailing. Soon I realised I had fallen in love with him. His sense of humour really appealed to me and I was also captivated by his smiling eyes. Now, three years later I absolutely adore him and I can't understand why I didn't fall for him the moment we first set eyes on each other. He's a very caring person, fond of animals and small children. He's always affectionate and loving towards me and passionate both about me and about the causes he believes in and the people he cares for. I hope we'll always worship each other as much and be as devoted to our life together as we are now. Do write again soon and tell me all about how you are!

Love Jude

Words and expressions relating to disliking

Loathe, detest, despise, hate, cannot stand and cannot bear are all stronger ways of saying dislike and they are all followed by a noun or an -ing form.

I loathe / detest / despise / hate / cannot stand / cannot bear bad-mannered people.

Repel, revolt, appal and disgust are all strong words used to describe the effect which something detested has on the person affected. His paintings disgust me. I was revolted by the way he spoke. We were appalled by the conditions in the refugee camp. His behaviour repels everyone.

Words and expressions relating to desiring

Desire is used either as a formal verb to express a sexual wish for someone or else it is quite a formal word for wish. He desired her the moment he saw her.

I have a strong desire to see the Himalayas before I die.

Look forward to means think about something in the future with pleasant anticipation. The opposite of look forward to is dread.

I am looking forward to going to Fiji but I'm dreading the flight.

Long for means to wish for something very much. After this long, cold winter, I'm longing for spring.

Yearn for is a more poetic way of saying long for. He will never stop yearning for his country although he knows he can never return.

Ways of addressing loved ones dearest  sweetheart  darling  love  dear  pet

Pet is used mainly to children. Note that the last three words in the list are not confined to use with people who are really loved. It is not uncommon for a London bus conductor, for example, to address any girl or woman as 'love'. (His Glasgow equivalent calls his female passengers 'hen'.) It's best for you, however, to keep such words for people you have a close relationship with!

To give an idea of the way someone speaks and their feelings, you can use a speaking verb, plus an adverb. For example, ‘He said proudly. She spoke angrily’. This is most common in written style. Some useful adverbs describing the way someone is feeling while they are speaking.

If someone feels angry: crossly furiously bitterly (about something in the past)
If someone feels unhappy: unhappily gloomily miserably uneasily sadly
If someone feels happy: happily cheerfully gladly hopefully eagerly
If someone feels worried: anxiously nervously desperately hopelessly

Other useful adverbs are boldly, excitedly, gratefully, impatiently, passionately, reluctantly, shyly, sincerely.
Exercises

66.1 Choose the verb which best fits the meaning of the sentences.

EXAMPLE ‘I love you,’ he murmured.

1 ‘It was me who broke the vase,’ he .....................
2 ‘I am the cleverest person in the class,’ the little boy .....................
3 ‘Look, there’s a mouse over there!’ he .....................
4 ‘I’ll stop your pocket money if you don’t behave,’ she .....................
5 ‘I-d-d-did it,’ he .....................
6 ‘Please, please, help me,’ he .....................
7 ‘This hotel is filthy,’ she .....................
8 ‘Go on, Jim, try harder,’ he .....................

66.2 Change the sentences above into reported speech using the same verbs.

EXAMPLE He murmured that he loved her.

66.3 Add the appropriate adjectives and nouns to the table below.

66.4 The answers to the following questions are all words which are from the same root as the verbs on the page opposite. Use a dictionary if necessary.

EXAMPLE How do you describe a person who boasts a lot? boastful

What do you call:

1 what you make when you threaten?  3 what you make when you object?
2 what you make when you complain?  4 a person who begs for money on the streets?

How do you describe:

5 someone who insists a lot?  6 someone who argues a lot?

66.5 Look at the verbs in the table in B and answer the following quiz.

1 Which verbs could replace ask in the sentence ‘She asked me to dance with her’, without changing the grammar of the sentence?
2 Which prepositions usually follow a) object  b) insist  c) complain?
3 Which verb could grammatically replace promise in ‘He promised to do it’?
4 Which of the verbs can be followed by ‘that’ and a clause?
5 Find a synonym for each of the six verbs in the fourth column of the table.

66.6 Write a sentence to match each of the eight adverbs listed at the end of C.

EXAMPLE Excitedly. ‘Let’s go at once,’ she said excitedly.
The six senses

The five senses are sight, hearing, taste, touch and smell. What is sometimes referred to as a ‘sixth sense’ (or extrasensory perception) is a power to be aware of things independently of the five physical senses, a kind of supernatural sense. The five verbs referring to the senses are modified by an adjective rather than an adverb.

He looks dreadful. The trip sounds marvellous. The cake tastes good. It felt strange. The soup smelt delicious.

Sight

Yesterday I glanced out of the window and noticed a man observing a house opposite through a telescope. I thought I glimpsed a woman inside the house. Then I saw someone else peering into the window of the same house. I gazed at them wondering what they were doing. Suddenly the first man stopped staring through his telescope. He went and hit the other one on the head with the telescope and I realised that I had witnessed a crime.

Hearing

Scale of loudness noiseless → silent → quiet → noisy → loud → deafening

Taste

sweet (honey) salty (crisps) bitter (strong coffee) sour (vinegar) spicy (Indian food)

If you say something tastes hot it may mean spicy rather than not cold. Food can be tasty, but tasteful refers to furnishings, architecture or a style of dressing or behaviour. The opposite of both is tasteless.

Touch

She nervously fingered her collar. He stroked the cat and patted the dog. She tapped him on the shoulder. He grasped my hand and we ran. She grabbed her briefcase and ran to the bus stop. The thief snatched her handbag and disappeared into the crowd. Press the button. Please handle the goods with great care.

Smell

Here are some adjectives to describe smells:

stinking evil-smelling putrid aromatic pungent musty fragrant sweet-smelling perfumed/scented

Sixth sense

Different phenomena which a person with sixth sense may experience:

telepathy [experiencing someone else’s feelings even though you are apart] premonition [knowing something is going to happen before it occurs] intuition [instinctive understanding] déjà vu [an inexplicable feeling that you have already been somewhere or experienced something]
Exercises

67.1 Make a sentence about the situations using any of these verbs plus an adjective, look, sound, taste, touch and smell.

EXAMPLE You see a film about the Rocky Mountains. They look magnificent.
1 You come downstairs in the morning and smell fresh coffee.
2 A friend has just had her hair cut.
3 You hear the song that is top of the pops.
4 A friend, an excellent cook, tries a new soup recipe.
5 A friend asks how you feel today.
6 A little boy asks you to listen to his first attempts at the piano.
7 You see a friend of yours with a very worried look on her face.
8 Someone you are working with smells strongly of cigarettes.

67.2 Which of the verbs in the text in B suggests looking in the following ways:
1 as a crime or accident occurs? 4 quickly?
2 closely, finding it hard to make 5 fixedly?
   things out?
3 in a scientific kind of way?
   6 at something but getting only a brief view?

67.3 Write sentences using each of the nine verbs in bold in B in ways that illustrate their specific meanings as clearly as possible.

67.4 Replace the underlined words with more precise verbs from the opposite page.
1 I touched the dog a number of times. 5 The lecturer touched his notes nervously.
2 He knocked lightly on the door. 6 He touched the cat affectionately.
3 She took my hand firmly. 7 The robber took the money and ran.
4 Touch the button to start. 8 She picked up, carried and put down the boxes carefully.

67.5 Are the following best described as sweet, salty, bitter, sour, spicy or hot?
1 strong, unsweetened coffee 3 chilli powder 5 Indian cooking
2 chocolate cake 4 lime 6 sea water

67.6 Which of the adjectives in F best describes for you the smell of the following?
1 herbs in a kitchen 5 a room filled with cigar smoke
2 old socks 6 a beauty salon
3 rotten eggs 7 an attic used for storage
4 roses 8 a skunk

67.7 Which of the phenomena mentioned in G have you experienced if you:
1 suddenly think of someone two minutes before they phone you?
2 feel certain someone cannot be trusted although you have no real reason to believe so?
3 walk into a strange room and feel you have been there before?
4 refuse to travel on a plane because you feel something bad is going to happen?

67.8 Write a sentence about a memorable experience each of your six senses has had.
What your body does

NOTE
All the verbs on this page (except shake and bite) are regular verbs; almost all the words have an identical noun form: to yawn /a yawn, to cough /a cough/ /knf/ etc. (except to breathe /brθ/ and to perspire; their nouns are breath /breθ/ and perspiration).

Verbs connected with the mouth and breathing breathe: A nurse gave the old man artificial respiration and he started breathing again.
yawn: If one person yawns everyone else seems to start too.
cough: It was so smoky in the room that he couldn’t stop coughing.
sneeze: Dust often makes me sneeze.
sigh: She sighed with relief when she heard the plane had landed safely.
hiccough /hɪkəp/: Holding your breath and swallowing can help you stop hiccoughing.
snore: She snored all night with her mouth wide open.

Verbs connected with eating and digestion burp: He patted the baby’s back to make it burp after its feed.
chew: My granny used to say you should chew every mouthful ten times.
rumble: It’s embarrassing if your stomach rumbles during an interview.
swallow: Take a drink of water to help you swallow the pills.
suck: Sometimes in an aeroplane, you are given a sweet to suck – it can stop your ears popping!
lick: The cat licked the bowl clean.
bite: Don’t bite that hard sweet – you’ll hurt your teeth.

Verbs connected with the eyes and face blink: She blinked several times to try and get the dust out of her eye.
wink: He winked at me across the room to try to make me laugh.
frown: Why are you frowning? What’s the problem?
grin: She was so delighted with the present that she grinned from ear to ear.
blush: He blushed with embarrassment when she smiled at him.

Verbs connected with the whole body perspire/sweat /swet/: When it’s hot you sweat/perspire. [perspire is more formal] tremble: My hands tremble when I’ve been drinking too much coffee.
shiver: Look at him! He’s so cold that he’s shivering!
shake: She laughed so much that her whole body shook.
Exercises

68.1 Find the word to match the definitions below.

EXAMPLE  draw the eyebrows together to express displeasure or puzzlement

1 go pink from embarrassment

3 what you need to do to a stamp
4 try to do this quickly with pills
5 smile broadly
6 James Bond liked to have his drinks ...................... not stirred.

68.5 Organise the words on the opposite page into one or more bubble networks (see Units 2 and 3 for examples of bubble networks). Add any other words that you wish to the networks.
Number, quantity, degree and intensity

Number and quantity

Number is used for countable nouns (e.g. a large number of students), amount for uncountable nouns (e.g. a large amount of money).

Scale of adjectives useful for expressing number and quantity:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>tiny</th>
<th>small</th>
<th>average</th>
<th>large/considerable</th>
<th>gigantic</th>
<th>enormous/huge/vast</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Add just a tiny amount of chilli pepper, or else it may get too hot.
A considerable number of people failed to get tickets. [formal]
Vast/huge amounts of money have been wasted on this project.
Were there many people at the airport? Oh, about average, I'd say. [fairly informal]

Much/many, a lot, lots, plenty, a good/great deal

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>example</th>
<th>comments</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Is there much work to do? No, not much.</td>
<td>mostly used in questions and negatives with uncountable nouns</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>There are lots of nice shops in this street.</td>
<td>mostly for affirimators; has a rather positive feeling; informal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Don’t worry, there’s plenty of time.</td>
<td>mostly for affirimators; used in positive contexts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You were making a lot of noise last night.</td>
<td>used in all structures; neutral, better than lots in negative contexts</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>There’s a great deal of hard work still to do.</td>
<td>+ uncountables, more formal</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Much criticism has been levelled at the government’s policy.
Many people are afraid of investing in stocks and shares.

Informal and colloquial words for number/quantity

I’ve got dozens of nails in my tool box. Why buy more? [especially good for countables]
There’s heaps/bags/loads of time yet, slow down! [countable or uncountable and informal; usually with singular there is, not there are]
There was absolutely tons of food at the party; far too much. [especially good for things, not so good for abstract nouns; again, note singular there is]
There are tons of apples on this tree this year; last year there were hardly any, [note how the verb here is plural because of ‘apples’, but singular in the example before with ‘food’ - number depends on the noun following, not on tons/lotloads]
Just a drop of wine for me, please. [tiny amount of any liquid.]

Degree and intensity

Typical collocations of adverbs: a bit/quite/rather/fairly/very/really/awfully/extremely combine with ‘scale’ adjectives such as tired, worried, weak, hot.
Totally/absolutely/completely/utterly combine with ‘limit’ adjectives (not measured or scale; they are ‘all or nothing’ words) such as ruined, exhausted, destroyed, wrong.
Exercises

69.1 Write responses to these statements using words from A opposite.

EXAMPLE The Government will only give us a grant of £20. But that’s a tiny sum of money. How mean!
1 £5 billion was wasted on developing the new rocket.
2 Over 50 people came to Sally’s lecture yesterday. We were pleasantly surprised.
3 We have 120 students most years, and we’ll probably have about that this year, too. Is that typical?
4 There was only five pounds in my purse when it was stolen.
5 We’ve wasted over 100 hours in meetings and got nowhere.

69.2 Here are some more adjectives which can combine with amount. Divide them into two groups, small and large and fill in the bubbles. Use a dictionary if necessary.

minuscule /ˈmaɪnɪskjuːl/ gigantic overwhelming minute /ˈmaɪnɪdʒt/ meagre excessive insignificant sizeable

Now try using them to fill in the gaps below. More than one answer may be possible.

1 Even a .................. amount of sand can jam a camera.
2 I’ve had an absolutely .................. amount of work lately. I’m exhausted!
3 Oh, you’ve given me a .................. amount of food here! I mustn’t eat too much.
4 It takes a .................. amount of money to start a business.
5 An .................. amount of fat in your diet is dangerous.

69.3 Fill in the gaps with much/many, a lot/lots of, plenty of, a good/great deal of.

1 There’s .................. dust on these books. Fetch me a duster.
2 Please eat up; there’s .................. food.
3 There wasn’t .................. we could do, so we went home.
4 We’ve put .................. energy into this plan. I hope it works.
5 .................. people seem unable to cope with computers.

69.4 Using intensifiers from C opposite, say how you might feel if the following happened.

1 You heard that a friend was in trouble with the police.
2 A close friend coming to stay did not turn up, and sent no message to say why.
3 Three people gave you different directions to get to the same place.
4 You passed an exam you expected to fail.
5 Your best friend was going abroad for two years.
6 You had been working non-stop for 18 hours.

69.5 Make four sentences of your own using the informal words from B opposite. Write about yourself / where you live, etc.
Time

Periods of time – words and typical contexts the Ice Age  the Stone Age  the Middle Ages  the computer age [major historical/geological periods]

After the war, a new era of stability began. [long period, perhaps several decades]
The doctor said I needed a period of rest and relaxation, so I’m taking three months’ unpaid leave. [very general word]
A spell of hot weather. He’s had a couple of spells in hospital in the last two or three years. [indefinite but short]
During the 1980s I lived in Cork for a time. [vague, indefinite]
D’you want to borrow this book for a while? [indefinite but not too long]

Useful phrases with time
The doctor says you should stay in bed for the time being. [not specific]
He can get a bit bad-tempered at times.
By the time we get home
this pizza will be cold!

I’ve told you time and time again not to ring me at the office!

Verbs associated with time passing 1980 → 1990  Ten years have passed/elapsed since I last heard from her.
Elapse is more formal and is normally used in the perfect or past, without adverbs. Pass can be used in any tense and with adverbs.
Don’t worry. The time will pass quickly. Time passes very slowly when you’re lonely.

London  →  Singapore  It takes 12 hours to fly to Singapore.
The batteries in this radio usually last about three or four months.
This video tape lasts/runs for three hours.
The meeting went on for two hours.
[suggests longer than expected or desired]

Note also: Take your time, you don’t need to hurry.

Adjectives describing duration (how long something lasts)
He’s a temporary lecturer; the permanent one’s on leave.
Could we make a provisional booking now and confirm it later?
Venice has a timeless beauty.  Christians believe in eternal life after death.
Exercises

70.1 Fill the gaps with age, era, period, spell, or time.
1 The Minister said that before the new law came into force there would be a
........................ of six months when people could hand in firearms without being prosecuted.
2 The twentieth century will be seen by historians as the .................... of the car.
3 These factories mark the beginning of a new ..................... of industrial development for the country.
4 For a ....................... I thought I would never find a job, but then I was lucky.
5 We had a very cold ....................... in February. All the water pipes froze up.

70.2 Which phrases from B opposite could you use in the following situations? Write exactly what you might say.
EXAMPLE To a child who repeatedly leaves the fridge door open despite being told off often.
I’ve told you time and time again not to leave that fridge door open!
1 To someone you’re happy to see who arrives just as you are serving tea/coffee.
2 On a postcard you expect will arrive at someone’s house after you do.
3 A large group of people want to talk to you but you’d prefer to see them individually.
4 Ask someone to use an old photocopyer while the new one is being repaired.
5 Explain to someone that the weather occasionally gets very cold in your country.
6 Tell someone you’ll do your best to arrive punctually at a meeting.

70.3 Complete the sentences using verbs from C opposite.
1 The ferry crossing ...

4 Everyone got bored because the speeches ...
5 The disaster occurred in 1932. Many years ...
6 I’ll miss you terribly. I only hope the weeks ...
7 There’s no hurry at all, just ...

70.4 Match the queries with suitable responses.
1 So, she’s been promoted? Well, provisionally.
2 Is it a lovely, quiet landscape? Yes, she’s permanent now.
3 So she’s agreed to do it? It’s a temporary measure.
4 So, after death, life goes on? Yes, absolutely timeless.
5 Language classes in the gym? Yes, I believe it’s eternal.

Follow-up: Your country/culture may have names for important periods of its history (for example, British people often refer to the years 1840–1900 as the ‘Victorian era/period’ because the monarch at the time was Queen Victoria). Make sure you can name or describe (in English) such time periods from your culture.
Distances and dimensions

You probably know all the common words for distances and dimensions. In this unit we concentrate on derived words and compounds and other connected words/phrases you may not know or may be unsure of how to use accurately.

Broad and wide and tall and high

Wide is more common than broad, e.g. It's a very wide road/garden/room.

Make a note of typical collocations for broad as you meet them, e.g. Economics is a very broad subject; We came to a broad expanse of grassland. [big area]

Note the word order for dimensions, e.g. The room's five metres long and four wide.

Don't forget that tall is for people but can be used for things such as buildings and trees when they are high and thin in some way. Otherwise, use high for things.

She's very tall for a five-year-old. Her office is in that tall building in the square.

There are some high mountains in the North.

Deep ≠ shallow

The deep and shallow ends of a swimming pool.

Derived words, phrases and compounds long: Let's measure the length /lɛŋ/ of this rope.

I swam 20 lengths (of the swimming pool).

I've lengthened her skirt for her. [shorten, see below]

Getting a visa can be a lengthy process. [usually refers to time; rather negative]

Can I make a long-distance phone call?

short: The new road will shorten our journey by ten minutes.

There's a short cut to the station. [quick way] wide: Let's measure the width /ˈwɪdθ/ of the room.

They're widening the road.

broad: I want to broaden my experience. [usually more abstract contexts]

She's very broad-minded and tolerant of others.

high: The height /hæt/ of the wall is two metres.

The fog heightened the feeling of mystery. [usually used only for feelings and emotions] low: You can lower the microphone if it is too high.

far: He loves travelling to faraway places.

deep: The depth of the river here is about 3 metres.

His death so soon after hers deepened our sadness. [often with feelings]

Other verbs for dimensions and for changing them

Our garden stretches all the way to the river, so we have plenty of room to extend the house if we want to.

The cities are spreading [getting bigger] and the countryside is shrinking [getting smaller].

3  This sweater of mine has .......... in the wash!
4  Our land .......... as far as those trees there.
5  Our problems have .......... since that new boss came.
Obligation, need, possibility and probability

Obligation

Must is an instruction or command; that is why we see it on notices, e.g. Dogs must be kept on a lead. Cars must not be parked here. It is sometimes used to show urgency, e.g. It’s an emergency; I must see the doctor right now!

Have (got) to says that circumstances oblige you to do something. Often, the meanings of must and have to overlap and either could be used, but not always.

I must get my hair cut! It looks awful! [command to yourself]
There’s no bus service, so I have to walk to work. [circumstances]
I’ve got to get my hair cut. I’ve got an interview tomorrow. [circumstances]
I really must get a bicycle. [instruction to yourself]

The company is obliged to give a refund if the tour is cancelled.
You will be liable /ˈlaɪəbl/ for any damage when you rent a car. [obliged to pay; formal/legalistic]
The bank robbers forced him at gunpoint to open the safe.
We had no choice/alternative but to sell our house; we owed the bank £100,000.
The death sentence is mandatory /ˈmændətrɪ/ for drug-smuggling in some countries. [automatic; there is no alternative]
Was sport compulsory /ˈkæmpɔlsərɪ/ obligatory /ˈɒblɪgərɪ/ at your school? No, it was optional. /ˈɔptɪʃənl/ you can choose
I am exempt /ɪɡˈzɛmpt/ from tax as I’m a student. [free from obligation]

The negative of must and have (got) to are formed with need and have to, when we mean something is not necessary/not obligatory.

You don’t need to / don’t have to / needn’t wash up; we’ve got a dishwasher.

Need

The grass needs cutting (badly).[or ‘wants cutting’, informal]
This plant is in need of water. [more formal than ‘needs/wants’]
The miners died through a lack of oxygen. [formal; there was none]
There is a shortage of doctors. [there are not enough]
There’s a need for more discussion on the matter. [formal; we feel a need]

Scale of probability: ‘cannot happen’ to ‘has to happen’

impossible → unlikely → possible → probable → certain → inevitable

I’ve been given an opportunity to go to Bonn. [a real chance] but, Is there any chance/possibility you’ll be free next week? [chance is less formal than possibility]
Exercises

72.1 Continue the sentences using obligation words and phrases from A opposite with the words in brackets.
   1 They were losing £10 million a year, so the company ... (close down)
   2 You don’t have to buy the travel insurance; it’s an ... (extra charge)
   3 You can hire a video camera, but you ... (pay a deposit)
   4 We’ll have to sell the house, I’m afraid we have ... (otherwise, bankrupt)
   5 This jacket’s got curry stains on it; I really ... (the cleaners)
   6 He didn’t want to give them the money, but they had guns; they ... (hand it over)
   7 No, he couldn’t choose to pay a fine; a prison sentence is ... (for dangerous driving)
   8 I didn’t want to do maths, but I had to. It’s ... (in all secondary schools)
   9 How kind of you! You really ... (buy us a present)
   10 If you’re over 50, you’re ... (military service)

72.2 List something in your world which ...
   1 regularly needs cutting, my hair, the lawn  5 is inevitable.
   2 there is a lack of.  6 you no longer have to do.
   3 is obligatory once a year.  7 was compulsory when you
   4 you are in need of.  were at school.

72.3 Use a dictionary to try to fill in the rest of this matrix. One line has already been done for you. If you cannot find out the collocations at all, use the key to this unit.

\[
\begin{array}{cccc}
\text{possible} & \times & \checkmark & \checkmark \\
\text{impossible} & \checkmark & \checkmark & \checkmark \\
\text{probable} & \checkmark & \checkmark & \checkmark \\
\text{(un)likely} & \checkmark & \checkmark & \checkmark \\
\text{inevitable} & \checkmark & \checkmark & \checkmark \\
\text{certain} & \checkmark & \checkmark & \checkmark \\ \end{array}
\]

72.4 Use the collocations in 72.3 to say how probable/possible these are.
   1 Most people will have a videophone in their homes by 2025.
   2 There will be rain in the Amazon forest within the next 8 days.
   3 A human being will live to be 250.
   4 We will all be dead by the year 2250.
   5 A flying saucer will land in Hong Kong.
   6 You’ll be given an opportunity to meet the US President.
   7 There will be a third world war.

Follow-up: Look at an English language newspaper and see how many possibility/probability words you can find in the main news stories.
Sound and light

General words to describe sound

I could hear the sound of voices/music coming from the next room. [neutral]
The noise of the traffic here is pretty bad. [loud, unpleasant sounds]
The children are making a terrible racket upstairs. Could you go and tell them to be quiet?
[informal; very loud, unbearable noise, often of human activity]

Noise and sound can both be countable or uncountable. When they are of short duration or refer to different sounds/noises, they are countable. When they mean a lot of continual or continuous sounds, they are uncountable.
Their lawnmower makes a lot of noise, doesn’t it? [uncountable]
The sound of the sea is very relaxing. [uncountable]
I heard some strange noises/sounds in the night. [countable]

Sound words and things that typically make them

The words can be used as nouns or verbs:
I could hear the rain pattering on the roof. We heard the patter of a little child’s feet.

Possession, giving and lending

A Possession

All his possessions were destroyed in the terrible fire. [everything he owned] Don’t leave any of your belongings here; we’ve had a few thefts recently. [smaller things.
e.g. bag, camera, coat; always plural]

Estate in the singular can mean a big area of private land and the buildings on it, or all of someone’s wealth upon death.
She owns a huge estate in Scotland. [land, etc.]
After his death, his estate was calculated at £3 million. [all his wealth]

Property (uncountable) is used in a general sense for houses, land, etc.
He’s only fourteen; he’s too young to own property.
A property (countable) is a building (e.g. house, office-block) or land.
She owns some valuable properties in the town-centre.

Words for people connected with ownership

The proprietor of this restaurant is a friend of mine. [formal; used for shops, businesses etc.; owner is less formal]
The landlord/lady has put the rent up. [owner of rented property]
Do you own this house? No we’re just tenants. [we rent it]

C Giving

The river provides the village with water / provides water for the village. [or supplies]
Would you like to contribute/donate something to the children’s hospital fund?
Jakes Ltd. supplies our school with paper and other items. [often for ‘selling’ contexts]

That uncle of mine that died left £3,000 to a dogs’ home.
When she died she donated all her books to the library. [for large gifts to institutions]
You’ve been allocated Room 24. Here’s your key.

D Lending, etc.

We’ve decided to hire/rent a car. Can you recommend a good car-hire/car-rental firm?
[rent and hire are both commonly used]
We’d like to rent a flat in Oxford for six months. [not hire]
We’ve hired the lecture-room for a day. [not rent; short, temporary arrangements]

Remember: when you lend, you give, when you borrow, you receive.

That tape-recorder you lent me last week, could I borrow it again?
I’m trying to get a loan from the bank to buy a boat.
Exercises

74.1 What questions do you think were asked to get these answers?
1 Oh no, we own it. Most houses here are owner-occupied.
2 Well, sorry, no; I need it to take photos myself.
3 You will be in Room 44B. It's quite a big office.
4 No, you have to buy exercise books and pens yourself. The school doesn't do that.
5 Actually, I've already given something. Sorry.
6 Oh, just a small house with a garden, you know, typical.
7 Yes, the charge is £200 for one that seats 30 people.

74.2 The verbs in the middle column have been jumbled. Put them in their right sentences.
1 A millionaire provided his entire library to the school.
2 The Director was presented the best parking-place.
3 My mother's cousin donated me £5,000 in her will.
4 A farmer nearby catered us with logs for the fire.
5 When I retired they left me with a camcorder.
6 The restaurant allocated for vegetarians.

74.3 Some phrasal verbs connected with 'giving'. Check their meaning in a dictionary and then fill the gaps below.

  hand over    give out    let go of    give away    hand down

1 That bed has been ...................... in the family. It was my great-grandmother’s originally.
2 Would you help us ...................... some leaflets in the shopping-centre?

Recession came and he had to sell all his ......................(8) and ......................(9) – everything. He was left with just a few personal ......................(10) and finally died penniless.
Movement and speed

Move is the basic verb for all movement, but do not forget it also means ‘to move to a new house/flat’, e.g. We’ve moved. Do you want our new address?

A  Particular types of movement

Cars, lorries, etc. travel/drive along roads.
Trains travel along rails.
Boats/ships sail on rivers / across the sea.
Rivers/streams flow/run through towns/villages.

Things often have particular verbs associated with their types of movement. You should learn these as typical collocations as you meet them, and record them with a phrase or sentence.

White clouds drifted across the sky.
The flag fluttered in the wind.
The leaves stirred in the light breeze.
The trees swayed back and forth as the hurricane grew stronger.
The car swerved to avoid a dog which had run into the road.

B  Verbs to describe fast and slow movement

The traffic was crawling along because of the roadworks.

Stop dawdling!  We’ll be late!

Suddenly a car came round the bend and tore along the road at high speed. Seconds later, a police car shot past after it.
Everyone was hurrying/rushing to get their shopping done before closing time.
The train was just creeping/plodding along at about 20 miles per hour. I knew we’d be late.

C  Nouns to describe speed and their typical contexts speed is a general word: used for vehicles, developments, changes, etc., e.g. We were travelling at high speed.

rate is often used in statistical contexts; the rate of increase/decrease, e.g. The birth rate is going down.
pace shows how you experience something as happening fast or slow, e.g. The lesson was going at a very slow pace.
velocity is used in technical/scientific contexts, e.g. The velocity of a bullet.
Exercises

75.1 Write sentences which could come immediately before each of these sentences so that they make sense together.
1 It was moving so much I thought it would break altogether.
2 It sails at dawn.
3 It flows through the capital city.
4 I had to swerve hard and nearly ended up in the river.
5 It was travelling at 80 miles per hour when it happened.

75.2 What other things do you think could be described by each verb apart from the contexts given on the left-hand page. Use a dictionary if necessary.
1 sway: a tree, .................................................................................................................................
2 crawl: traffic, .................................................................................................................................
3 shoot: a car, .................................................................................................................................
4 flutter: a flag, ...............................................................................................................................
5 drift: a cloud, ...............................................................................................................................

75.3 Fill the gap with speed, rate, pace or velocity. Use the guidelines on the left-hand page to help you.
1 The ................. of decline in this species is alarming.
2 I just couldn’t stand the ................. of life in the city, so I moved to a small village.
3 The police scientist said the bullet had come from a high ................. rifle.
4 A: What ................. were you doing at the time?  B: Oh, about 60, I’d say.

75.4 Use a dictionary to make notes to help you learn the difference between these near-synonyms. Make notes under the headings usage and grammar, as in the example.

Your hair has a silky feel. This cotton is very smooth to the touch. The table had a beautiful polished surface. The ground was rough underfoot.

B  Brightness

shiny leather shoes

carnival costumes full of vivid colours a shady corner of the garden

a dazzling light

You wear such dull colours: why not get some brighter clothes? The light's too dim to read in here. We need another lamp. I wear sun-glasses when I drive because of the glare of the sun.

C  Density and weight

A solid ≠ hollow object. She has thick ≠ thin/fine hair. An area with dense ≠ sparse vegetation.

These boxes are rather weighty. [heavier than expected]

Your bag's as light as a feather! Have you brought enough?

Your bag's as heavy as lead! What's in it, bricks?

This suitcase is very bulky/cumbersome. [difficult, big and heavy]
Exercises

76.1 How would you expect the following things to feel?
1 The cover of a well-produced brochure.
2 The feathers in a pillow or duvet.
3 A wet bar of soap.
4 The branches of a rose-bush.
5 A gravel pathway.
6 The inside of a pair of sheepskin gloves.
7 The edge of a piece of broken, rusty metal.
8 Heavy, stone-ground wholemeal flour.
9 The surface of a mirror.
10 An old, dead log on the forest floor.

76.2 Look round your own home and find:
1 something sleek to the touch.
2 something rough underfoot.
3 something with a polished surface.
4 something furry.
5 something smooth.

- 1 A friend tells you her new baby weighed seven pounds at birth. Is this a huge, tiny or more or less average baby?
- 2 Someone tells you their cousin weighs 20 stone. What would you expect the cousin to look like?
- 3 You ask someone to get a piece of cheese at the market, enough for you personally this week. They ask if 8 ounces will do. What would you say?
- 4 Make a note (a private one if you wish!) of your approximate weight in British terms.

76.4 Quiz. Name the following.
1 A creature with a sleek coat.
2 A slippery creature.
3 A prickly creature.
4 A creature with a furry coat.
5 A creature with a downy coat.

76.5 Pair-puzzles. Each word has a letter in it that is part of a related word from the left-hand page. Fill in the letters, as in the example.

\[
\begin{array}{cccccc}
\text{P} & \text{D} & \text{S} & \text{O} & \text{A} \\
\text{O} & \text{SHADY} & \text{E} & \text{H} & \text{A} & \text{Z} \\

\end{array}
\]

Can you make pair-puzzles with cumbersome/bulky, lead/feather?
Success, failure and difficulty

Succeeding

We succeeded in persuading a lot of people to join our protest. [in + ing]
I managed to contact him just before he left his office.
I don’t think I can manage the whole walk. I think I’ll turn back. [manage, but not succeed, may have a direct object in this meaning]

We’ve achieved a great deal in the last year. [both are used with quantity phrases such as ‘a lot’ / ‘a little’; accomplish is rather formal.]
The company has achieved all its goals/aims/targets for this year. [achieve is more common than accomplish with nouns expressing goals and ambitions]

D’you think his plan will come off? [succeed; informal]

Failing and difficulty

Plans and projects sometimes go wrong or backfire. [don’t run out as intended]
Companies, clubs and societies often fold / go under through lack of success. [close down… go under is informal]

A plan or project may falter, even if it finally succeeds. [have ups and downs]
All your plans and hard work/efforts may come to nothing.
I have great difficulty in getting up in the morning. I find it difficult to remember the names of everybody in the class. [hard can also be used here; it is more informal]
It’s hard/difficult to hear what she’s saying.
I often have trouble starting the car on cold mornings. [more informal]
We’ve had a lot of bother with the neighbours lately. [very informal]
Can you cope with three more students? They’ve just arrived.
I’ve no money, my girl-friend’s left me; I need help; I just can’t cope any more.

Exercises

77.1 Choose a suitable verb to fill the gap. If the exact word in the sentence is not in the vertical column of the matrix on the opposite page, look for something that is close in meaning. More than one verb is often possible.

1 The management have ................ an agreement with the union which will guarantee no strikes for the next three years.
2 Now that I’ve ................ all my responsibilities to my family, I feel I can retire and go round the world.
3 The school building-fund has failed to ................ its target of £250,000.
4 I never thought I would ................ my ambition, but now I have.
5 Very few people ................ all their hopes and dreams in life, very few indeed, I can tell you.
6 We hope the two sides ................ a compromise and avoid war.
7 I’m hoping that little plan of mine didn’t ................ off.

77.2 Fill in the missing word forms where they exist.

77.3 Correct the mistakes in these sentences. The part which contains a mistake is underlined.

1 I find ___ very difficult to understand English idioms.
2 She succeeded to rise to the top in her profession.
3 Do you ever have any trouble to use this photocopier? I always seem to.
4 I’ve accomplished to work quite hard this last month.
5 I’m amazed that you can cope ___ all the work they give you.

77.4 What might happen if ... or What would you do if ...

1 a plan backfired? Abandon it. / Look for an alternative.
2 you were having a lot of bother with your car?
3 a club had only two members left out of fifty?
4 a student faltered in one exam out of six, but did well in all the rest?
5 you started a small business but it came to nothing?
6 you couldn’t cope with your English studies?

77.5 In what sorts of situations would you hear the following remarks? Check any new words/phrases if you are not sure.

1 We’ll have to get an au pair. I just can’t cope.
2 £5,000 and I’ve got nothing to show for it!
3 It collapsed, I’m afraid, and he’s bankrupt now.
4 Yes, she pulled it off despite the competition.
Idioms and fixed expressions – general

Idioms are fixed expressions with meanings that are usually not clear or obvious. For example, the expression to feel under the weather, which means ‘to feel unwell’ is a typical idiom. The words do not tell us what it means, but the context usually helps.

Tips for remembering idioms

Think of idioms as units, just like single words; always record the whole phrase in your notebook, along with information on grammar and collocation.

This tin-opener has seen better days. [it is rather old and broken down; usually of things. always perfect tense form]

Idioms are usually rather informal and include a personal comment on the situation. They are sometimes humorous or ironic. As with any informal words, be careful how you use them. Never use them just to sound ‘fluent’ or ‘good at English’. In a formal situation with a person you do not know, don’t say, ‘How do you do, Mrs Watson, Do take the weight off your feet.’ [sit down].

Instead say ‘Do sit down’ or ‘Have a seat’.

Idioms can be grouped in a variety of ways. Use whichever way you find most useful to help you remember them. Here are some possible types of grouping.

By grammar get the wrong end of the stick [misunderstand] pull a fast one [trick/deceive somebody] poke your nose in(to) [interfere] be over the moon [extremely happy/elated] feel down in the dumps [depressed/low] be in the red [have a negative bank balance]

By meaning  e.g. idioms describing people’s character/intellect

He’s as daft as a brush. [very stupid/silly]
He takes the biscuit.  [is the extreme / the worst of all]
You’re a pain in the neck. [a nuisance / difficult person]

By verb or other key word  e.g. idioms with make

Why do you have to make a meal out of everything? [exaggerate the importance of everything]
I think we should make a move. It’s gone ten o’clock. [go/leave]
Most politicians are on the make. I don’t trust any of them. [wanting money/power for oneself]

Grammar of idioms

It is important when using idioms to know just how flexible their grammar is. Some are more fixed than others. For instance, barking up the wrong tree [be mistaken] is always used in continuous, not simple form, e.g. I think you’re barking up the wrong tree.
(Not I think you bark up the wrong tree.)

A good dictionary may help, but it is best to observe the grammar in real examples.

Note how Units 82–87 group idioms in different ways.
Exercises

78.1 Complete the idioms in these sentences with one of the key words below, as in the example. If you are not sure, try looking up the key word in a good dictionary.

clanger shot ocean plate block handle pie

1 All the promises these politicians make! It’s just ...pie... in the sky. [big promises that will never materialise]
2 The small amount of money donated is just a drop in the ................. compared with the vast sum we need. [tiny contribution compared with what is needed]
3 You really dropped a ................. when you criticised the Americans last night; that man opposite you was from New York! [said something inappropriate/embarrassing]
4 I can’t do that job as well; I’ve got enough on my ................. as it is. [have more than enough work]
5 When I told her she just flew off the ................. and shouted at me. [lost her temper]
6 His father was a gambler too. He’s a real chip off the old ................. [just like one’s parents/grandparents]
7 I wasn’t really sure; I guessed it; it was just a ................. in the dark. [a wild guess]

78.2 Use a good dictionary or a dictionary of idioms to see if it can help you decide which version of these sentences is correct for the idiom concerned, as in the example. Check the meaning too, if you are not sure.

EXAMPLE You bark / are barking up the wrong tree if you think I did it. (see B opposite)

1 Holland is springing / springs to mind as the best place to go for a cycling holiday; it’s very flat.
2 That remark is flying / flies in the face of everything you’ve ever said before on the subject.
3 He was innocent after all. It just goes / is just going to show that you shouldn’t believe what you read in the papers.
4 You sit / are sitting pretty! Look at you, an easy job, a fantastic salary, a free car!
5 His attitude is leaving / leaves a lot to be desired. I do wish he would try to improve a little.

78.3 How would you organise these idioms into different groups? Use some of the ways suggested on the opposite page, plus any other ways you can think of.

be in a fix child’s play rough and ready be up to it hold your tongue be out of sorts hold your horses a fool’s errand odds and ends stay mum give or take

78.4 Without using a dictionary, guess the meaning of these idioms.

1 It’s midnight. Time to hit the sack.
2 This is just kid’s stuff. I want something more difficult and challenging!
3 He was down and out for two years, but then he got a job and found a home for himself.
4 I can’t understand why he’s giving me the cold shoulder. He’s usually so friendly.
5 I haven’t seen Sam for ages. We only get together once in a blue moon.
Everyday expressions

Everyday spoken language is full of fixed expressions that are not necessarily difficult to understand but which have a fixed form which does not change. These have to be learnt as whole expressions. These expressions are often hard to find in dictionaries, so it is important to be on the lookout for them.

Conversation-building expressions

These are some common expressions that help to modify or organise what we are saying. There are many more expressions like these. (See also Units 27 & 28.)

- expression
  - As I was saying, I haven’t seen her for years.
  - As I / you say, we’ll have to get there early to get a seat.
  - Talking of skiing, whatever happened to Bill Jakes?
  - If you ask me, she’s heading for trouble.
  - That reminds me, I haven’t rung George yet.
  - Come to think of it, did he give me his number after all? I think he may have forgotten.

- meaning/function
  - takes the conversation back to an earlier point
  - repeats and confirms something someone has already said
  - starting a new topic, but linking it to the present one
  - if you want my opinion (even if no-one has asked for it)
  - something in the conversation reminds you of something important
  - something in the conversation makes you realise there may be a problem/query about something

Key words

Some everyday expressions can be grouped around key words. This and that, for example, occur in several expressions:

- This is it. [this is an important point]
- That’s it. [that’s the last thing, we’ve finished]

- We talked about this and that, or this, that and the other. [various unimportant matters]
- So, that’s that, then. [that is agreed, settled, finalised]

Common expressions for modifying statements

If the worst comes to the worst, we’ll have to cancel the holiday. [if the situation gets very bad indeed]

If all else fails, we could fax them. [if nothing else succeeds]

What with one thing and another, I haven’t had time to reply to her letter. [because of a lot of different circumstances]

When it comes to restaurants, this town’s not that good. [in the matter of restaurants]

As far as I’m concerned, we can eat any time. [as far as it affects me / from my point of view]

As luck would have it, she was out when we called. [by chance]
Exercises

79.1 Complete the fixed expressions in these sentences, without looking at the left-hand page, if possible.

1 Come ................................, I don’t remember giving her the key. I’d better ring her and check, just in case.
2 If you ................................, the economy’s going to get much worse before it gets any better.
3 .................................. holidays, have you got any plans for next year?
4 A: It’s going to be expensive.
   B: Yes, it’ll be fun, and a great opportunity, but as ..........................., it will be expensive.
5 That ..........................., I have a message for you from Sid.
6 As ..........................., before the telephone interrupted us, we plan to extend the house next spring.

79.2 Which of the expressions with this/that opposite would be most suitable for the second parts of these mini-dialogues?

1 A: What were you and Lindsay talking about?
   B: Oh, .........................

2 A: How many more?
   B: No more, actually, .........................

3 A: Here comes the big announcement we’ve been waiting for.
   B: Yes, .........................

4 A: OK, I’ll take our decisions to the committee.
   B: Right so, ........................., then. Thanks.

79.3 See if you can complete this network of everyday expressions with now, as with the this/that network opposite. Use a dictionary if necessary.

.................................................................
|  [occasionally]

.................................................................
|  [attract attention because you’re going to say something]

.................................................................
|  [immediately; also used to emphasise your point]

Use the expressions with now to rewrite these sentences.

1 Do you want me to do it straight away, or can it wait?
2 So, everybody, listen carefully. I have news for you.
3 I bump into her in town occasionally, but not that often.

79.4 Which expressions in this unit contain the following key words?

1 comes  2 luck    3 fails  4 worst  5 far    6 thing

Follow-up: Make a list of common expressions like the ones in this unit in your language. How do you say them in English?
Similes

As ... as

As ... as similes are easy to understand. If you see the phrase as dead as a doornail, you don’t need to know what a doornail is, simply that the whole phrase means ‘totally dead’.

But, remember fixed similes are usually informal/colloquial and often humorous. Those marked * are derogatory. Use all these expressions with care and keep them generally as part of your receptive vocabulary.

Creating a picture in your mind can often help you remember the simile:

- as blind as a bat*
- as thin as a rake*
- as strong as an ox
- as quiet as a mouse

Some can be remembered as pairs of opposites.

- as heavy as lead ≠ as light as a feather
- as drunk as a lord* ≠ as sober as a judge
- as black as night ≠ as white as snow [particularly used in fairy tales]

Some can be remembered by sound patterns.

- as brown as a berry
- as good as gold [this is used about children’s behaviour]
- as cool as a cucumber
- as busy as a bee

Some other useful as ... as phrases.

The bed was as hard as iron and I couldn’t sleep.
I’ll give this plant some water. The soil’s dry as a bone.
He’s as mad as a hatter*. He crossed the Atlantic in a bathtub.
She told the teacher, as bold as brass, that his lessons were boring.
You’ll have to speak slowly and clearly; he’s as deaf as a post*.
Don’t worry. Using the computer’s as easy as falling off a log.
She knew the answer as quick as a flash.
When I told him, his face went as red as a beetroot.

Sometimes the second part can change the meaning of the first.

The Princess’s skin was as white as snow. [beautifully white]
When he saw it, his face went as white as a sheet. [pale with fear/horror]
The fish was bad and I was as sick as a dog. [vomiting]
She ran off with my money; I felt as sick as a parrot. [bad feeling of disillusionment/ frustration]

You can usually make a simile using as ... as can be. For example, I need a drink, I’m as thirsty as can be.

Like

My plan worked like a dream, and the problem was soon solved.
Be careful the boss doesn’t see you; she has eyes like a hawk.
No wonder he’s fat. He eats like a horse and drinks like a fish*.
Did you sleep well? Yes, thanks, like a log.
Sorry, I forgot to ring him again. I’ve got a brain/head like a sieve!
The boss is like a bear with a sore head today. [in a very bad temper]
She goes around like a bull in a china shop*. [behaving in a very clumsy, insensitive way]
Criticising the government in his presence is like a red rag to a bull. [certain to make him very angry]
Exercises

80.1 Complete the as ... as similes.
1 Rosie is as mad as a ..................; you wouldn't believe the crazy things she does.
2 You're not eating enough; you're as thin as a ..................
3 He never says a thing; he's as quiet as a ..................
4 You'll have to shout; she's as deaf as a ..................
5 I'm afraid I can't read this small print; I'm as blind as a .................. without my glasses.

80.2 Different similes contain the same word. Fill the gap with the appropriate words.
1 I feel great now. I .................. like a log.
2 No! It's as easy as .................. off a log.
3 After eating that bad cheese I was as sick as a ..................
4 I knew she had deceived me. I felt as sick as a ..................
5 The old man's hair was as white as ..................
6 Her face suddenly went as white as a ..................

80.3 Put the correct number in the right-hand boxes to complete the similes, as in the example.
There are two that are not on the left-hand page. Try and guess them.

\[ \begin{array}{ccc}
1 & \text{quick} & \checkmark \\
2 & \text{red} & \checkmark \\
3 & \text{flat} & \checkmark \\
4 & \text{as a(n)} & \checkmark \\

6 & \text{flash} & \\
7 & \text{beetroot} & \\
8 & \text{pancake} & \\
\end{array} \]

80.4 Simile word puzzle. Fill in the answers, as in the example.

\[
\begin{array}{|c|c|c|c|c|}
\hline
\text{Across} & \text{Down} \\
\hline
1 bold & 1 blind & 1E & 1E & 10 light \checkmark \\
2 mad & 2 iron & 2E & 2E & \\
3 white & 3 log & 3A & 3A & \\
4 fresh & 6 cold & 6S & 6S & \\
7 quiet & 8 cool & 8S & 8S & \\
9 dry & 10 light & 9A & 9A & \\
\hline
\end{array}
\]

80.5 What can you say about ...
1 a person who sees everything and never misses a thing?
2 a plan or course of action that works very well?
3 someone who eats and drinks a great deal?
4 someone with a very bad memory?
5 someone who has been very active and busy all day?
Binomials

Binomials are expressions (often idiomatic) where two words are joined by a conjunction: (usually ‘and’). The order of the words is usually fixed. For example:

odds and ends: small, unimportant things, e.g. Let’s get the main things packed; we can do the odds and ends later. (We cannot say ‘ends and odds’.)

give and take: a spirit of compromise, e.g. Every relationship needs a bit of give and take to be successful.

A You can often tell something is a binomial because of the sound pattern.
Tears are part and parcel of growing up. [part of / belong to]
The boss was ranting and raving at us. [shouting / very angry]
The old cottage has gone to rack and ruin. [ruined/decayed]
He’s so prim and proper at work. [rather formal and fussy]
The hotel was a bit rough and ready. [poor standard]
She has to wine and dine important clients. [entertain]

B Other times, the clue is that the words are near-synonyms.
You can pick and choose; it’s up to you. [have a wide choice]
My English is progressing in leaps and bounds. [big jumps]
It’s nice to have some peace and quiet. [peace/calm]
The doctor recommended some rest and recreation / R and R. [relaxation]
First and foremost, you must work hard. [first / most importantly]

C Many grammar words combine to form binomials.
There are cafés here and there. [scattered round]
We’ve had meetings on and off. [occasionally]
I’ve been running back and forth all day. [to and from somewhere]
To and fro can be used just like back and forth.
He is unemployed and down and out. [without a home or money]
She’s better now, and out and about again. [going out]
She ran up and down the street. [in both directions]

D Your language probably has many binomials. Make sure those which look similar in English have the same word order as your language. These four are very neutral binomials and can be used in formal or informal situations. Try translating them.

A black and white film, please. Ladies and gentlemen, your attention, please!
She ran back and forth. There was hot and cold water in every room.

E Binomials linked by words other than and.
You’ve got your sweater on back to front. [the wrong way]
He won’t help her; she’ll have to sink or swim. [survive or fail]
Slowly but surely, I realised the boat was sinking. [gradually]
Sooner or later, you’ll learn your lesson. [some time/day]
She didn’t want to be just friends; it had to be all or nothing.
Well I’m sorry, that’s all I can offer you; take it or leave it.
It’s about the same distance as from here to Dublin, give or take a few miles. [perhaps a mile or two more, or a mile or two less]
Exercises

81.1 Here is a list of words that can combine to form binomials (some are from the left-hand page and some are new). Using similarities in sound, join them with and. Then check opposite or in a dictionary that you have the right word order and meaning.

prim  dine  high  ruin  rough  dry rack  ready  proper  sound  safe  wine

Now use them to fill the gaps in these sentences.
1 I was left ................ and ................., with no-one to help me.
2 The room’s a bit ................ and ................., but you’re welcome to stay as long as you like.
3 I’m glad you’re ................ and ................. after such a dangerous journey.
4 My hosts ................ and ................. me at the best restaurants.
5 Our old house in the country has just gone to ................. and .................; nobody looks after it now.
6 The secretary is always so terribly ................. and .................; the whole atmosphere always seems so very formal.

81.2 Match words from the left-hand box with words from the right-hand box to form binomials, as in the example law and order. There are more words on the right than you’ll need. Look for words that are either near-synonyms or antonyms (opposites) of the left-hand word.

\[
\begin{array}{cccccc}
\text{law} & \text{money} & \text{tidy} & \text{drop} & \text{tired} & \text{soon} \\
\text{now} & \text{pay} & \text{bounds} & \text{terrible} & \\
\text{hit} & \text{clocks} & \text{after} & \text{whisper} & \text{order} \\
\text{clean} & \text{then} & \text{dogs} & \text{scratch} & \text{heart} \\ \text{and} & \text{choose} & \text{flowers} & \text{miss} & \text{chase} \\ pick & \\ sick & \\ leaps & \\ \end{array}
\]

81.3 Now rewrite these sentences using the binomials you formed in 81.2. The new sentences will often sound more informal than the original sentences.
1 There are lots of courses. You can make your own selection.
2 The flat looks all neat and spotless now for our visitors.
3 I have had enough of traffic jams. I’m going to start using the train.
4 Finding the right people was rather difficult; sometimes we succeeded, sometimes we failed.
5 My knowledge of English has progressed rapidly since I’ve been using this book.
6 The new Prime Minister promised that efficient policing would be the most important policy.
7 I’ve seen her occasionally, taking her dog for a walk.

81.4 These binomials do not have and in the middle. What do they have? Check the opposite page or in a dictionary if you are not sure.

1 sooner ...... later 3 back ...... front 5 slowly ...... surely 2 all ...... nothing 4 sink ...... swim 6 make ...... break
Idioms describing people

Positive and negative qualities

positive
- She has a heart of gold.
- He’s as good as gold.
  - [generous, helpful, well-behaved used generally for children]

negative
- She’s as hard as nails.
- He’s rather a cold fish.
  - [distant, unfriendly]

Note also:
- He’s such an awkward customer. [difficult person to deal with]
- She’s a pain in the neck. Nobody likes her. [nuisance, difficult]
- He gets on everyone’s nerves. [irritates everybody]

People’s ‘fast’ and ‘slow’ qualities

fast
- He’s very quick off the mark; he always gets things before everybody else.
- You’ve asked him to marry you! You’re a fast worker! You only met him three weeks ago!

slow
- I was a bit slow off the mark; the job had been filled by the time I got the forms.
- Come on! Hurry up! You’re such a slowcoach!

How people relate to the social norm

- She’s a bit of an odd-ball; very strange. [peculiar, strange]
- He’s really over the top. [very exaggerated in behaviour]
- He’s (gone) round the bend, if you ask me. [absolutely crazy/mad]
- My politics are very middle-of-the-road. [very normal; no radical ideas; neither left- nor right-wing]

Who’s who in the class? Idioms for ‘people in the classroom’

- a teacher’s pet
- Mary’s top of the class
- a real know-all
- a bit of a big-head
- a lazy-bones

The last three idioms are used of people outside the classroom situation, too.
Exercises

82.1 Try to complete these idioms from memory if possible.
1 She does a lot of voluntary work; she has a heart ...
2 Don’t expect any sympathy from the boss; she’s as hard ...
3 I’m sure Gerry will help you; he’s as good ...
4 I was too late to get on that course; I was a bit slow ...
5 You won’t find him very friendly; he’s rather a cold ...
6 Tell him to hurry up! He’s such a ...

82.2 What do we call ...
1 an irritating person who knows everything?
2 the person who is the teacher’s favourite?
3 someone who thinks they are the best and says so?
4 the one who gets the best marks?
5 a person who is very lazy?

82.3 You can also learn idioms by associating them with a key word or words. For example, two idioms on the left-hand page have gold in them and two have mark. Which are they? Here is a word-fork based on to have + head. Use the expressions to finish the sentences below.

- one’s head screwed on [be sensible]
- a head for heights [not suffer from vertigo]
- a head like a sieve [bad memory; see Unit 80]
- a good head for figures [be good at maths]
- one’s head in the clouds [unaware of reality]

to have

1 I’d better write it in my notebook. I have ...
2 Ask Martha to check those sums. She has ...
3 Don’t ask me to go up that tower. I’m afraid I don’t ...
4 She’s very sensible and knows what she’s doing. She ...
5 He’s quite out of touch with reality. He really ...

Look for other sets of idioms based on key words.

82.4 Mini-quiz. Which part of the body might a difficult person (a) get on (b) be a pain in?

82.5 Which idioms do you think these drawings represent?

82.6 Try guessing from the context what the underlined idioms mean.
1 Don’t get angry with him. His heart’s in the right place.
2 Joe’s a bit of a square peg in a round hole here. I think he should get a job which suits his character better.
3 A: Hey! I’m talking to you! B: Sorry, I was miles away.
Idioms describing feelings or mood

A Positive feelings, moods and states
Mary seems to be on cloud nine these days. [extremely pleased/happy]
Everyone seemed to be in high spirits. [lively, enjoying things]
She seems to be keeping her chin up. [happy despite bad things]
Jo’s as happy as the day is long. [extremely content]

B Negative feelings, moods and states
He had a face as long as a fiddle. [looked very depressed/sad]
She certainly looked down in the dumps. [looked depressed/sad]
Gerry is in a (black) mood. [a bad mood/temper]
Martin was like a bear with a sore head. [extremely irritable] (See Unit 80.)

C Physical feelings and states
I could eat a horse! [very hungry]
I’m feeling all in. [exhausted]
You’re looking a bit under the weather. [not very well / ill]
She looked, and felt, on top form. [in good physical condition]
I suddenly felt as if my head was going round. [dizzy]
I was almost at death’s door last week! [very sick or ill]
Old Nora’s as fit as a fiddle. [very fit indeed]

D Fear/fright
She was scared stiff. [very scared]
She frightened the life out of him. [frightened him a lot]
We were all shaking in our shoes. [trembling with fear]
The poor lad was scared out of his wits. [very scared indeed]
I jumped out of my skin when I heard the bang. [gave a big jump]

NOTE
There is an element of exaggeration in these idioms in B, C and D. They make comments on the situation and lighten the tone of what you are saying. So use them only informally.

E Horoscopes are often a good place to find idioms about moods and states, since the horoscope usually tries to tell you how you are going to feel during the coming day/week/month. Look at these horoscopes and note the idioms in italics.

Capricorn (21.12–19.1)
Don’t get carried away(1) by promises that won’t be kept. Keep a cool head(2) and take everything as it comes. On the work front, things are looking better.

Taurus (21.4–20.5)
Someone will say something that will make you swell with pride(3) and you may feel on top of the world(4) for a while, but the evening will not be so easy.

(1) be fooled (2) stay calm (3) feel very proud (4) very happy indeed
83.1 Here are some more idioms that can be grouped as expressing either positive or negative feelings. Try to group them, using a dictionary if necessary.

- to be over the moon
- to feel/be a bit down
- to feel/be as pleased as Punch
- to feel/be browned off

83.2 Using the idioms from 83.1 and from A and B opposite, say how you would probably feel if ...

1. you were told you had just won a vast sum of money. I'd be over the moon!
2. your boss said you had to do again a piece of work you’d already done three times.
3. you were told you’d got a very high mark in an exam.
4. you had a bad toothache and your neighbour was making a lot of noise late at night.
5. nothing seemed to have gone right for you that day.
6. someone you were secretly in love with told you they were in love with you.

83.3 Complete the idioms in these sentences.

1. Don't creep up behind me like that! You frightened the ...
2. I don't need a doctor, I just feel a bit under ...
3. As long as he has his car to work on, he's as happy ...
4. Last year, when I won that medal, I really was on ...
5. I wasn’t expecting such a loud bang; I nearly jumped ...
6. I've had nothing since lunch; I could ...
7. I feel a bit down this week; last week I felt on top ...

83.4 Find idioms to do with feelings, moods and states in these horoscopes. Underline them, then check the meaning in a dictionary if necessary.

Scorpio (23.10–22.11)
You may get itchy feet today, but be patient, this is not a good time to travel. Events at work will keep you on the edge of your seat for most of the day. Altogether an anxious time for Scorpios.

Leo (21.7–21.8)
You'll be up in arms over something someone else close to you says rather thoughtlessly today, but don’t let it spoil things. You may be in two minds over an invitation, but think positively.

83.5 Now use the idioms from 83.4 to rewrite these sentences.

1. I can't decide about that job in Paris.
2. I've been in suspense all day. What's happened? Tell me!
3. Her son became restless to travel and went off to Uruguay.
4. Everyone protested loudly when they cancelled the trip.

83.6 Which idioms opposite include the words head, wits, swell, black and carried? Write a sentence using each one.

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>to be in a fix</td>
<td>be in difficulty</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to be in a tight corner</td>
<td>be in a situation that is hard to get out of</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>to be in a muddle</td>
<td>be confused / mixed up</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
(these three go together as all having be + in + a)

Reacting in situations: more or less opposite idioms

- to take a back seat [not to do anything; let others act instead] ≠ to take the bull by the horns [act positively to face and attack the problem]
- to stir things up [do/say things that make the situation worse] ≠ to pour oil on troubled waters [do/say things that calm the situation down]
- to keep one’s cards close to one’s chest [hold back information] ≠ to lay one’s cards on the table [be very open, state exactly what your position is]

B Idioms with get

This has to be done by next week; we must get our act together before it’s too late. [organise ourselves to respond; informal]
We need a proper investigation to get to the bottom of things. [find the true explanation for the state of affairs]
It’s quite difficult to get people to sit up and take notice. [make them pay attention]
I’m trying to get a grasp of what’s happening; it’s not easy. [find out / understand]

C Changes and stages in situations

The tide has turned for us; better days are ahead.
We can see light at the end of the tunnel at last.
I’m afraid we’ve just come to a dead end with our plans.
I think I’ve reached a turning-point in my career.

All that trouble last year was just swept under the carpet in the end. [ignored / deliberately forgotten, without solving it]

The government and the unions have buried the hatchet for the time being. [made peace / stopped fighting each other]

You should say sorry. It would go a long way. [would help a lot]

Exercises

84.1 When looking up words and idioms in your dictionary, look at what is just before and after the information you are looking for. In this way you can pick up some related words and/or expressions which you can record together. For example, if you look up take the bull by the horns in a dictionary, you will probably also find these idioms:

- (to be/act) like a bull in a china shop [be very clumsy]
- (to talk) a load of bull [talk nonsense; informal]

Look up these idioms using the words underlined as your key word and see what other idioms or useful phrases you can find around them in the dictionary.

1. let the cat out of the bag
2. be in a fix
3. to pour oil on troubled waters
4. to stir things up

84.2 Choose suitable idioms from the opposite page to fill the gaps.

1. I think I’ll just ...................... and let everyone else get on with sorting matters out.
2. No, please, don’t say anything; you’ll only ......................
3. It’s been a long, hard struggle, but I think at last we can see ......................
4. The police are trying their best to get to ......................, but it’s a real mystery at the moment.
5. I’m sorry, I’m in ......................; could you explain that again?
6. At last I’ve managed to get him to sit ......................; he’s done nothing at all for us so far.
7. I find it difficult to get a ...................... this global warming business, don’t you?
8. I think we should take the bull ...................... and sort it out. I don’t think it should be just swept ......................

84.3 Here are some more idioms connected with situations. Can you paraphrase their meaning, as in the example?

1. It’s not working; we’ll have to go back to square one, go back to the beginning again
2. The teachers want one thing, the students want the exact opposite. I’m sure we can find a happy medium.
3. We were on tenterhooks all night waiting for news from the hospital. They finally rang us at 6.30 a.m.
4. Poverty and crime go hand in hand in this part of town.
5. You’ve been in a lot of trouble lately; you’d better toe the line from now on.

84.4 What questions could be asked to get these answers?

1. Well, we’ve buried the hatchet for the moment, but I’m sure it’s not for good.
2. Yes, it’s been a real turning-point in my career.
3. Yes, I think it would go a long way. You know how sensitive he is, and how he appreciates little gestures.

Follow-up: In an English language magazine, find an article that discusses some kind of problematic situation. Are any idioms used in the discussion of the problem? Write sentences of your own including any new and interesting idioms.
Idioms connected with praise and criticism

Idioms connected with praise

Exercises

87.1 Look at these mini-dialogues and answer the questions using idioms from the opposite page.

1 A: I'll give you $85.
   B: No, $100 or nothing.
   A: Oh, come on. Look, $90, there.
   B: No, I said $100 and I mean $100.

What's B doing?

2 A: I'm president of the squash club, I'm on the teacher-parent committee and I run three youth clubs.
   B: Really?
   A: Yes, oh, and I'm on that working party at the Social Centre, and there's the Union ...

What sort of person could A be described as?

3 A: Lady in red, la-da-da-di-da ...
   B: I wish you'd stop singing that blasted song!
   A: What? Oh, sorry ... Lady in red, la-la ...

What's A's problem?

4 A: Oh, no! You know that box of wine glasses I bought from that guy in the street?
   B: Half of them are cracked!
   A: Well, you should have looked at them first. It's your stupid fault.

What has A done?

87.2 Rewrite these sentences using an idiom instead of the underlined bits.

1 Can I tell you about a problem I have? I just have to tell somebody. It's been bothering me for a while now.
2 They charged us £100 for a tiny room without a bath. It was just robbery!
3 There'll just be time to have a quick meal before the show.
4 I must admit, Maria coped with the situation brilliantly.
5 I think I'll just go upstairs and have a sleep for a while, if nobody objects.
6 Well, I was very tired and fell asleep on the sofa at about two o'clock, and the party was still in full swing.

87.3 Can you think of a situation where you might ...

1 have to get a bite to eat on the way?
2 have to pay over the odds for a hotel room?
3 find it hard to make any headway?
4 be willing to pay through the nose for tickets?

87.4 Which idioms do these drawings suggest?

Follow-up: Look up idioms under other parts of the body, for example, tongue, heels, toe, back, and make a note of examples.
Proverbs

Speakers tend to use proverbs to comment on a situation, often at the end of a true story someone has told, or in response to some event. Like all idiomatic expressions, they are useful and enjoyable to know and understand, but should be used with care.

Warnings/advice/morals – dos and don’ts proverb

Don’t count your chickens before they are hatched.
Don’t put all your eggs in one basket.
Never judge a book by its cover.
Never look a gift-horse in the mouth.
Take care of the pence and the pounds will take care of themselves.

paraphrase
Don’t anticipate the future too much.
Don’t invest all your efforts, or attention in just one thing.
Don’t judge people/things by their outward appearance.
Never refuse good fortune when it is there in front of you.
Take care of small sums of money and they will become large sums.

Key elements

Proverbs can be grouped by key elements, for example, animals and birds.
When the cat’s away, the mice will play. [people will take advantage of someone else’s absence to behave more freely]
You can lead a horse to water but you can’t make it drink. [you can try to persuade someone, but you can’t force them]
One swallow doesn’t make a summer. [one positive sign does not mean that all will be well. A swallow is a very fast-flying bird that returns to Britain in late spring]

Visualising

As with learning all vocabulary, visualising some element often helps.

There’s no smoke without fire. or Where there’s smoke, there’s fire. [rumours are usually based on some degree of truth]

Too many cooks spoil the broth [too many people interfering is a bad way of doing things]

People who live in glass houses shouldn’t throw stones. [don’t criticise others’ faults if you suffer from them yourself]

Many hands make light work. [a lot of people helping makes a job easier] 88.1 Find proverbs on the left-hand page that fit these situations.

EXAMPLE Someone says they have just been offered a free two-week holiday, but are hesitateing whether to take up the offer. Never look a gift-horse in the mouth.
1 Someone thanks you and your friends for helping to load heavy boxes into a van.
2 Someone says they can’t be bothered applying to different universities and will just apply to one.
3 Three different people have made different arrangements for the same meeting, and so everyone comes at different times and the result is total confusion.

88.2 Some proverbs are similar in meaning. Which proverbs on the left go with which on the right, and what do they have in common in terms of meaning?

1 A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. Never judge a book by its cover.
2 Don’t count your chickens before they are hatched. Familiarity breeds contempt.
3 All that glitters is not gold. Never look a gift-horse in the mouth.
4 Absence makes the heart grow fonder. Don’t cross your bridges before you come to them.

88.3 People often refer to proverbs by only saying half of them and leaving the rest for the listener to ‘fill in’. Complete the proverbs in these dialogues.

1 A: Joel’s always criticising people who are selfish, yet he’s terribly selfish himself.
   B: Yes, well, people who live in glass houses ...
   C: Exactly.

2 A: The people in the office have been playing computer games all day since the boss fell ill.
   B: Well, you know what they say: when the cat’s away ...
   A: Right, and they’re currently doing that.

3 A: I didn’t believe those rumours about Nick and Gill, but apparently they are seeing each other.
   B: You shouldn’t be so naive, you know what they say, where there’s smoke ..., eh?
   A: Mm, I suppose you’re right.

4 A: Amazing, he’s made a fortune from just one little shop!
   B: Well, I think it’s a case of take care of the pence ...
   A: Sure, he’s always been very careful with his money.

Follow-up: Try translating some proverbs from your language, word for word into English. Then, if you can, ask a native speaker if they recognise any English proverb as having the same or similar meaning.
Expressions with do and make

The next seven units deal with phrasal verbs and other expressions based on common verbs. Phrasal verbs are basic verbs which can combine with different prepositions (or particles) to make verbs with completely new – and often unguessable – meanings. Phrasal verbs are used more in speaking than in writing.

Here are some of the most useful phrasal verbs based on do and make.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>phrasal verb</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>make up to</td>
<td>be nice to in order to get st</td>
<td>He made up to her until she agreed to help.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Some phrasal verbs have a number of different meanings; do up can mean not only ‘fasten’ but also ‘renovate’ and ‘put into a bundle’. Similarly, make out can mean ‘claim’, ‘manage to see’ and ‘understand’ as well as ‘write’ or ‘complete’; make up can mean ‘compose’ or ‘invent’; it can also mean ‘constitute’ or ‘form’, ‘put cosmetics on’, ‘prepare by mixing together various ingredients’ and ‘make something more numerous or complete’.

There are a lot of other common expressions based on do and make. Note that most expressions referring to work or duty use do whereas those which lead to an end product (e.g. tea, a cake, a noise, a toy boat, a profit, a noise) use make.

You do: the housework / some gardening / the washing up / homework / your best / the shopping / the cooking / business with ... , and so on.

You make: arrangements / an agreement / a suggestion / a decision / a cup of tea / war / an attempt / a phone call / the best of ... / an effort / an excuse / a mistake / a profit / a loss / love / the most of / a noise / a good or bad impression / a success of ... / a point of ... / allowances for ... / a gesture / a face / fun of ... / a fuss of ... / a go (a success) of ... , and so on.

TIP

The more collocations with do and make you learn, the more you will get a ‘feel’ for the difference between the two verbs.

Expressions with set and put

Look at these examples of phrasal verbs based on set.

Since his daughter’s birth, Robert had been setting aside [reserving] money for her wedding. Now he and his wife were setting off [beginning a journey] to meet Carl, her new fiancé. Carl was a mountaineer who had set out [begun work with a particular aim in mind] several times to climb Mount Everest but had had to turn back because bad weather had set off [caused] avalanches. Now he was trying to set up [establish] a sports equipment business. Robert didn’t like the sound of Carl but he was doing his best to set aside [ignore (not think about)] his negative feelings.

Here are some of the many phrasal verbs with put.

Sarah put her own name forward [proposed] for election to the tennis club committee. Ten other people had also put in [submitted] proposal forms but Sarah was elected because she is very good at putting her ideas across [communicating to others]. She also has a talent for putting her opponents down [making someone look small]. At the first meeting she was largely silent though occasionally she would put in a remark [say something]. At the next meeting she was more involved. She supported the proposals that central heating should be put in [installed] at the club house and that the local school could use the club to put on [present] a play. She insisted that the play would not put members out [inconvenience] at all provided that the school put all their props away [tidy] after each performance. She said that she would put up [give accommodation to] grandparents coming from other towns to watch the play. She argued that they should put off [postpone] making their decision about putting up [raising] the club subscription until they had found out how members felt about this. She agreed to put up [fix] posters encouraging all members to come to the next meeting. The meeting ended dramatically with a small fire in the club-house but it was quickly put out [extinguished]. Sarah told her mother all about the meetings. She was very good at putting on [pretending to have] all sorts of accents and she made her mother laugh as she imitated her fellow committee members. ‘The chairperson really put me off [distracted] with his constant sniffing,’ she said, ‘and I don’t know how they put up with [tolerate] the secretary’s rudeness.’

9. Has your home ever been broken into? What happened?
10. Have you looked anything up in a reference book today? What did you look for?

94.5 The expressions opposite are only some of many expressions using these six verbs. Can you think of two other phrasal verbs or other idiomatic expressions using each of the verbs? If you can't, look up the base verbs in a dictionary and see what you can find.
Formality is all about your relationship with the person you’re speaking or writing to. If you use formal language, it may be because you wish to show respect, politeness, or to put yourself at a distance (for example, ‘official’ language). Informal language can show friendliness, equality or a feeling of closeness and solidarity with someone. You should never use informal language just to sound fluent or clever.

Scales of formality

Some groups of words can be put on a scale from formal to neutral to informal.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>formal</th>
<th>neutral</th>
<th>informal</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>offspring</td>
<td>children</td>
<td>kids</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>abode/residence</td>
<td>house/flat</td>
<td>place</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>goodbye</td>
<td>bye-bye</td>
<td>bye or cheerio</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>alcoholic beverages</td>
<td>drink</td>
<td>booze</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>go amiss</td>
<td>go wrong</td>
<td>go pear-shaped</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Short, monosyllabic informal words

Informal versions of words are often short and monosyllabic, as we can see in the right-hand column in the table above. They include slang words. (Unit 96 has more examples.)

- It cost me ten quid. [pounds] I’ll help you peel the spuds. [potatoes]
- My bike’s been stolen. [bicycle] Come and meet my Mum and Dad. [mother and father]
- I always go by tube. [word used for the London Underground]
- Hi! Can’t stop; see you, bye! [hello; goodbye] I’ll get a cab from the station. [taxi]

Clippings

Shortening a word tends to make it less formal, as in bye in B.

- I’ll meet you in the lab(oration). What’s on telly tonight? [television]
- We should put an ad(vertisement) / an advert(ishment) in the (news)paper.
- Shall I (tele)phone them? Her sister’s a vet(erninary surgeon).
- Can I use your mobile (phone)?

Formality in notices, instructions, etc.

You will often see rather formal words in signs, notices and directions. Make sure you know the meaning of the words used so that you could tell someone what the notice says using less formal words.

- Articles deposited must be paid for in advance.
- DO NOT ALIGHT WHILE THE BUS IS IN MOTION.
- We regret we cannot accept cheques.
- Do not address the driver unless the bus is stationary.
- Tickets must be purchased before boarding the train.

TIP

If you ask someone to explain a new word, also ask them if it is formal, informal or neutral.
Exercises

95.1 If you look up an informal word in a monolingual dictionary, you will often find a neutral equivalent as part of the definition or explanation. For example, the Cambridge International Dictionary of English entry for kid says: 'infml a child or young person.'

Use a monolingual dictionary to find neutral or more formal words for these:
1 kip 2 a pal 3 a chap 4 swot 5 ta! 6 brainy

95.2 Make this conversation more informal by changing some of the words. Refer to the left-hand page if necessary.

JIM: Annie, can you lend me five pounds?
ANNIE: What for?
JIM: Well, I have to go and visit my mother and father, and my bicycle's not working, so I'll have to take a taxi.
ANNIE: Can't you telephone them and say you can't come?
JIM: Well, I could, except I want to go because they always have lots of food, and the refrigerator at our flat is empty, as usual.
ANNIE: Can't you go by Underground?
JIM: Erm ...
ANNIE: Anyway, the answer's no.

95.3 Say whether you feel the following remarks/sentences are OK, too formal or too informal for each situation described. If the remark/sentence is unsuitable, suggest what the person might say instead.

1 (Teenage boy to teenage girl at disco): D'you fancy an appointment one night next week?
2 (Parent to another parent at a school parents' meeting): How many offspring do you have at the school?
3 (Dinner-guest to host/hostess): No thanks, I never consume alcoholic beverages when I'm driving.
4 (Student to university professor): Will there be lab demonstrations next week?
5 (Business letter to a newspaper office): Dear Sir/Madam,
I should like to enquire about the current charges for ads in your newspaper. My company is considering ..., etc.

1 The opposite of stationary. 3 a) to be sorry b) to buy c) to speak to 2 The opposite of to board. 4 Informal versions of Greetings! and Farewell!

95.5 Express these notices in neutral or informal language.

1 CHILDREN ARE REQUESTED NOT TO DEPOSIT LITTER IN THE PLAY AREA.

2 Expenses can only be reimbursed upon production of dated receipts.

(See also Units 96 and 100 for other informal and formal words and expressions.)
This unit looks at very informal or slang words. Slang is extremely colloquial language. Slang helps to make speech vivid, colourful and interesting but it can easily be used inappropriately. Although slang is mainly used in speech, it is also often found in the popular press.

Using slang appropriately

Remember, it can be risky for someone who is not a native speaker to use slang. Firstly because some slang expressions may cause offence to some sections of the population. For example, most policemen are quite happy to be referred to as coppers but are offended by the term pigs. Similarly, you could probably use the word sozzled (meaning drunk) in front of anyone but using the words, pissed or arseholed, which also mean drunk, could upset some people.

Secondly, slang words date very quickly. Different generations, for instance, have used different slang expressions to say that something was ‘wonderful’.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Slang Words</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>pre-war</td>
<td>top-hole</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1940s</td>
<td>wizard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1960s</td>
<td>fab, groovy</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1970s</td>
<td>ace, cosmic</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1980s</td>
<td>brill, wicked</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1990s</td>
<td>cool, class</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

It can be possible to work out a native speaker’s age from the expressions which they use as people tend to stick with the slang expressions of their youth.

Some common slang words and expressions

The words and expressions which are most likely to cause offence are underlined.

Expressions for money: dough bread dosh loot brass readies
Expressions for the police: pigs fuzz cop(pers) bill
Expressions for drunk: pissed pie-eyed paralytic legless arseholed
Expressions for a stupid person: wally prat wanker jerk dickhead plonker pillock dork clueless out-to-lunch doesn’t know his arse from his elbow
Expressions for lavatory: loo lav bog john Expressions for drink: booze plonk (wine) a bevvy
Drug-related expressions: a fix dope grass high stoned snow (heroin)
Prison-related expressions: nick (prison) nark (informant) screw (warder)

Slang is often used by one particular group and is unintelligible to other people. Here are some examples from American truck-drivers using CB radio to talk to each other.

grandma lane: slow lane five finger discount: stolen goods super cola: beer doughnuts: tyres
anklebiters: children affirmative: yes
motion lotion: fuel
eyeballs: headlights

TIP

If you are interested in slang, you can find more examples in films or in the tabloid press but it is probably safest to keep it in your passive rather than your active vocabulary.
Exercises

96.1 Replace the slang words which are underlined in the sentences below with more formal equivalents. If the meaning is not given opposite, then it should be possible to guess what it is. Notice that some of the words have a slang meaning which is different from their everyday meaning.

1 The newsreader on TV last night seemed to be pissed as he was reading the news.
2 He's quite a nice geezer really.
3 I've got a terrible belly ache - I think I'd better make an appointment with the quack.
4 Are you and Pat an item?
5 Can you lend me some dosh till tomorrow?
6 I know there'll be plenty of nosh but do we need to take some booze to the party?
7 The footballer said he was gutted by the result.
8 I'm dying for a cuppa. I haven't had one since breakfast.
9 Can I use your loo, please?
10 I was absolutely gobsmacked when she told me she was leaving.

96.2 Match the statements on the left with the responses to them on the right.

1 How was the party? Let's take him home.
2 What does that guy over there do? Sure. I'll keep my eyes skinned.
3 He's getting legless. He's in the nick.
4 Keep a lookout for the pigs. It's in a drawer, over here.
5 Where's the dough? He's a cop.
6 Where's her hubby? Let's borrow dad's wheels and go for a spin.
7 What'll we do tomorrow? Cool!

96.3 A particular well-known kind of slang is Cockney rhyming slang where an expression is used in place of something that it rhymes with.

EXAMPLE trouble and strife = wife apples and pears = stairs

How would you translate the Cockney rhyming slang expressions in the sentences below?

1 Let's have a butcher's (short for butcher's hook) at your homework.
2 Just look at those Gawd forbids playing football!
3 It's on the Cain and Abel next to the phone.
4 What a set of Hampstead Heath!
5 She'll get him to the lean and lurch by hook or by crook.
6 Have you seen my titfer? (short for tit for tat)

96.4 Another common way of making slang words is by using short forms or loosely pronounced forms of ordinary words. Thus fab is a slang form of ‘fabulous’ and hubby is a slang form of ‘husband’. Can you work out the meanings of the following underlined slang words?

1 Let's have brekky.
2 He's a brickie.
3 Let's have a barbie.
US English

English in the USA differs considerably from British English. Pronunciation is the most striking difference but there are also a number of differences in vocabulary and spelling as well as slight differences in grammar. Yet, on the whole, speakers of British and American English have little difficulty in understanding each other.

American spelling is usually simpler. For example, British English words ending in -our and -re, end in -or and -er in American English, e.g. colour/color, centre/center. Words ending -ise in British English end in -ize in US English. There are differences in individual words too, e.g. British ‘plough’ becomes ‘plow’.

Here are some common US words with their British equivalents.

Note: the fall = autumn, semester = term (academic) [semester is becoming more common in Britain.]

Here are some words and phrases which can cause confusion when used by Brits and Americans talking together because they mean something different in each ‘language’.
Exercises

97.1 If you saw words spelt in the following way would you expect the writer in each case to be British or American? Why?
1 labor 3 hospitalized 5 favour
2 centre 4 a movie theater 6 thru

97.2 What are (a) the American and (b) the British words for the following things?

97.3 You are going on holiday to the States. Which of the words listed in C and D opposite do you think it would be most important for you to know? Which of the words would a person travelling with a baby might well need to know?

97.4 Translate the following into British English.
1 I had a blow-out. 6 Our bags are in the trunk.
2 Pass me the cookies. 7 One-way or round trip?
3 It’s in the closet. 8 Buy a one-way ticket.
4 Open the drapes. 9 We’re leaving in the fall.
5 We’ve run out of gas. 10 I hate waiting in line.

97.5 Can you avoid some of the most common confusions arising between British and American speakers? Try the following quiz.
1 Where would you take (a) an American visitor (b) a British visitor who said they wanted to wash up – the kitchen or the bathroom?
2 Which would surprise you more – an American or a British man telling you that he wanted to go and change his pants?
3 You have just come into an unknown office block. If (a) an American (b) a Brit says that the office you need is on the second floor, how many flights of stairs do you need to climb?
4 If (a) an American (b) a Brit asks for a bill, is he or she more likely to be in a bank or a café?
5 Would a man wear a vest under or over his shirt (a) if he is British (b) if he is from the USA?

97.6 Do you know any other examples of American English? Make a list at an appropriate place in your vocabulary notebook or file.
See also Unit 98 for English in other parts of the world.
Other Englishes

US or American English (see Unit 97) is not the only special variety of English. Each area of the English-speaking world has developed its own special characteristics. This is usually mainly a matter of vocabulary and pronunciation. This unit just gives you a small taste of some of the different varieties of English by drawing your attention to vocabulary used in various English-speaking regions. You may come across many of the words covered in this unit in your own reading, listening or viewing.

Australian English

Australian English is particularly interesting for its rich store of highly colloquial words and expressions. Australian colloquialisms often involve shortening a word. Sometimes the ending ‘-ie’ or ‘-o’ is then added, e.g. a truckie is ‘a truck or lorry-driver’ and a milko delivers the milk; beaut, short for ‘beautiful’ means ‘great’ and biggie is ‘a big one’. Oz is short for Australia and an Aussie is an Australian.

Indian English

Indian English, on the other hand, is characterised by sounding more formal than British English. It has retained, in everyday usage, words that are found more in the classics of nineteenth century literature than in contemporary TV programmes, e.g. The bereaved are consoled and the Prime Minister is felicitated on his or her birthday. An Indian might complain of a pain in his bosom (rather than his chest) and an Indian bandit is referred to as a miscreant.

Scottish English

Scottish English uses a number of special dialect words. Some of the more common of these are worth learning.

| aye: yes | loch: lake | dreich: dull | ben: mountain | to mind: to remember |
| janitor: caretaker | brae: bank (of river) | bairn: child | lassie: girl |
| dram: drink (usually whisky) | bonny: beautiful | outwith: outside |
| ken: know |

Black English

Black English is the term used to refer to the English which originated in the Caribbean islands and is now also spoken in many parts of the UK, Canada and the USA. Listed below are some words which are characteristic of Black English but are also now used in other varieties of English. Many are particularly associated with the music world.

dreadlocks: Rastafarian hairstyle | beat: exhausted | chick: girl |
| dig: understand | jam: improvise | pad: bed | rap: street-talk | square: dull |
Exercises

98.1 What do you think these examples of Australian colloquialisms mean? They are all formed by abbreviating an English word which you probably know.
   1 I’m exhausted – let’s have a smoko!
   2 She wants to be a journo when she leaves uni.
   3 We got terribly bitten by mozzies at yesterday’s barbie.
   4 He’s planning to do a bit of farming bizzo while he’s in the States.
   5 What are you doing this arvo?
   6 We decided to have a party as the olds had gone away for the weekend.

98.2 The words on the left are more common in Indian English than British English. The words on the right are equivalent words more frequently used in British English. Match the Indian word with its British English equivalent.
   1 abscond catch (e.g. by police)
   2 nab man who annoys girls
   3 bag (i.e. a seat in an election) plimsolls, sneakers
   4 Eve-teaser underwear
   5 car-lifter flee
   6 fleetfeet people awaiting trial
   7 undertrials car-thief
   8 wearunders capture/obtain

98.3 Below you have some statements made by a Scot. Answer the questions about them.
   1 Mary had a bonny wee lassie last night. What happened to Mary yesterday?
   2 They stay next to the kirk. What noise is likely to wake them on Sunday mornings?
   3 It’s a bit dreich today. Is it good weather for a picnic?
   4 He’s got a new job as janitor at the school. What kind of duties will he have?
   5 Would you like a wee dram? If you say ‘yes’, what will you get?
   6 ‘Are you coming, Jim?’ ‘Aye.’ Is Jim coming or isn’t he?
   7 They have a wonderful view of the loch from their window. What can they see from the window?

98.4 Answer the following questions relating to Black English.
   1 Would you be pleased to be called square?
   2 What does hair that is in dreadlocks look like?
   3 When might you feel dead beat?
   4 If musicians have a jam session, what do they do?

Follow-up: If you have access to the Internet, use a search engine to look up a variety of English that interests you, for example US English, Indian English, Singaporean English. What can you find out about it?
Headline English

Newspaper headlines try to catch the reader's eye by using as few words as possible. The language headlines use is, consequently, unusual in a number of ways.

- Grammar words like articles or auxiliary verbs are often left out, e.g. EARLY CUT FORECAST IN INTEREST RATES
- A simple form of the verb is used, e.g. MAYOR OPENS HOSPITAL
- The infinitive is used to express the fact that something is going to happen in the future, e.g. PRESIDENT TO VISIT FLOOD AREAS

Newspaper headlines use a lot of distinctive vocabulary. They usually prefer words that are shorter and sound more dramatic than ordinary English words. The words marked * can be used either as nouns or verbs.

Newspaper headlines often use abbreviations, e.g. PM for Prime Minister, MP for Member of Parliament. (See Unit 16 for more abbreviations.)

Some newspapers also enjoy making jokes in their headlines. They do this by playing with words or punning, e.g. a wet open air concert in London by the opera singer Luciano Pavarotti was described as:

TORRENTIAL RAIN IN MOST ARIAS

[‘most areas’]

An announcement that a woman working at the Mars chocolate company had got an interesting new job was:

WOMAN FROM MARS TO BE FIRST BRITON IN SPACE

(Note that the word ‘Briton’ is almost exclusively found in newspapers.)
Exercises

1 PM BACKS PEACE PLAN
2 MP SPY DRAMA
3 Space probe fails
4 QUEEN'S GEMS RIDDLE
5 Star weds
6 Key witness death threat a marriage of famous actress b royal jewels are stolen

   c person who saw crime in danger d proposal to end war e satellite is not launched f politician sells secrets to enemy

99.2 Explain what the following headlines mean in ordinary English.
EXAMPLE SHOP BLAZE 5 DEAD. Five people died in a fire in a shop.

1 MOVE TO CREATE MORE JOBS
2 GO-AHEAD FOR WATER CURBS
3 Woman quits after job ordeal
4 POLL PROBES SPENDING HABITS
5 BID TO OUST PM
6 Prince vows to back family

99.3 The words marked * in the table opposite can be either nouns or verbs. Note that the meaning given is sometimes in the form of a noun. In the headlines below you have examples of words from the table used as verbs. Look at the underlined verbs and explain what they mean. You may need to use more than one word.
EXAMPLE PM TO CURB SPENDING limit

1 BOOK LINKS M15 WITH KGB
2 CHANCELLOR CUTS INTEREST RATES
3 BOMB BLASTS CENTRAL LONDON
4 PM PLEDGES BACKING FOR EUROPE
5 PRESIDENT HEADS PEACE MOVES

99.4 Would you be interested in the stories under the following headlines? Why (not)?

1 Mortgages cut as bank rates fall again
2 Teenage £4m fraud riddle
3 NEW TENNIS CLASH
4 Royal family quits
5 Price curbs boost exports
6 WOMEN BARRED FROM JOBS

Follow-up: Look through some English language newspapers and find some examples of headlines illustrating the points made on the opposite page. Beside each headline make a note of what the accompanying story is about. Try to find some examples of amusing headlines.
The language of signs and notices

Signs and notices in English often use words and expressions that are rarely seen in other contexts. Look at the signs and notices below with their 'translations' into more everyday English.

1. Do not alight from the bus whilst it is in motion
   Don't get off the bus while it's moving.

2. People who walk on this private land will be taken to court.

3. KINDLY REFRAIN FROM SMOKING IN THE AUDITORIUM
   Please don't smoke in the theatre/hall.

4. PENALTY FOR DROPPING LITTER - UP TO £100 FINE
   You can be taken to court and made to pay £100 for dropping rubbish.

5. Lunches now being served
   You can buy lunch here now.

6. NO ADMISSION TO UNACCOMPANIED MINORS
   Young people under 18 years old can only come in if they are with an adult.

7. FEEDING THE ANIMALS STRICTLY PROHIBITED
   You are not allowed to feed the animals.

8. No through road for motor vehicles
   There is no way out at the other end of this road for cars.

9. NO BILL-STICKING
   You mustn't put up any posters here.

10. Please place your purchases here
    Please put the things you are going to buy / have bought here.

11. This packet carries a government health warning
    What is in this packet is officially considered bad for your health.

12. Reduce speed now
    Start going more slowly now.

13. Buy a ticket and put it in a place where it can easily be seen.

14. Cyclists dismount here
    Cyclists should get off their bikes here.

15. FISHING: PERMIT HOLDERS ONLY
    Only people with special cards giving them permission are allowed to fish here.

TIP
If you are in or go to visit an English-speaking country, make a collection in your vocabulary book of any notices that you see.
Exercises

100.1 Where would you expect to see each of the notices on the opposite page?

Example 1 on a bus.

100.2 Match each of the words on the left with their meanings from the list on the right.

1. to prosecute  a young person under the age of 18
2. a penalty  to get off a bicycle or a horse
3. a purchase  to bring a legal case against
4. a trespasser  not to do something
5. to refrain  to forbid something
6. to alight from  a means of transport
7. to prohibit  a punishment
8. an auditorium  something which has been or is to be bought
9. to dismount  to get off a means of public transport
10. a minor  large place where an audience sits
11. a vehicle  someone who goes on private land without permission

100.3 Explain the notices below. Where might you see each of these notices?

1. Shoplifters will be prosecuted
2. French spoken here
3. Nothing to declare
4. Clearance sale starts today
5. Admission to ticket holders only
6. No vacancies
7. Fishing strictly prohibited
8. Cycles for hire or sale
9. Flat to let
10. Dogs must be identified
11. These seats are appreciated by the old and infirm

100.4 What notice would a café-owner put up if they wanted to:

1. indicate that their café was now open for coffee?
2. let people know that the café staff can speak Spanish?
3. stop people from smoking in their café?
4. let people know that they can buy free-range eggs there too?
5. ask people not to fix notices on to their wall?
6. tell people that they could rent rooms there overnight?

Follow-up: Look at the notices in your own language that you see around you every day. How would they be expressed in English? Try to find out, if they are not included in this unit.
Key

Many of your answers will depend on your own particular interests and needs. It is only possible for the key to suggest answers in some cases.

Unit 1

1. d  2. b  3. b  4. a

5. The most common twenty words in written English are (in order starting with the most frequent): the, of, to, in, and, a, for, was, is, that, on, at, he, with, by, be, it, an, at, his: and in spoken English: the, and, I, to, of, a, you, that, in, it, is, yes, was, this, but, on. well, he, have, for (Source: David Crystal, The Cambridge Encyclopedia of Language. second edition, CUP, 1997, p. 86.)

B

1. Some possible answers:
   a) a royal palace, the royal family
   b) to dissuade someone from doing something
   c) a popular king / to crown a king
   d) up to my ears in work
   e) independent of someone / an independent country
   f) get married to someone

2. a) scissors – only used in plural; if you want to count scissors, you have to say, for example, ‘two pairs of scissors’.
   b) weather – uncountable
   c) teach, taught, taught; teach someone to do something; teach someone French.
   d) advice – uncountable; a piece of advice; verb = to advise (regular).
   e) lose, lost, lost (irregular)
   f) trousers – only used in plural; if you want to count trousers you have to say, for example, ‘three pairs of trousers’.

3. a) The ‘b’ in subtle is silent, as it is in comb, tomb and lamb too.
   b) The final ‘e’ in catastrophe is pronounced as a syllable as it is in apostrophe. Catastrophe has 4 syllables. (See Index for pronunciation)
   c) The stress is on the first syllable in photograph, and on the second syllable in photographer; it is on the third syllable in photographic. The ‘rule’ is that the stress in long words in English very frequently falls on the third syllable from the end of the word.
   d) The ‘w’ in answer is silent. The final syllable is a schwa sound and the ‘r’ is not usually pronounced in standard British English, unless it is followed by a vowel, e.g. Answer all the questions ...

4. guys is informal, persons is formal (most commonly found in legal documents) and people is neutral

5. Some useful phrases from the text:
   periods of contact, foreign languages, sets of words, add greatly to, to express (subtle) shades of meaning.
   If you have included other phrases from the text that seem useful to you, then that is fine too.

D

Research into language learning can help you to prepare a sensible vocabulary learning plan. What you plan to do will, of course, depend very much on your own circumstances.
You cannot realistically aim to learn as many new words a day if you are working a full day at something else as if you are doing a full-time English course. In general, however, 10 to 20 words a week is probably a reasonable aim.

It does not matter where you try to learn vocabulary but it seems to be better to do a little on a regular basis rather than a lot infrequently. Research also suggests that it is a good idea to revise your work on a very regular basis — once a week, perhaps, but do not revise only the words that you’ve learnt in that week. Look back over your work of the previous month(s).

A

1. The network could be completed and added to like this:

   - purr
   - mew
   - paw
   - tail
   - lick
   - scratch
   - kitten
   - tomcat

2. a) Child, tooth and mouse are all words with irregular plurals (children, teeth, mice). You could add more examples, e.g. foot (feet); goose (geese); ox (oxen); phenomenon (phenomena).
   b) Information, furniture and luggage are all uncountable nouns — you could add milk, money and work to this group.

3. Possible words and expressions to add:
   a) pricey, underpriced, price tag
   b) to lend someone a hand, a handful; a handbag, underhand, etc.

B

2. Possible word tree for school:

3. Possible ways to complete the word forks:

   - magnificent
   - breath-taking
   - superb
   - stunning
   - splendid

   - kick
   - view
   - hit
   - bounce
   - catch
   - throw
   - a ball

4. Possible bubble diagram for make:

   - as soon as he heard the car
   - off
   - the city centre
   - for
   - MAKE
   - up for
   - the uncomfortable room
   - out
   - the trees in the distance

5. a) drive     b) fly     c) Riding
Unit 3

3.1 The list is probably connected to a lesson or lessons about time or a text about someone’s relationship with time. A possible organisation might include bringing the clock words together in a word-map or bubble diagram (clock, wristwatch, hands, minute-hand); other words could then be added later (hour-hand, face/dial, digital, etc.).

Tell the time and What time do you make it? could form a separate list of ‘time phrases’. to which others could be added, e.g. Have you got the time?, My watch is fast/slow, etc. Drowsy and wide awake could be treated as antonyms, and some notes about the usage of beneath and under would be useful. This list could have information about word-class too.

3.2 Theatre seems the obvious word.

3.3 Other testing systems include re-entering any word you have difficulty remembering, so that it appears more than once in the notebook. Another useful discipline is to set yourself a fixed number of words to memorise each week, e.g. 20, and to tick them off in the book as you do them. You could also take out any 10 words from your book and put them on individual slips of paper which you stick in prominent places around your room or house, e.g. on the fridge door, so that you are regularly looking at them.

Note the change in stress from export (noun or adjective) to export (verb) and exporter (person), e.g. Our export figures have increased; we exported 20% more goods last year.

Unit 4

4.1 Suggested answers:

1 style situation slang 4 extremely mainly frequently
2 be have refer 5 of to for
3 informal colloquial suitable

Obviously your answers here depend on how you answered 4.1. If you chose the same words as we did, then your answers to 4.2 will be as follows: style C situation C slang U be IT, IR have T, IR refer IT, R

4.2

Unit 5

5.1 Open any page in your dictionary and look at the first word at the top of the page. Do you know it? If not, read the definition or translation and write the word (without the definition or translation) in your notebook. One week later, look at your notebook and see if you can remember what the word meant. If not, look it up again.

To improve your reading of phonetics for pronunciation, take six words from anywhere in the dictionary and copy only the phonetic pronunciation into your notebook or to a separate sheet of paper. After one week, see if you can read what the original words were. If you can’t, consult the list of pronunciation symbols in your dictionary.

5.2 1 All the words are possible. Some people feel that sofa and couch are a bit ‘lower class’, and that settee is the so-called ‘refined, middle-class’ word. Divan could also be used, but its normal British English meaning is a kind of bed with a very thick base. It can also, less commonly, mean a kind of sofa with no back or arms.

2 Luxury most typically collocates with yacht, though ketch (a double-masted sailing ship) would also be possible. A dinghy is a very small, open boat, hardly suitable for going around the world. Sailing boat sounds just too general here, since it covers all types of boats with sails.

3 Wellingtons is the most likely word, since they are rubber boots designed to keep the water out. Boots are any kind of high-sided footwear. Bootees suggests a kind of ankle-length shoe, fairly lightweight, usually with fur inside for cold weather, often referring to what babies wear. (Wellingtons is usually abbreviated to wellies.)

4 Dinghy would be a good word here (see 2 above), though sailing boat would also fit, as it’s quite general.

5.3 1 INFORMAL 2 CHANCE 3 NOT INTERESTED 4 TEMPORARY

5.4 1 education 2 passport 3 length 4 liberty 5 revision 6 brother

5.5 exciting, worrying, frightening

Follow-up: Cambridge University Press (CUP) publishes major learners’ dictionaries for International English and American English, as well as dictionaries of idioms and phrasal verbs. CUP also publishes bilingual thesauri (dictionaries organised around meaning instead of alphabetically), for French-English, Italian-English, Greek-English, Spanish-English, Catalan-English and Portuguese-English.
Unit 7

7.1 The picture is a good clue to help you understand tortoise. You may recognise the word shell in shelled (as in egg shell, for example). Similarly, your knowledge of long and life together with the context should enable you to work out what longevity and lifespan mean. The whole context of the sentence should help you to work out the meaning of tended. Some of the underlined words may be similar to words in your own language which can be another useful way of working out the meaning of a word you have not seen before. The meanings of the underlined words are provided here for you to check your answers.

shelled: with a shell or hard protective cover reptile: kind of animal that lays eggs and uses the heat of the sun to keep its blood warm (e.g. crocodiles, snakes) famed: well-known (famous) longevity: living a long life lifespan: time from birth to death tended: cared for hibernate: go into a sleep-like state throughout the winter (as some animals and insects do)

7.2 Possible answers:
(These answers all give correct information in more detail than you would need to have provided in your own answers.)
1 Buzzards must be some kind of big bird, a sort that eats small animals.
2 A vole must be a kind of small animal, something like a mouse perhaps.
3 A chisel is something you use for shaping marble. It’s a kind of tool used by sculptors.
4 A tureen must be a kind of very large bowl, a bit like a pot, used for soup.
5 To ladle is a way of serving soup by using something like a very large spoon.
6 To clamber means something like climbing with difficulty.
7 Ratty must be a bit like bad-tempered.

7.3 Possible answers:
1 It says on the can that this drink contains no sugar.
2 More and more shops now have their own special credit cards that can only be used in one specific chain of shops and offer you a discount if you use one of them.
3 I find Mo a very kind person.
4 I’ve been terribly busy with work ever since I got back from holiday.
5 We walked down a street with trees along both sides of it towards the station.

4 a CD player – a thing (machine for playing CDs).
5 a cleaner – person or thing; person who cleans, e.g. in an office or other place of work; a substance or instrument for cleaning, e.g. ‘this cleaner will get the grease off your oven’.
6 a smoker – a person or thing; a person who smokes; a short name for a seat in the smoking area of a plane or a train (or the whole smoking compartment on a train).
7 a drinker – a person (someone who drinks alcohol, usually regularly or in large quantities).
8 a dresser – a person or thing; the person is someone who helps actors with their costumes; the thing is a piece of furniture.

8.5 1 forgivable 2 admission 3 laziness 4 productive 5 readable

8.7 1 neighbourhood: it is a place (an area); all the others refer to human relationships, quantities or identities.
2 handful: it is a noun; all the others are adjectives.
3 compliment: all the others are verb + ‘ment’, e.g. appoint + ment. There is no verb ‘compli’.
4 worship: all the others are kinds of human relationships; worship refers to paying tribute to a God, or, figuratively, as a verb, to loving someone very, very much, e.g. ‘They worshipped their teacher’.

10.2 1 oppressive 3 advertisements 5 inspector(s) 7 inspect
2 deported 4 introduce 6 introductory 8 composed

10.3 1 It isn’t easy to find synonyms for these words; the meanings are as follows: ‘She spends a lot of time thinking about her own thoughts and feelings and so does he; he’s quite shy and not very talkative.’
2 argue against 5 made public
3 hold back 6 hold back
4 work out 7 put into an appropriate form

10.4 support – hold up postpone – put off oppose – go against inspect – look at reduce – cut down deposit – put down divert – turn away

In each case the word based on the Latin root is more formal than its two part verb equivalent.
Follow-up: Some possibilities:
SPECT: circumspect behaviour; a retrospective exhibition; a fresh perspective.
VERT: an extroverted person; inverted commas; to pervert the innocent.
PORT: a railway porter; reported speech; transportation costs.
DUC, DUCT: to reduce taxes, to induce labour; a railway viaduct.

How you answer this question is a matter of your own originality. Here are some ‘real’ quotations about these abstract nouns, however:
1 Freedom is an indivisible word. If we want to enjoy it, and to fight for it, we must be prepared to extend it to everyone.
2 Love is a universal migraine. (Migraine = bad headache)
3 Life is a foreign language; all men mispronounce it.
4 Four be the things I’d be better without:
   Love, curiosity, freckles and doubt.
5 Where there is no imagination, there is no horror.

Follow-up: Some possible answers:
There are many more possibilities for the B suffixes but not many for the C ones.

B
-ment (un)employment entertainment involvement requirement
-ion diversion attraction direction rejection
-ness awkwardness foolishness loneliness madness
-ity brutality familiarity productivity superiority
-ship citizenship chairmanship sponsorship championship

-dom dukedom earldom
-th growth wealth stealth
-hood babyhood nationhood
Unit 12

Note that when you are looking compound adjectives up in the dictionary you may sometimes find the word listed under its second element rather than its first. Sometimes, in some dictionaries, the word will not be listed at all if the meaning is absolutely clear from an understanding of the two elements.

Notice that the descriptions of Tom and Melissa on the left-hand page are light-hearted and far-fetched! They are not examples of good style as such long lists of adjectives would be inappropriate in a normal text.

12.1 1 brown 3 broad 5 British 7 hot bright-eyed  narrow-minded  ready-made  pig-headed wide  single  home  bald
2 fool 4 polo 6 tax 8 kind dust-proof  round-necked  problem-free  soft-hearted fire  high  hands  hard

Other possibilities are high-minded and hard-headed.

12.2 Here is one possible way of categorising the words. There will be many other ways of categorising them. What is most important is not how you categorise them but the process of doing the exercise itself. The process should help you to learn the words.

Words connected with money: cut-price  duty-free  interest-free
Words connected with comfort, safety, convenience and quality: air-conditioned hand-made  remote-controlled  sugar-free  bullet-proof
Words connected with time: last-minute  long-standing  off-peak  part-time  time-consuming
Words often connected with travelling: long-distance  second-class
Words often used to describe people: so-called  world-famous Odd man out: top-secret!

12.3 Some examples:
self-assured  P  self-satisfied  N  self-confident  P  self-conscious  N self-seeking  N  self-possessed  P  self-indulgent  N  self-employed  neutral self-evident  neutral  self-sufficient  neutral  self-willed  N  self-effacing  N

12.4 1 No, she’s long-sighted.
2 No, he’s hard-up (or badly-off).
3 No, he’s badly-behaved.
4 No, they’re flat(-heeled)/low-heeled.
5 No, it’s hand-made.
6 No, in north-west England.

12.5 Some possible answers:
air-conditioned house/car  off-peak viewing/phone calls bullet-proof car/vest  part-time work/employment cut-price clothes/sale  remote-controlled TV/toy boat duty-free perfume/whisky  second-class fare/citizen hand-made chocolates/toys  so-called authority/specialist interest-free offer/loan  sugar-free jam/cola last-minute preparations/arrival  time-consuming work/preparations long-distance train/runner  top-secret papers/file long-standing arrangement/affair  world-famous composer/novelist

Unit 18

18.1 1 They sang a psalm to honour the memory of the world-famous psychologist as she was laid to rest in the family tomb. (Note that although the ‘r’ in ‘world’ is not really pronounced, in Standard British English, it affects the way the word is pronounced.)
2 The psychiatrist was knifed in the knee as he was walking home.
3 He should have whistled as he fastened his sword to his belt. (Note that the ‘h’ in ‘have’ is not really pronounced when following an auxiliary verb as in this sentence and the next one.)
4 You could have left me half the Christmas cake on Wednesday.

18.2 The odd one out appears first.
1 worry sorry, lorry 5 could doubt, shout a bad-tempered person or dog growls a bored child wriggles a bicycle chain clanks a steam train whistles a church-bell clangs someone with asthma wheezes

Follow-up: Some possible answers:

gr: grizzle and grudge, both have rather unpleasant meanings – grizzle is to cry because of bad temper rather than pain or discomfort and grudge is to be unwilling to give or do something.

cf: clap or clatter, both represent quite sharp sounds – clap is to put your hands together quickly and loudly and clatter is to make a long, continuous resounding noise like hard metallic things falling on a hard surface.

sp: spatter or spill both have an association with liquid or powder – spatter means to splash or scatter in drops like hot oil from a frying pan; spill means to knock over something liquid.

wh: whirl and whisk both have associations with the movement of air – whirl means to move quickly round and whisk means move or sweep quickly through the air.

Unit 22

22.1  1 as long as / providing / provided that are all OK; on condition that is fine too, and sounds a little stronger and more formal.
      2 In case of / In the event of (often seen in notices and regulations).
      3 Unless
      4 Since this is legal/official language on condition that would be very suitable, or providing / provided that; so long as is also possible, but as long as sounds just a little too informal.
      5 Supposing / What if (less tentative, more direct and informal) / If

22.2  Suggested answers:
      1 You cannot enter unless you have an Entry Visa. or You can/may enter providing/provided that you have an Entry Visa.

2 Owing to the fact that the performance was cancelled, everyone got a refund.
3 The service was terribly slow. As a result/Consequently (more formal), all the customers got angry.
4 We missed the last bus. As a result we had to walk home.

23.4 1 for 2 of 3 with; of 4 in 5 out of or from 6 with; to 7 to
Unit 24

24.1 Suggested answers:

1 I accept (or more formal: I acknowledge) that you weren't solely to blame, but you must take some responsibility. (Accept and acknowledge are most suitable here since the speaker is prepared to agree with one aspect but wants to go on to make another point to support his/her case.)

2 OK, I admit I was wrong, you were right; he is a nice guy. (This seems to be a situation where somebody is accusing someone or trying to get them to say they were wrong. Admit is ideal in this case.)

3 The company acknowledges that you have suffered some delay, but we do not accept liability. (Acknowledge is perhaps best here; it is often used in formal, legalistic situations like this because it simply says ‘We understand your message, but we do not necessarily accept any blame/responsibility‘; admit might suggest the company does accept legal responsibility; accept is also possible though less formal.)

4 She accepted/conceded that we had done all we could, but she was still not content. (Concede usually suggests an argument or debate where people might ‘give’ small points to one another while still holding on to their basic position, and would seem to be a likely choice here; concede here suggests she did not really want to say it.)

24.2 Possible answers:

2 The house itself is rather small.

3 There is no sign that the government has solved the traffic problem.

4 In most of the rest of Europe, the traffic drives on the right. (Ireland also drives on the left.)

5 I'm not at all hungry, thanks.

24.4 Possible comments:

1 There's a great divide between those who believe in nuclear weapons, and those who believe in world disarmament.

2 There's a huge discrepancy between what she says and what she does.

3 Jim and Sandra are poles apart when it comes to believing in God / on the question of believing in God.

4 There's a world of difference between being a student and being a teacher.

24.5 Suggested answers:

1 that's all well and good 3 for all that / after all

2 After all 4 It's all very well

24.6 1 on the contrary (it's not true that I'm worried)

2 on the other hand (it is true that it's expensive, but if you look at it from another point of view, we need it)
Unit 25

25.1
Suggested answers:
1  Further to
2  In addition to / As well as / Apart from / Besides
3  etc. / and so on
4  in addition to / as well as / apart from / besides
5  Furthermore / Moreover / Likewise

Comments: In (2) and (4), the choice is quite wide, but, depending on which one she chooses for (2), the writer would probably then choose a different one, to avoid repeating herself, for (4).

In (3), etc. is slightly more formal than and so on, and the writer may want to avoid sounding too informal.

In (5), if she wanted to use what’s more, the writer would probably write it in full as what is more, so as not to sound too informal. However, what’s more / what is more can often sound a little abrupt and argumentative (as if you’re trying very hard to convince the reader) and might sound just a bit too strong here.

In (5), furthermore/moreover add her previous experience on to the rest; likewise not only adds the information but suggests it is of equal value to the other experience she has mentioned. Equally would not be suitable here, as it is best used when arguing points and presenting opinions (trying to convince someone of the equal value of a point added on to other points).

1  Physical labour can exhaust the body very quickly. Equally, excessive study can rapidly reduce mental powers.
2  My cousin turned up, along with some schoolmates of his.
3  As well as owning a big chemical factory, he runs a massive oil business in the USA. or He owns a big chemical factory as well as running a massive oil business in the USA.

25.3
1  I work part time as well as being a student, so I have a busy life.
2  Besides having a good job, my ambition is to meet someone nice to share my life with.
3  Alongside my many other responsibilities, I now have to be in charge of staff training.
4  In addition to a degree, or In addition to having a degree, she also has a diploma.
5  My father won’t agree. Likewise, my mother’s sure to find something to object to.
6  She is a good footballer and she’s a good athlete to boot.
7  He said he’d have to first consider the organisation, then the system, then the finance and so on and so forth.

25.4
1  to boot  2  into the bargain  3  plus (+)  4  on top of (all) that

Unit 26

26.1
1  fact  2  issue (or problem)  3  belief  4  problem  5  evaluation  6  view
26.2 1 issue (best here because it is something everyone is debating and disagreeing on, question and problem are also OK)
2 problem/matter; crisis if it is really serious.
3 question (mystery would also be possible)
4 topic
5 approach/response/solution/answer

26.3 1 Situation in Sahel worsening daily
2 New approach to cancer treatment
3 Scientist rejects claims over fast food
4 Solution to age-old mystery in Kenya
5 Prime Minister sets out views on European Union
6 New argument over economic recession

Unit 27

27.1 ‘Well, where shall I start? It was last summer and we were just sitting in the garden, sort of doing nothing much. Anyway, I looked up and ... see we have this kind of long wall at the end of the garden, and it’s ... like ... a motorway for cats, for instance, that big fat black one you saw, well, that one considers it has a right of way over our vegetable patch. so ... where was I? Yes, I was looking at that wall, you know, day-dreaming as usual, and all of a sudden there was this new cat I’d never seen before, or rather, it wasn’t an ordinary cat at all ... I mean, you’ll never believe what it was ...’

Comments:
Well is often used to shift the conversation to a different type or topic (here from the ordinary conversation to a story).
Where / How shall I start / begin? (‘begin’ is much more common in written language than in spoken). This is a very common marker at the beginning of a story or monologue while the speaker is composing his/her thoughts.
Anyway is probably the most common marker in spoken story-telling to divide up the story into its different stages (introduction / main plot / resolution, etc.)
See is often used in informal talk instead of you see, when someone is clarifying or explaining something.
Like, sort of and kind of are often used when the speaker hesitates, or to make something less precise, a little more vague.
Well here is used to focus on an important point.
So is very commonly used to mark the beginning of the next event in a story.
Where was I? is used when we want to come back to the main subject we were talking about after an interruption or diversion into another point or topic.
Yes is often used when we resume what we were talking about; it does not have to be an answer to a question from someone. No is also used in exactly the same way and couldn’t have been used here instead of yes.
You know is used here to mean ‘you can guess what I was like’.
Or rather is used when you change to a different word or a better / more accurate way of saying what you want to say.
I mean is used when you want to explain something or expand or illustrate what you are saying.

This extract is typical of the number of markers found in everyday informal talk. The speaker is not a ‘lazy’ or ‘bad’ speaker; everyone uses markers, even if they are not conscious of it or do not want to admit it! Informal conversation without markers sounds rather odd and strained, and a little too formal.
27.2 Possible answers:
1 A: Are you a football fan?
   B: Well, I like it; I wouldn’t say I was a fan.
2 A: I’ll take care of these.
   B: Right, that’s everything.
   A: Fine, so see you next week.
   B: Good. That was a very useful meeting.
3 A: It was last Monday. I was coming home from work. I saw this ragged old man approaching me. Anyway, I stopped him ...
   B: Jim Dibble!
   A: Hang on! Let me tell you what happened first.
4 A: Which number is yours?
   B: Let me see … it’s that one here, yes, this one.
5 A: He’s looking exhausted.
   B: Yes, he is.
   A: Mind you, he has an awful lot of responsibility, so it’s hardly surprising.
6 A: What do you mean ‘cold’?
   B: Well, she’s not friendly, very distant, so to speak. Last week I gave her a jolly smile and she … like … scowled at me.
   A: Well what do you expect? Look, I’ve seen the way you smile at people, it sort of puts them off.

27.3 1 Yes, there is a lot of work to do. Anyway, I must rush now, I’ll call you tomorrow.
2 There’s two reasons I think he’s wrong. A, people don’t act like that, and b, Paul would certainly never act like that.
3 At the end of the day, money is not the most important thing in life. I really do believe that.
4 I never got a chance to tell him. Still, I’m seeing him next week. I’ll tell him then.

Follow-up: If it is difficult or impossible for you to get hold of tape-recordings of natural conversation, there are tapes and transcripts of everyday English conversation in R. Carter and M. McCarthy, Exploring Spoken English (Cambridge University Press, 1997), where you will find a wide range of spoken discourse markers in actual use, with commentaries.

Unit 28

28.1 1 First of all / Firstly
2 in other words
3 For example / For instance
4 Next
5 as it were
6 Lastly
7 In summary or in sum (more formal). (In conclusion would not be suitable here, since it just means ‘this is the end of the text’, whereas this sentence provides a summing up of the arguments in the text.)

28.2 1 this will not be discussed
2 as an aside / secondary issue
3 change the topic
4 to finish off
5 this document is about another one
6 read something earlier in the text
28.3 1 say, meaning ‘for example’
2 the following (introducing a list)
3 further (as in further details/information)
4 overleaf (meaning turn the page)
5 in summary, to sum up, in sum

28.4 Sample letter:

Dear Editor,

With reference to the article in your newspaper about the closure of Mainton Hospital, I would like to express my strong opposition to the proposal, for the following reasons. Firstly, the nearest other hospital is 50 kilometres away. Secondly, 200 people work at the hospital and they will lose their jobs and the whole region will suffer, that is to say the hospital makes an important contribution to the local economy. Finally, it is the only hospital in the region with a special cancer unit. But leaving aside the economic and medical questions, the hospital is obviously being closed for political reasons, and this is quite wrong.

To sum up, the closure of our hospital would be a disaster both for the people and for the economy of this region.

Yours sincerely,
Anne Gree (Ms)

Unit 29

29.1 1 no article 2 no article 3 an 4 no article 5 no article
6 no article; if you said a film here it would sound as if you mean one film, and then suddenly change your mind and decide to buy five rolls.
7 no article in both cases

30.6 I decided that if I wanted to be a pop star I'd have to leave home and get lodgings in London. I finally got a room, but it was on the outskirts of the city. The owner didn't live on the premises, so I could make as much noise as I liked. The acoustics in the bathroom were fantastic, so I practised there. I made so much noise I almost shook the foundations! I went to the headquarters of the Musicians' Union, but a guy there said I just didn't have good enough looks to be famous. Oh well, never mind!

Unit 31

31.1 1 Yes, most people have a cloth somewhere in the kitchen to wipe the work surfaces and in case somebody spills something.
2 It is not likely that most people will have a wood. A wood is a rather big area of land covered with trees (a small forest).
3 Some people have a fish (or several fish) swimming around in a tank in their living room.
4 Most people have pepper (together with salt) in their kitchen or dining room.
5 Most homes have glass somewhere, usually in the windows.
6 Most people have paper somewhere, for writing letters and notes, or for wrapping parcels.
7 Only people who consume alcohol would have drink in their house; they'd probably keep it in a cocktail cabinet or a cupboard.
8 You would have a tape if you have a tape recorder or a video recorder, and you'd probably keep it near the machine.
9 A rubber is quite common. It is used for rubbing out writing done in pencil, and would normally be kept with pens and pencils.

Unit 37

37.1 Suggested answers:
1 ... the fair, bald guy. or straight-curly-haired man.
2 ... scruffy and untidy-looking/messy-looking.
3 ... that slim, dark-haired woman over there.
4 ... unattractive, in fact. (You could also say he/she was ‘rather plain’ or ‘rather ordinary’, if you felt they were neither attractive nor unattractive. ‘Ugly’ is a very strong word indeed, and could be offensive.)
5 ... a teenager / in her twenties. (Another useful expression is ‘she’s a youngster’, for a person who is a teenager or who is still very young.)

37.2 1 The author who wrote this exercise is tall, with brown hair which is going grey; he’s white, in his early fifties and thinks he’s good-looking! What about you?

37.3 stocky build overweight middle-aged round-faced long-haired long-legged well-dressed mixed-race tanned complexion (tanned = brown from the sun) red-haired red-faced

37.4 Suggested answers:
Ian Prowse, height 6ft, thin-faced, dark, curly hair, fair skin.
Sandra King, height 5ft 4, dark, wavy hair, stocky build, round-faced.
Louise Fox, age 7, Asian appearance, straight, dark hair.
Jack ‘Dagger’ Flagstone, 6ft, bald, with beard and moustache; muscular build.

Unit 38

38.1 Opposites:
1 clever – half-witted  4 cruel – kind-hearted
2 extroverted – introverted  5 generous – tight-fisted
3 rude – courteous  6 unsociable – gregarious

38.2 1 likes  3 likes  5 dislikes  7 dislikes
2 likes  4 dislikes  6 dislikes  8 likes

38.3 1 Di’s very stingy.  5 Dick’s quite assertive.
2 Molly’s usually brusque/blunt.  6 I find Dave self-assured.
3 Liz is quite unprincipled.  7 Don’t you think Jim’s inquiring?
4 Sam can be assertive.  8 Jill is peculiar.

38.4 1 sociable  3 assertive  5 extravagant  7 sensitive
2 pessimistic  4 inquisitive  6 argumentative
Possible questions:

1. thrifty – Do you always keep old pieces of string in case they come in handy (might be useful)?
2. blunt – If a friend asks you if you like her awful new dress, would you say ‘No’?
3. sensible – If you won a lot of money, would you put it in the bank rather than spend it on a luxury you have always wanted?
4. intelligent – Can you give the next letter in this sequence S, M, T, W, T, F? (If you are not sure of the answer, think of the days of the week.)
5. even-tempered – If someone spills soup on some new clothes of yours, do you just sigh and say ‘That’s life’?
6. original – Do you never wear blue jeans?
7. obstinate – Do you become even more determined to do something, if people try to persuade you not to?
8. stressed out – Do you find it hard to sleep at night because problems are going round in your head?

Possible answers:

1. self-confident – She’s self-confident; speaking in public never bothers her at all.
2. self-centred – I’ve never met anyone as self-centred as he is; he thinks the world revolves around him alone.
3. self-indulgent – Buying a box of chocolates just for yourself is very self-indulgent.
4. bad-tempered – She’s always bad-tempered first thing in the morning although she’s very good-natured at other times.
5. good-tempered – The dog is far too good-tempered to be much use as a watchdog.
6. quick-tempered – She’s very quick-tempered; she gets very angry at the slightest provocation.
7. narrow-minded – It’s surprising how narrow-minded he is given the fact that he is so well-travelled.
8. single-minded – He’s totally single-minded; he never thinks of anything but work.
9. open-minded – I’m sure she won’t be shocked; she’s far too open-minded.

Anna is even-tempered – she never gets cross with people. She is very bright – she was always top of the class when we were at school. She is totally honest – she would never tell even a white lie. She is generous – even though she doesn’t have much money, she gives lovely presents. She is gregarious – she would always prefer to be with other people than on her own. Her one fault is that she can sometimes get a bit wound-up and, when she does, she can do rather daft things.

Unit 39

1. This is Jack. He’s my flatmate. or He and I are flatmates.
2. My grandad still writes to his old (or former) shipmates.
3. We were classmates in 1988, weren’t we? or You were a classmate of mine ...
4. She’s not really a friend, she’s just a workmate.
39.2 Some possible answers:
John Silver and Lorna Fitt were colleagues in 1994–5.
Josh Yates is Eve Cobb’s ex-husband.
Eve Cobb is Josh Yates’ ex-wife.
Eve Cobb used to be Bill Nash’s flatmate.
Bill Nash and John Silver are colleagues.
Ada Brigg and Nora Costa were Olympic team-mates. (usually written with a hyphen because ‘m’ is written twice)
Ana Wood is Bill Nash’s partner. (or vice versa)
Nora Costa and Ada Brigg were classmates.
Bill Nash and Eve Cobb were flatmates.
Bill Nash is Eve Cobb’s ex-flatmate. (or vice versa)
Fred Parks and Ada Brigg were once acquaintances.

39.3 1 A teenage music fan might not see eye to eye with his/her parents, might worship or idolise a pop star, might dislike, but might (secretly) respect a strict teacher, and probably likes or even loves his/her mates.
2 A secretary might like another secretary, might or might not get on well with them, might despise or hate their boss, or perhaps look up to him/her and might fancy a very attractive workmate.
3 A 45-year-old may well dislike teenagers or look down on them, or secretly fancy them if they are attractive; he/she might be repelled by their ex-husband/wife, or might still fancy them.

39.4 1 Jo and Phil don’t see eye to eye. or … don’t get on with each other.
2 I fell out with my parents …
3 We had a quarrel but now we’ve made it up.
4 Do you think Jim and Nora are having an affair?
5 I get on very well with my colleagues at work.
6 She should learn to respect her elders.
7 Jo’s attractive, but her mate just leaves me completely cold.

Unit 40

40.1 1 a garden shed or a garage
2 a kitchen or dining-room drawer
3 a bathroom cabinet (dental floss is a kind of thread for cleaning between your teeth)
4 a wardrobe
5 a cupboard, or perhaps an attic / a loft
6 a kitchen or utility room
7 usually in every room
8 in front of one of the entrance doors (front or back)
9 in the kitchen, probably in a drawer or cupboard
10 in the loft or in the cellar, or in a shed

40.2 1 attic or loft 3 the hall 5 pantry or larder
2 landing 4 utility room
40.3 1 cellar (or perhaps basement, though they normally have windows)
2 power point (or you can also say socket)
3 coaster
4 bin-liners
5 loft (attic is also possible)
6 shed/garage; terrace/patio (or balcony if not on the ground floor; or verandah, if it is covered)
7 landing
8 bungalow
9 master; guest/spare
10 drive/driveway

40.5 Suggested answers:
1 You could use a grater (or a food processor).
2 A dust-pan and brush (perhaps followed by a vacuum-cleaner).
3 A table-mat.
4 Use the remote-control.
5 Use a chopping-board.

Unit 41

41.1 Suggested answers:
1 My car broke down / wouldn't start.
2 Our washing machine broke down / stopped working.
3 Maybe the door-handle has come off, or something that was held on with a screw or screws.
4 Oh dear! I've cut my finger. It's bleeding.
5 I fell and grazed my knee.
6 The batteries have run out / are dead on my radio/walkman. (You can also use run down.)
7 I seem to have mislaid my glasses / false teeth, etc.

41.2 1 break down – this means to 'fail mechanically'; break and smash both mean to break physically.
2 stain – means to 'leave a mark'; run out and stop can both refer to things failing to work, e.g. the clock has stopped; the batteries have run out.
3 leak – refers to liquids; come off and chip can both refer to small pieces falling off an object.
4 flood – refers to an excess of water; cut and bruise are both types of injury.

41.3 Possible answers:
1 Contact the bank / credit agency and get them to cancel it at once.
2 Apologise and offer to get them a new one.
3 Sew it back on again.
4 Get it repaired.
5 Put an ice-cube on it. (There are lots of remedies for this, including rubbing good butter on it!)
6 Put it right by moving the hands forward / changing the setting.
41.4 Things that typically go together:

41.5
1. ... banged/bumped my head.
2. ... locked myself out.
3. ... mislaid her number.
4. ... broken down / not working. (It could also be jammed which means mechanically stuck, e.g. by some broken film.)
5. ... fell and twisted my ankle / cut my leg/knee, etc.

Unit 42

42.1
1. Drought; if the plants and trees are withered, they are probably dying because they have no water, and since the earth is cracked (hard, with a pattern of deep lines over it), it suggests it is very dry.
2. Earthquake; a tremor is a trembling movement of the earth. Note how disasters of various kinds can strike, e.g. The hurricane struck the coastline at noon.
3. A violent storm or wind, a hurricane/typhoon/tornado; if you board up your house you cover the windows and doors with wooden boards to protect them.
4. War or a battle of some kind; shells and mortars are projectiles which cause explosions when they strike.
5. Probably a plane crash; people who witness such crashes often describe the explosion as a fire-ball, or ball of fire.
6. Probably a flood, since if your house is flooded, the natural thing to do is to go to the upper floor(s) or the roof to escape the water.

42.3
1. getting worse (spreads means gets bigger / covers a wider area)
2. a disaster was avoided (the bomb was defused – made safe)
3. getting better (the oil is receding – going away from where it was heading, for example, towards a beach)
4. getting worse (to tick away means to get worse with time)
5. disaster avoided (an emergency landing is a landing when the pilot has to land the plane immediately – perhaps he has no proper control over the plane, e.g. if there is an electrical fault)
6. disaster has occurred / is occurring (if you heed a warning, you take note, and do something; here the warning was ignored)
42.4 1 victims  2 refugees  3 casualties  4 survivors  5 dead; wounded
42.5 1 malaria  2 leprosy  3 cholera or typhoid  4 rabies  5 yellow fever

Unit 43

43.1 1 primary  5 further/higher
2 nursery  6 evening classes
3 grammar  7 grant
4 comprehensive  8 teacher-training college

43.2 1 I’m taking/doing/sitting an examination tomorrow. or I’ve got an examination tomorrow!
2 I hear you passed / did well in your examination!
3 You can study a lot of different subjects / take a lot of different courses at this university. (A career is a job or profession you follow for life or for many years)
4 I got some good marks/grades in my continuous assessment this term.
5 She’s a teacher in a primary school. (Professors are only in universities and are very senior teachers.)
6 He gave an interesting 45-minute lecture on Goethe. (A conference is a big meeting of people with the same interests, usually lasting several days.)
7 She got a diploma in personnel management. (Only universities can give degrees.)
8 ... we started having French classes/lessons at school. (Seminars are classes held in colleges or universities.)

43.3 Possible questions:
1 Do students in your country get a grant?
2 What’s the difference between a state university and a private one?
3 What goes on at playschools and nursery schools?
4 Why did you choose a teacher-training college instead of a university?
5 What’s the school-leaving age in Britain now?
6 You look terribly tired. What’ve you been doing?
7 Do you get marks/credits/points/percentages for your exams?
8 Did you skip yesterday’s lecture?
9 What are ‘A-levels’?

Follow-up: You could look up these things in an encyclopaedia, or else write to your American Embassy and ask them to send you information about education in the USA. Broadly speaking a high school is like a British secondary school, college means further education, a sophomore is a second-year college student and graduate school is where you study for further degrees, e.g. MA/MSc, after gaining your first degree.

Unit 44

44.1 1 union representative  7 supervisor
2 executive  8 labourer
3 director  9 personnel officer
4 unskilled worker  10 public relations officer
5 administrator  11 security officer
6 safety officer (not the security officer – see answer 11)  12 receptionist
44.2 Suggested answers:

1 This person has been made redundant.
2 He/She's taken early retirement.
3 This is a person who works shifts / does shift-work. (You can also say ... is a shift-worker.)
4 She's been promoted.
5 I got the sack (or I was fired; or I was dismissed – more formal).
6 He/She works nine-to-five. or He/She has a nine-to-five job.
7 You’re a workaholic.

44.3

1 teacher
2 surgeon
3 clerk/secretary/typist/office worker
4 actor/broadcaster/performer of some kind
5 farmer
6 tailor/dressmaker

44.4

1 profession
2 a difficult one; it could be called a trade, but many chefs may prefer to be thought of as ‘professionals’
3 trade
4 profession
5 trade
6 trade (though could be called a profession)
7 unskilled job
8 same as ‘dressmaker’
9 unskilled job
10 profession

44.5

1 get/have
2 living
3 work
4 offered
5 take ... on

Unit 45

45.1 Probable answers:

1 bowling (the bowls have a weight on one side which gives them a bias as they roll)
2 hang-gliding (‘at the top’ = at the top of the hill from which the hang-glider is launched)
3 motor-racing
4 show-jumping (the winner is the rider who completes the course in the quickest time, knocking off the fewest posts)
5 windsurfing (being able to stay upright on the water)
6 darts (hitting the centre gives the highest score, 50 points). If it was archery, the sentence would have said ‘target’ rather than ‘board’.

45.2 Equipment: 1 arrows
2 shuttlecock
3 ball
4 ball
5 dartboard

Clothing:

1 Archers usually wear special gloves, and probably a cap to shade their eyes.
2 Usually sweat-shirt and shorts or a short skirt, with tennis-style shoes, possibly sweatbands too.
3 Hockey-players usually wear shorts or a short skirt, but also protective gloves, shin-pads and possibly a safety-helmet.
4 Baseball players often wear caps, plus protective clothing (special gloves, shin-pads, etc.)
5 No special clothes, since the game is usually played informally in pubs and clubs.

45.3

1 broken
2 beaten/defeated
3 win
4 take up
5 holds
6 scored

45.4

2 a jockey
3 a racing driver
4 a discus/javelin thrower
5 a gymnast
6 a hockey player
7 a footballer or a football player
8 a pole-vaulter
45.5 2 could be golf (golf-course) or horse-racing (racecourse)
3 usually boxing or wrestling
4 used for football, rugby and cricket
5 ice-skating
6 ten-pin bowling or skittles (a traditional British game similar to ten-pin but with only nine pins)
7 skiing

Unit 46

46.1 Probable answers:
1 Sculpture (The verb stand is often associated with statues; it could also be architecture, if ‘Peace’ is interpreted as the name of a building or huge monument.)
2 Cinema (Animated films are often associated with Walt Disney, e.g. the Mickey Mouse cartoons, but are also a serious art form.)
3 Dance (Movement and rhythm are the clues.)
4 Poetry (Rhyme (having the same sounds at the ends of consecutive lines) is often thought of as a necessary quality of good poetry.)
5 Painting (Oils and water-colours are the two most popular types of paint used by artists.)
6 Architecture (We talk of the design of a building.)
7 Drama texts/plays in written form.
8 Perhaps a novel, but it could be any book divided into chapters, e.g. an academic textbook.
9 A play at the theatre (Plays are divided into acts (major divisions) and scenes (smaller divisions.).)
10 Opera: a tenor is a kind of opera singer, who sings in the middle range of voices (neither very high nor very low).

46.2 1 the (The arts relates to all the things in the network on the left-hand page.)
2 no article (the subject in general)
3 the (a particular performance)
4 The (the technique/creative requirements)
5 no article (modern poetry in general – all of it)
6 no article (the speaker is talking about drawing and painting)

46.3 1 What’s the name of the publisher of that book you recommended? Was it Cambridge University Press? (An editorial is an article in a newspaper or magazine giving the opinions of the editor on matters of interest/concern.)
2 ‘I wandered lonely as a cloud’ is my favourite line of English poetry. (A verse is a collection of lines separated from the next verse by a space.)
3 He’s a very famous sculptor: he did that statue in the park, you know, the one with the soldiers. (Sculpture is the name of the art form; sculptor is the person who does it.)
4 Most of the (short) stories in this collection are only five or six pages long. They’re great for reading on short journeys. (A novel is a long work (usually more than 100 pages). Here short story or just story is clearly what the speaker is referring to.)
5 There’s an exhibition of ceramics at the museum next week. (Exposition is only used in very formal academic texts to talk about how an argument is presented. Ceramics as the name of the art form is always plural.)
The sets are excellent in that new production of Macbeth, so dark and mysterious. (Scenery is uncountable and refers to natural beauty in the landscape e.g. ‘There’s some wonderful scenery on the west coast of Ireland’. The attempt to represent a place on a theatre stage is called the set.)

What’s on at the Opera House next week? Anything interesting? (When we want to know what events are taking place, what a cinema is showing, etc., we use the question what’s on? We also need a preposition for opera house; in this case, at is the best one.

46.4 Suitable questions:

1. Was the play a success?
2. Would you like a ticket for the Beethoven tonight?
3. What’s the architecture like in your home-town?
4. Was it a good production?
5. What are they showing at the Arts Cinema at the moment? or What’s on at the cinema?

Follow-up:

Unit 47

47.1

1. A track is one individual song or piece of music that is part of an album. An album usually contains ten or more tracks.
2. These are both ways for musicians to record their work. A CD is a compact disk (made of shiny metal) and a cassette is made of magnetic tape enclosed in a plastic cover. CDs are said to give a better quality of reproduction and to have a longer life.
3. A lead singer is one main singer featured on a CD or in a concert and a backing group consists of several singers or players who support the lead singer.
4. A hit is a successful single (usually – although albums can be referred to as hits as well if they sell particularly well) and a single is one song issued / released individually.
5. Orchestral music is written for a full orchestra and so can only be played in a large hall and chamber music is classical music written for a small group of people so that it can be played in a small room.
6. Country music is a particular style of US music based on the folk music of the south and west USA and folk music is traditional music from any part of the world.
7. Muzak is the kind of soft background music played in public places and aimed largely at soothing people and disco music is loud and aimed at encouraging people to dance.
8. Soothing music is that which calms and relaxes people and discordant music is music that does not follow the normal rules of harmony and so is rather disturbing for most ears.

47.2

The pictures are intended to suggest the following types of music but if they suggest different types of music to you then that is no problem – there cannot really be said to be right and wrong answers here.

1. classical music
2. country music
3. pop music
4. jazz (or blues) music
47.3 positive: tuneful soothing relaxing rousing sweet soft innovative (note that some people will use this word with positive connotations while for others it has negative connotations)

negative: loud deafening discordant tuneless

47.4
1 practise
2 hum
3 chords
4 scales
5 arranged
6 ear
7 whistling
8 making

47.5 Possible answers:
1 Yes, it was ‘Heartbreak Hotel’ by Elvis Presley.
2 I particularly enjoy folk music, guitar music and rock music.
3 I love flamenco music.
4 I'm not that keen on contemporary classical music as I find it rather discordant.
5 I sometimes like to have background music on – something reasonably rousing, some Irish folk songs or some songs from musicals, for example.
6 Music is written on a set of five lines (a stave) with spaces divided into bars. The way the notes are written indicate how long they are i.e. whether they are crotchets, minims, quavers, semi-quavers or semi-breves. Symbols at the beginning of the piece (treble clef or bass clef) indicate the key that the piece should be played in and show which notes are to be played as sharps or flats.

8 I can play the piano a bit but not very well, only for my own pleasure but not for anyone else's.
9 I'd like to be able to play the flute because I love the sound it makes.

49.6  Some possible answers:
      1 Spray cans destroy the ozone layer.
      2 Organic farming means that fewer chemicals pollute the land, and our bodies, and unleaded petrol causes less air pollution than leaded petrol.
      3 Recycling paper means that fewer trees need to be cut down and using bottle banks means that glass is re-used rather than thrown away. There is, thus, less wastage of resources.
4 Environmentalists are also in favour of using solar or wind power, of using as little plastic as possible (because it is not bio-degradable) and of planting new trees instead of simply increasing the amount of land given over to agriculture.

Possible groupings:

Crimes: hi-jacking smuggling bribery drunken driving rape
Punishments: prison death penalty probation community service fine
People connected with the law: witness detective traffic warden lawyer judge members of a jury
The answer to this question is, of course, very much a matter of opinion. Moreover, more details would need to be known about the crime and its circumstances but many people would say that the most serious of all the crimes might be murder, terrorism and rape whereas perhaps the least serious might be bribery, shoplifting and forgery.

Possible paragraph:
Sarah Green (17) was looking out of her bedroom window when she witnessed a crime. She saw a leather-clad young man snatch an old lady’s bag and umbrella. She rang the police who managed to apprehend the young man before he could get away. He was charged with mugging and had to appear before a judge and jury a month later. Yesterday when the case came to trial, Ms Green gave her evidence and John Smith, 19, who pleaded guilty, was convicted of mugging Elsie Jones and sentenced to two years in prison.

Unit 73

73.1 1. racket would be an ideal word here
      2. sound, since it is obviously pleasant
      3. noises/sounds if you mean different sounds, but noise/sound is also possible here if you interpret 'some' to mean not a plural number, but one sound of 'a certain, unidentifiable type', e.g. 'Some animal must have come into the garden last night; look at these footprints.' (it's not clear what sort of animal)
      4. racket (din can also be used, often for discordant music)
      5. noise is probably the best word since it means something negative and can be used uncountably (without a)

Comments:
targeted is used in sentences such as ‘The government has decided to give the extra funds to targeted groups in society’. (specifically chosen) difficult has no adverb in English; we say ‘We did it with difficulty.’
troubling: We have seen some very troubling developments recently. (worrying) troublesome: They are a troublesome group of students. (cause trouble) troubled: I’ve been feeling rather troubled lately about my daughter. (worried) unfailingly: ‘failingly’ doesn’t exist, but ‘unfailingly’ does, e.g. She is unfailingly honest; you can trust her completely.
failed: They have made three failed attempts to save the company.

77.3
1 I find it very difficult to understand English idioms.
2 She succeeded in rising to the top in her profession.
3 Do you ever have any trouble using this photocopier? I always seem to.
4 I’ve managed to work quite hard this last month. (accomplish usually has a direct object, e.g. ‘I’ve accomplished a lot this month’.)
5 I’m amazed that you can cope with all the work they give you.

77.4
Possible answers:
1 I’d get it seen to / repaired.
2 It would probably fold eventually.

2 ocean 3 clanger 4 plate 5 handle 6 block 7 shot

78.2
1 springs 3 just goes 5 leaves
2 flies (this is quite formal) 4 ‘re sitting

78.3
Possible groupings:
be in a fix (be in trouble / have a serious problem), be up to it (be capable of something), be out of sorts (be unwell) all have in common the verb be, but also the fact that they are followed by prepositional phrases.
child’s play (very easy) and a fool’s errand (a wasted/purposeless journey to get something) are both ‘s idioms. (See Unit 85 for more of these.) hold your tongue (be silent), hold your horses (wait before acting/speaking) both of course contain hold, but hold your tongue could also go with stay mum (be silent) because they are very close in meaning. The difference is that hold your tongue is often used in aggressive commands, e.g. Hold your tongue, you! (shut up!).
rough and ready (basic / lacking in comfort), odds and ends (small items difficult to group along with others), give or take (as in ‘It’ll cost £70, give or take £50’, meaning between £650 and £750 approximately) are all butomials (phrases joined by and, but, or; see Unit 81).

89.6 1 WAR
2 your best
3 profit
4 (the) housework
5 allowances for
6 a good impression

89.7 Possible answer:

Before we moved into our new house last year, we had an awful lot of work to do. We wanted to do it up before we moved in. We made an agreement that I would do the painting and wall-papering if Pat would do all the gardening. We probably made a mistake when we decided to do away with an old shed in the garden. It would have come in useful for storing our old paint pots once I had done the decorating. Mind you, the extra space we now have in the garden certainly makes up for not having the storage space. Pat certainly made a great success of the garden. And I did my best at the painting and we always find that both the house and the garden seem to make a very positive impression on our visitors.

274  English Vocabulary in Use (Upper-intermediate)
This skirt is too tight – I’ll have to let it out.

break

You break – can you lend me five pounds for a few days?
Breaking in new shoes can be a painful experience.

Unit 95

95.1 1 kip – to sleep / have a sleep
2 a pal – a friend; nowadays, mate is perhaps the most common informal word for ‘friend’ in British English
3 a chap – a man; chap does have associations of being a middle-class word and perhaps not used so much by young people
4 swot – study hard, e.g. for an exam; you can call someone a swot too
5 ta – thank you, or (slightly less formal) thanks
6 brainy – clever/intelligent; intelligent is the most formal

95.2 Suggested changes:

JIM: Annie, can you lend me five quid?
ANNIE: What for?
JIM: Well, I’ve got to go and see my mum and dad, and my bike’s not working, so I’ll have to take/get a cab.
ANNIE: Can’t you phone/ring/call them and say you can’t come?
JIM: Well, I could, except I want to go because they always have lots of food, and the fridge at our flat (or ‘our place’, which is a common way of talking about your house/flat), is empty, as usual.
ANNIE: Can’t you get the / go by tube?
JIM: Erm ...
ANNIE: Anyway, the answer’s no.

For the sake of practice, we have created a dialogue here that probably has more of a concentration of informal words than would occur in reality. Don’t forget the advice given at the beginning of the unit about using too much informal language.

95.3 1 A teenage boy would probably say a date (or ‘Fancy going out?’), not an appointment in this situation; appointment is for business contexts; too formal.
2 Offspring, if the parent used it, would be heard as humorous, certainly not the normal word for this situation; children or kids (informal) would be the normal words. Offspring would be suitable for legal contexts, religious language and serious history books / biographies; too formal.
3 As with 2, this would be heard as humorous/mock-serious. Most people would say ‘I never drink’ or ‘I never touch alcohol’ in this situation. Alcoholic beverages is very formal/legalistic and you might see it on, e.g. a notice prohibiting drinking in a particular place or the sale of drink at particular times; too formal.
4 This is fine, since within institutions and groups of people who work together, an agreed informal vocabulary develops. In universities, terms like ‘lab’ are used every day.
5 There is a clash here between the very formal style of the letter (‘I should like to enquire …’) and the rather informal ‘ad’. ‘Advertisements’ would be more suitable.
95.4  1 in motion
2 to alight
3 a) to regret  b) to purchase  c) to address
4 Hi! and Bye!

95.5 Suggested answers:
1 Children (or kids) shouldn't drop (or throw, or more informal, chuck) litter in the play-area.

97.1  1 American; a Brit would write labour.
2 Brit; an American would write center.
3 American; a Brit would be much less likely to use a word of this type, probably preferring a phrase like 'taken into hospital'. If s/he did, s/he would probably spell it hospitalised; however, the ending ize instead of ise is becoming much more common in British English these days.
4 American; a Brit would spell it theatre (and would call it cinema).
5 Brit; an American would write favor.
6 American, writing in an informal context; a Brit would write through.
97.2 The pictures represent for a Brit: for an American:
1 TV aerial TV antenna
2 wardrobe closet
3 lift elevator
4 vest undershirt
5 sweets candy
6 nappy diaper
7 pram baby carriage
8 curtains drapes
9 sellotape Scotch tape
10 lorry truck

English Vocabulary in Use
Upper-intermediate • Second edition

English Vocabulary in Use Upper-intermediate is primarily designed as a self-study reference and practice vocabulary book but it can also be used for classroom work. This second edition has been fully revised and updated to ensure that the vocabulary presented is current and relevant.

English Vocabulary in Use Upper-intermediate
• 100 easy-to-use units: vocabulary items are presented and explained on left-hand pages with a range of follow-up activities on right-hand pages.
• Presents and explains new words in context and shows learners how to use them and how to work out rules for using them.
• Based on a corpus of real written and spoken language to ensure the vocabulary is relevant and up-to-date.
• Promotes good learning habits with study tips and follow-up tasks.
• Contains a comprehensive, student-friendly answer key.
• Includes a detailed index with phonemic transcriptions to help with the pronunciation of difficult vocabulary.
• Is beautifully illustrated in full colour.
